

ON HOTEL,
N HEIGHTS,
N.C.Y.

and commodious House for the reception of visitors. It is situated on the corner of the city and half miles from any Railroad, and has a station, 10 minutes of Quincy—the distance
old town, whether for will find the Hotel, shopping place. Travelers will find it a very pleasant and a very HOUSE. of any name or nature
the premises.
BOARDING STABLE in
the BOARD, Proprietor.

WRIGHT
& Painting
NESS. secured the services in prepared to manage, or any other in the summer, at the out
J. Q. A. WILD.

ONARY'S
D BOSTON
ESS.
E S : 36 Merchants Row, Boston & Co.'s Store,
No. 100 South Street,
Boston at 2 1/2 P. M.

OSIE'S
ESS.
& Boston.
Boston at 2 1/2 P. M.
100 South Street,
Boston at 2 1/2 P. M.

W EXPRESS.
leaving Boston.
BOSTON at 2 1/2 P. M.
100 South Street,
Boston at 2 1/2 P. M.

RT SQUARE.—Going & Chapin's, 61
and 63 Faneuil Hall
BOSTON at 2 1/2 P. M.
100 South Street,
Boston at 2 1/2 P. M.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,
Attorney at Law,
BOSTON.
BOSTON at 2 1/2 P. M.
100 South Street,
Boston at 2 1/2 P. M.

H. ALEXANDER CASE,
CIVIL ENGINEER & SURVEYOR
PROSPECT AVENUE,
WOLLASTON.
Quincy, Nov. 22.

WHITMAN & BRECK,
Civil Engineers & Surveyors,
BOSTON.
BOSTON at 2 1/2 P. M.
100 South Street,
Boston at 2 1/2 P. M.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING,
—BY—
M. ELIZABETH GREEN,
AND
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT.
TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.
$1.00, if not paid before the close of the year.
OFFICE.—No. 64 Hancock Street,
OVER MR. CLAPP'S STORE.
Posters, Cards, Billheads, Circulars,
Labels, Programmes, &c.
PRINTED PROMPTLY
On the Most Reasonable Terms,
And Greatly Below Boston Prices.

DR. N. DOWNES,
Physician and Surgeon,
He takes the House on the corner of Washington and Edwards Streets, and would give as REFERENCES.
Dr. Bowditch and Storer of Boston, and Dr.
Bauchop of Newmarket, and Dr. Ware of Milton.
Quincy, Oct. 4

J. W. SMALL, M. D.,
Physician and Surgeon,
Office No. 4 Temple Street,
QUINCY.
Office Hours.—All hours, day and night,
when not absent on business.
Quincy, Aug. 20.

J. A. GORDON, M. D.,
Physician and Surgeon,
HANCOCK STREET.
REFERENCES.
H. L. Bowditch, M. D., D. W. Cheever, M. D.,
D. H. Storer, M. D.,
Office Hours.—From 10 to 5 and after 7, P. M.,
Quincy, May 24.

JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.,
Homeopathic Physician,
Residence near the new Adams Academy
HANCOCK STREET. QUINCY.
Aug. 25.

J. F. KEITH,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Office Over J. H. TAYLOR'S DRUG STORE,
Hancock St., Quincy.
Office hours, from 8 o'clock A. M. to 12 M.
Quincy, Oct. 11.

HENRY LUNT,
Counsellor at Law,
And Secretary Bondholders' and Creditors' Agency.
OFFICE.—55 Devonshire St. Rooms 13 & 14.
Boston, Jan. 11.

R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Entrances to Office,
No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.
No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.
Office hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Jan. 12.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,
Attorney at Law,
BOSTON.
BOSTON at 2 1/2 P. M.
100 South Street,
Boston at 2 1/2 P. M.

QUINCY
MARBLE WORKS.
THE Proprietor would respectfully announce that he has enlarged his premises, by the addition of a Ware-room, where EVERY VARIETY
—OF—Monumental Work, from the simplest grave-stone, to the Most Elegant and Costly Tablet, may be seen finished and ready for lettering.
All persons needing such, are invited to call and judge for themselves—they are sure to find in so large a Collection what will suit their taste and requirements.
The character of the place for good work and honest dealings is so well known that it is not necessary to refer to it.
All prices from ten dollars upwards.
SHOP and YARD near South Quincy Depot
P. McGRATH
Quincy, April 27.

KID GLOVES,
Warranted!
NEW PAIRS given for any that fail with little wear. An invoice of LADIES' KID GLOVES,
just received and for sale VERY LOW—by
E. CLAPP.
Quincy, Sept. 27

MESSINGER BROTHERS'
GENTLEMEN'S DINING ROOMS,
OPEN NEW.
55 Bromfield St. & 15 Montgomery Place
BOSTON.
Rooms by the Day or Week.
F. W. MESSINGER, E. M. MESSINGER.
Feb. 1—17

FIRE INSURANCE!!
PERSONS wishing INSURANCE can obtain fair rates, in RELIABLE COMPANIES—by applying to
C. W. CARTER.
1 Pemberton Square, Boston.
Quincy, Dec. 7.

JOHN HARDWICK,
Real Estate and Insurance Agent,
Granite Street, Quincy.
COMPANIES REPRESENTED :
QUINCY MUTUAL,
DORCHESTER MUTUAL,
WETMOUTH & BRAINTREE MUTUAL,
CENTRAL MUTUAL,
ORIENT, HARTFORD.
ALSO—
LIFE, STEAM BOILER, and MARINE INSURANCE promptly written in the best Companies.
May 4.

THE QUINCY MUTUAL
Fire Insurance Comp'y.
CASH FUND, November 1st, 1873,
$260,000,
And every Loss paid in full. Surplus over reinsurance,
Over $45,000.
Dividends on expiring policies paid from and after Nov. 10, 1873, on all policies now in force.
None but the Safest classes of hazards written.
L. W. MUNROE, Pres.
CHAS. A. HOWLAND, Sec.
Quincy, Nov. 15—17

INSURANCE AGENCY,
ESTABLISHED BY
W. PORTER,
1849.
AT QUINCY.
INSURANCE EFFECTED in Reliable and Safe
STOCK and MUTUAL OFFICES—by
W. PORTER & CO.,
At No. 27 State Street, Boston.
Residence, Quincy, corner Adams and Hancock Streets.
Quincy, April 26.

DORCHESTER
MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.
Cash Fund, April 1st, 1873,
$84,733.64.
Cash uncollected on Deposit Notes,
$59,000.00.
Balance on Deposit Notes, not called on $60,100.00.
Absolute Funds, April 1st, 1873,
$194,833.64.
Amount at risk, $1,600 Policies, and
Insured, $12,471,654.00.
The Company insures Dwellings and other Buildings not extra hazardous, and their contents, at as low rates as any other reliable Company.
W. F. TEMPLE, Secretary.
Neponset, April 26—17

MR. J. B. STETSON
CAN receive a few more Quincy pa-pals, in addition to his large list already underway. The WINTER TERM will begin on the 17th instant, and will be Twenty Lessons in length, as in Boston and elsewhere; and the price reduced to THIRTY DOLLARS a course of two lessons a week, as provided. No charge for music. Classes of two or three can be formed by pupils themselves, at the same rate, (an hour and a half then given.)— This plan should become popular, as it is in-superior to the conservatory system.
One hour daily practice required.
Piano and Singing Lessons both given, if desired, and without extra charge.
Pupils can begin at any time.
Quincy, Nov. 8.

J. A. LITTLEFIELD,
Piano and Organ Tuner.
PIANOS
SOLD, AND EXCHANGED, on Favorable Terms.
Pianos Tuned by the year.
Repairing, Regulating, &c., in a manner unparalleled.
Orders sent to Patriot Office promptly attended to.
December 6.

WILLIAM B. WOODBRIDGE,
TEACHER OF MUSIC,
170 Tremont Street, Room 3,
BOSTON.
N. B. Pupils in Quincy waited on at their residence, and Classes formed if desired.
"Best of City references." 3m
November 29.

Mrs. H. A. CASE,
TEACHER OF MUSIC,
PROSPECT AVENUE,
WOLLASTON.
Quincy, Nov. 22.

ORVILLE M. TILDEN,
TEACHER OF MUSIC.
Terms.—$15 for TWENTY LESSONS,
PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.
P. O. Address, Box 128, NORTH EASTON, MASS.
Agent for Pianos and Organs.
Order left at the Quincy Patriot Office, will receive prompt attention.
Sept. 20

PIANOS.....PIANOS. would invite his friends and patrons to call and examine.
J. N. BLAKE.
Quincy, July 26.

THE BEST PIANO,
For the least amount of money!!
The undersigned having taken the Agency of the VOSE & SONS' PIANOS, and having personal experience in the manufacture of their instruments, will warrant perfect satisfaction to every purchaser.
NINE DIFFERENT STYLES.
ALWAYS ON HAND.
They are superior in every respect—in tone, finish, and durability.
Give us a call and be convinced.
Pianos sold on INSTALLMENTS.
Old Pianos taken in exchange.
A. P. HILL,
TAYLOR and HARTFORD.
Orders left at No. 506 Washington St., Boston, or at his residence at Quincy Point, will receive prompt attention.
Quincy, April 19—17

MUSICAL GIFTS
For Christmas & New Years.
A Book to read—and a lute, a lute, a lute, a lute, Give the boy a DREAM, or some other easily learned instrument.—
Give to a lady friend
a nice Guitar, Violin, or some of these large and beautiful
MUSIC BOXES.
These and other instruments of excellent quality for sale by JOHN C. HAYNES & CO.,
33 Court St. (opposite Court House), Boston.
Nov. 4.

.... AT ....
D. B. STETSON'S
MEN'S RUBBER BOOTS ARE SOLD AT $4.00 PER PAIR.
Ladies' Rubber Overs, 65 cts. per pair.
Misses' " " 55 " "
Children's " " 45 " "
These Goods are of this year's make and are better than last year's.
Washington Street.... Quincy.
October 11.

90 Hancock St.
IS THE PLACE TO BUY
GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS,
Where you will find A LARGE AND VARIED STOCK OF Ties, Bowes,
String Ties, Scarfs,
Collars, Cuffs, White Shirts, Woolen Shirts, Colored Shirts, Under Shirts and Drawers.
SOCKS, GLOVES, MITTENS,
—ALSO—
A NEW STOCK OF JEWELRY!
In PINS, RINGS,
SLEEVE BUTTONS, STUDS, Collar Buttons, Charms, &c.
Selling at our usual Low Prices.

GEORGE SAVILLE,
No. 90 Hancock street,
QUINCY.
Quincy, Sept. 27.

JUST RECEIVED,
A New and Choice Stock
—OF—
CROCKERY.
THE subscriber having just received a FRESH WARE, which he is SELLING CHEAP,
would invite his friends and patrons to call and
examine.
J. N. BLAKE.
Quincy, July 26.

LUMBER!
The subscribers would respectfully announce to the inhabitants of Quincy and vicinity, that they are continuing to receive
A FULL ASSORTMENT OF
ALL KINDS OF LUMBER!
CONSISTING IN PART OF
SPRUCE AND HEMLOCK
Frames.
WORKED FLOORING,
PINE, SPRUCE AND HEMLOCK
Covering Boards.
MATCHED ROOFING BOARDS,
CLAPBOARDS,
PICKETS,
SHINGLES,
LATHS, etc., etc.
We also keep constantly on hand a full assortment of
DRY AND DRESSED
FINISH LUMBER,
GUTTERS, CONDUCTORS,
—AND—
MOULDINGS.

We are prepared to furnish Builders with First-Class Mouldings at less than Manufacturers' Prices!
—ALSO—
We have also received a lot of good old fashioned Shaved Cedar Shingles!
All of which we will sell at a small advance from cost, for cash, on Wharf, or deliver promptly to order.

W. F. LAKIN & CO.,
SOUTHERN WHARF,
QUINCY.
P. S. Frames Sawed to Order.
May 17.

WARD'S INK
Barnard Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
E. B. SOUTHER,
Feb. 1—17

Poetry.
Old and New.
The old is everlastingly true,
Never to be replaced by a new phase;
The new into a living being wakes,
But tells us not the mission of its days.
We know not where upon the world's great hill,
Our feet may touch before the new year close;
Or who his life's short journey shall fulfil,
Or sink into eternally's repose.
Alas! nor do we know how great the fall
We may experience ere the year decline.
Then let each one his brother's good extol,
And all will journey nearer the divine.
The old is gone—none can the hours retrieve
Which they have spent in company with sin;
So let the past do not too deeply grieve,
But with the new a better life begin.
In what the old has been a tutor wise,
Suffer that knowledge not to be forgot;
For who to greater eminence would rise Must learn the lessons which the past has taught.
Wherein our changeful lives have erred before,
Let us more watchful be in days to come;
Great Heaven's never-failing strength implore,
And sin's alluring tongues are henceforth dumb.

Should we, while running thro' the present year,
O'ertake a brother who has lost the road,
Let us not, with a self-complacent jeer,
Direct him to the hopeless man's abode;
But tell him, tho' his feet have often slipped,
And failure marks each effort of the past,
The coming moments are with blessings tipped
That will dispart's most wretched night outlast.
Assist him to that land whose golden gates
Transcend the brightness of the noonday sun;
Where the great God with loving welcome waits
The coming of His children, one by one.
—Lynx Reporter.

Receipts, Wit & Humor.
TAPIOCA PUDDING. One cup of tapioca; 3 eggs; 1 quart of sweet milk; 3 tablespoons of sugar; a little salt;
flavor as you like.
Mrs. Livermore is our authority for saying that thousands of women are married to men for whom they don't care a copper, that they may get a home.
At a prayer-meeting in Maine, a few nights ago, one of the members prayed: "Lord, Thou knowest that Charles Tompkins has sold poor boots to some of us. Make him do the fair thing by the next buyer."
A happy misquotation by a young lady, whose gentleman caller staid too late, caused a speedy good-bye. The clock struck twelve, and she remarked:
"Now is the witching hour of night, when people yawn." Tobaccoist (to youth who has been turning over the stock of pipes for the last quarter of an hour, and has bought nothing). "Ah! I see what it is. You're so particular you ought to be measured for a pipe."
A Pittsburg man, who has paid $350 for his wife's molars, being complimented on the "pearly" appearance of her teeth, growled, scripturally: "Yes pearls of great price."
A certain Mr. David Fender, popping the question in a letter, concluded thus: And should you say "Yes," dear Mary, I will truly be your D. Fender.
An old lady remarkable for her confused idea of the meaning of words, thus described a clear summer evening:
"It was a beautiful bright night—the moon made everything as light as a cork!"
BEGINNING AT HOME. A student at college included in the list of expenses which he sent to his father the item,
"Charity, thirty dollars." The father remarked in his reply, "I fear that charity covers a multitude of sins."
A poet wrote, "See the pale martyr in a sheet of fire!" The printer made him say, "See the pale martyr with his shirt on fire!"
An Irishman seeing a vessel very heavily laden, and scarcely above the water's edge, exclaimed, "Upon my soul, if the river was but a little higher, the ship would go to the bottom!"
If the man who has got to the top of the hill by honesty is ashamed to turn about and look at the lowly road he has travelled, he deserves to be taken by the neck and hurled to the bottom again.
The handsomest compliment you can pay a woman of sense is to address her as such.
SYMPATHY. To find one who has passed through life without sorrow, you must find one incapable of love or hatred of hope or fear—none of these has no memory of the past and no hope of the future—
one that bath no sympathy with humanity, and no feeling in common with the rest of the species.
A gentleman who rather suspected some one was peeping through the keyhole of his office door, investigated with a syringe full of pepper sauce, and went home to find his wife had been cutting wood, and a chip had hit her in the eye.

W. F. LAKIN & CO.,
SOUTHERN WHARF,
QUINCY.
P. S. Frames Sawed to Order.
May 17.

WARD'S INK
Barnard Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
E. B. SOUTHER,
Feb. 1—17

WARD'S INK
Barnard Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
E. B. SOUTHER,
Feb. 1—17

WARD'S INK
Barnard Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
E. B. SOUTHER,
Feb. 1—17

WARD'S INK
Barnard Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
E. B. SOUTHER,
Feb. 1—17

Miscellany.
New Year's Eve in a Storm.
"What a dreary New Year's Eve!" exclaimed Sholto Morton, as he pulled the collar of his overcoat up around his neck and turned in his solitary promenade on the deck of the steamer.
The night was indeed very stormy, the rain sweeping down with a steady, continuous rush, the wind howling through the rigging, and the sea heaving and dashing in black waves around the vessel. It was only the Sound, but the weather was so rough that half of the passengers were sick, and, disgusted with the close air below, Sholto had come on deck for a breath of purer atmosphere.
He was on his way from New York to New Haven on business for the firm in which he was junior partner, and as he braved the storm there, he thought reflectively of last New Year's Eve and how different it had been to see the Old Year out and the New Year in. As the clock struck twelve he had been seated beside Lulu Grafton in the alcove formed by a big bow window.
He remembered how the snow on the window outside had sparkled in the moonlight, how Lulu had complained of being chilly, and he had drawn her pretty white cloak around her; then, shielded by the curtains, he had taken her hand in his, her pretty head had drooped, and he was just about to avow the love he had long felt for her when the great clock struck twelve, midnight, and an instant after Mrs. Grafton's voice demanded sharply:
"Where is Lulu?"
At this awful sound the two young people came out from behind the curtains, looking doubtless foolish enough.
At last Mrs. Grafton glared at them sharply, as if she suspected their secret, and since that unlucky time Sholto had never been invited to her house again.
Lulu was half orphan and an heiress, and Mrs. Grafton no doubt thought that Sholto Morton, who was only a clerk then and not even junior partner, was no fit match for her handsome and wealthy daughter. He was cut dead by not being invited to the grand Grafton ball, the cards for which were sent out the day after New Year.

Of course he could not go to see Lulu any more. He could only catch a glimpse of her on rare occasions on the street or at the theatre, and very soon she, too, began to look coldly at him, so that he despaired of ever winning her aid, though he loved her still, resigned himself to the hopelessness of his passion.
He walked on now up and down, up and down, until he began to feel chilled, and the wet seemed to creep through even his waterproof overcoat. He had forgotten all about the discomfort of the scene as he thought of how happy he had been a year ago, until the going out of his cigar recalled him to himself, and he awoke to the dreariness of the surroundings with a shiver. He would seek some shelter. He could not go into the cabin, but perhaps he could find a comfortable place in the roofed deck in front of the ladies' saloon. So thinking, Morton went on till he reached a door which led into this retreat. He looked in through the glass to see if he should be intruding on any woman who might have taken possession of it. The place was entirely deserted, however, and he stepped in.
It was a gloomy spot, lit only by a swaying lantern that hung from the roof, and filled up on one side with piles of freight and luggage. Still, here Sholto was sheltered from the wind and rain, and as there was a long settee each side of the cabin door, he sat down on one of them, took off his wet overcoat, and prepared to make himself as comfortable as he could until he should be so sleepy as to insure repose even amid the disagree-ables below.
He had been there but a few moments when the door beside him opened and a lady came out. She was wrapped in a large, dark cloak and hood. Morton could not see her face; but just as she was stepped forth the vessel gave a lurch.
The deck was slippery, and she would have fallen had he not sprung up and caught her in his arms. She uttered a faint cry at the sudden clasp, her hood fell back, and he saw who it was.
"Miss Grafton!" he gasped.
Her eyes were not yet fully accustomed to the light, but some subtle instinct seemed to tell her who it was that held her.
"Oh, Mr. Morton!" she exclaimed.
"Let me support you a moment till you are seated," said Sholto, and so, still with his arm about her, he guided her to the sofa, and then could do no less than sit down beside her.
For a moment neither of them spoke, each was too much overcome with the suddenness of the encounter to easily find words. At last Morton said:

"This is a very unexpected pleasure, Miss Grafton. I had no thought of finding you as my fellow voyager."
"No, I had no idea of being here till this morning," replied Lulu. But mamma received a letter at breakfast time informing her that Frank is ill. You know he is the cousin mamma has had charge of so long; he is a Freshman now at Yale College; and so mamma at once decided to go to him, and I of course came with her."
"And I am going to New Haven on business," explained Sholto. A little while ago I was lamenting the necessity that drove me out on such a night and in such a storm; now I bless it!"
Lulu did not reply, and Sholto presently asked:
"Where is Mrs. Grafton now?"
"She is asleep. Poor mamma! she has been dreadfully sick, and indeed, it was so close inside, I feared I might be ill too, and came out here for pure air."
There was silence again for some moments, except for the angry rush of the waves outside, the dash of the rain on the roof above, and the war of the wind.
"Oh, Mr. Morton! do you think there is any danger?" asked Lulu at last.
"No, I believe not; but you are frightened," he said, looking at her pale face earnestly. "No indeed, I don't think there is any cause for alarm."
The desire to clasp the little trembling figure in his arms was almost irresistible.
"It is a horrible night!" she said, with a shiver.
"Yes, and you are chilly. Let me fasten your cloak better." As he put out his hand to draw the warm folds around her, he recollected, oh! so vividly, the moment when he had clasped the white opera cloak about her throat the year before. "Oh, Miss Lulu!" he exclaimed, with an overwhelming impulse, "do you remember a year ago to-night when I was with you at that party?"
"Yes, Lulu just whispered the word, her fair head drooping as it had done a year ago.
A wild desire to know all—to be refused if he must be, but at least to learn his fate from her lips—overcame Sholto.
He felt himself in a position now when he could honorably woo her—the opportunity might never come again—and he said, suddenly:
"Can you guess what I should have said last New Year's Eve, if your mother had not called you?"
"No," faltered Lulu. But didn't she really know, I wonder?
"I should have told you that I loved you, that I adored you, that I worshipped you; but then, if you had heard me, I should not have been nearly so worthy of your acceptance as I am now, for I love you a thousand times more now than I did then; I believe I am a better man, and, what your mother would regard, I am surely a richer one. Tell me, Lulu, do you like me well enough to take me for life?"
He had stolen his arm around her as he spoke, but she did not draw away, and as he finished her head sank on his shoulder, with some faint murmured words that Morton certainly interpreted to signify consent, for he pressed a kiss on the lips that uttered them, and for a while there was between them the silence of happiness.
"Oh, Lulu," he said at last, "I was so miserable after last New Year!"
"Why?"
"Because I could not see you any more."
"But why couldn't you see me? I'm sure I thought it very odd you never came to the house again."
"How could I when you all cut me?"
"Cut you! I don't understand."
"Yes, you sent me no card to your ball. Of course, after that, I could not come to your house again, and then you looked coldly at me, and I thought I had lost your favor."
"Of course I looked coldly at you, sir,
I never knew you were not invited to the ball. You did not call, and—and I was very unhappy."
"Then you loved me all the time!"
cried Morton.
"Certainly I did, and refused two offers for your sake; but I never meant to tell you so!" she half pouted.
"And I never hoped to tell you of my love, darling, and probably never should if I had not met you here. But what will your mother say?"
"I don't think she'll oppose us much.
I was twenty-one last birthday, and can do as I please. Besides, she told me the other day that she had heard you spoken of very highly lately, and there is a card for you I'm sure for our next ball, if we don't have to give it up on account of Frank's illness. I don't think we shall, though. He is a sort of spoiled child, and wanted mamma to come up and see him more than anything else, I fancy."
"Then, darling, this will indeed be a happy New Year!"

Spendthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Spentthrifts' Capitals—I O U.

Public.

CONDITIONS.

No subscription nor Advertisement will be discontinued previous to the payment of all arrearages, unless at the option of the Publisher.
Advertisements correctly and conspicuously inserted at the customary rates, and will be charged until ordered "per".
The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to their own immediate business.

Advertising Agents.

The following gentlemen are authorized Agents to receive Advertisements for the Patriot.
BOSTON.—S. M. PETTINGILL CO., S. R.
NILES, HORACE DODD, and T. C. EVANS.
NEW YORK.—S. M. PETTINGILL & CO.,
Geo. P. ROWELL & Co., and PRASLER & Co.
PHILADELPHIA.—COR. WETHERILL & Co.

38TH VOLUME.

A Family Paper devoted to Morals, Education, Agriculture, News and General Literature.

VOLUME XXXVIII.

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, JANUARY 10, 1874.

NUMBER 2

WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber.

Raincock Street,
QUINCY,

Near the Post Office.
K&P Constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead Pipe, Warm-Closets various kinds, Forcing and Suction Pumps, Bath Tubs and Sinks Made in various patterns, Brass and Plated Works, &c. &c.

Pumps of all kinds Repaired.

Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly filled.

Melrose, June 18.

WARD'S INK
Samuel Ward & Co., Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
E. B. SOUTHER,
Feb. 1.—17

any who may desire, will furnish with an estimate of putting up of our Furniture complete.

SEND FOR CIRCULARS.

No. 21 Bedford street,
BOSTON.

Feb. 8.—1y

THE BEST PAPER IN BOSTON
OR NEW ENGLAND.

TERMS: Of News Dealers, 4 Cents per copy by Mail, $10 per annum.
The Weekly Globe is only $2 per annum, and is the cheapest weekly in the United States.

GLOBE PUBLISHING CO., BOSTON.

September 5. 8m

red who never to himself hath said, "I pay before I go to bed, the debt I owe the printer?"

Yes, there are some we know full well but they, we fear, will go to— well—the place where there's no winter.

blue shirt his heart beat so that y could count the pulses, I forgot my c tion. I brought out cold meat and brea drew a mug of cider, and spread the on the table. The negro ate voraciously as only a starving man could eat, and left him to find Anthony, to whom I

What had sprung on my assassin was the silence of a leopard? What had clutched me from him, and stood off him with something glittering above my heart? The mist cleared away—

He says, he remembers when he was less than three years old. "My father then removed into a new house. I remember the event from this circumstance: a little girl, then five years old, with whom I was at play, wanted a case-knife which I called mine. I refused to give it

FOR WARMING
Stores,
Churches,
School Houses,
Public Buildings,
Private Residences,
&c., &c.

To any desiring a GOOD HEATER can offer GREAT INDUCEMENTS; and who may desire, will furnish with the estimate of putting up of our Furnace complete.

SEND FOR CIRCULARS.

21 Bedford street,
BOSTON.

38TH VOLUME.

VOLUME XXXVIII.

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 1874.

NUMBER 3

and Jobbing of all kinds.
August 21. tf

WILLIAM B. RYAN.
Practical Plumber.
Crescent Street, QUINCY.

Call at the First Office.
PIPE CONNECTIONS on hand, Super Lead, Lead Pipe, Water-Closets various kinds, Forcing Cannon, Pumps, Bath Tubs and Boilers, Sub-soils various patterns, Brass and Prated
Iron.

Pumps of all kinds Repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly tended to.
August, June 10. tf

WARD & CO.
WARD'S
General Ward & Co., Proprietors, Boston.

FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
E. E. SOUTH,
Feb 11-37

And every loss paid in full. Surplus over re-
Over $45,000.

Dividends on expiring policies paid from and after Nov. 10, 1878, on all policies now in force.
None but the Safest classes of hazards written.

CHAS. A. HOWLAND, Secy.
Quincy, Nov. 15.—if

INSURANCE AGENCY,
ESTABLISHED BY
W. PORTER &
1849.
AT QUINCY.

INSURANCE EFFECTED in Reliable and Safe
STOCK and MUTUAL OFFICES—by
W. PORTER & CO.,
At No. 27 State Street, Boston.

Residence, Quincy, corner Adams and Hancock Streets.

Quincy, April, 26. 5m

HOT-AIR FURN

FOR WARMING
Stores,
Churches,
School Houses,
Public Buildings,
Private Residences,
&c., &c.

For any desiring a GOOD HEATER, we can offer GREAT INDUCEMENTS; and to any who may desire, will furnish with an estimate of putting up of our Pur-nance complete.

SEND FOR CIRCULARS.

No. 21 Bedford street,
BOSTON.

Feb. 8-17

"* Physicians" Prescriptions carefully composed at all hours of the day and night.
Trusting that this judicious treatment of our customers and a careful attention to their wants to merit a portion of the patronage of the citizens of Quincy, I remain,
The public's old servant,
E. H. TREADWAY.
Quincy Dec. 20 5m

---

BURT'S DYSPEPSIA CURE.

This Medicine is prepared from an original prescription of the late eminent Dr. WHAISTON, of London, and is a safe and reliable remedy in all cases of indigestion. It is a medicine that can eat any kind of food without being distressed.
One dose will settle a Sour Stomach or relieve acid Headache. For CONSTIPATION it affords the most reliable relief. It is a Vegetable, natural state. It cures FLATULES by removing the cause. It acts upon the Liver, cleanses the Stomach, and restores the Appetite to the weak body. One or two bottles will in all cases effect a permanent cure. Sold at Druggists, Eclyston Boston, and by Druggists

Dec. 20. 4m

The near-sighted hen that ate sawdust supposing it to be corn meal, then went and laid a nest full of bureau knobs, sat on 'em three weeks and hatched out a complete set of parlor furniture, was a pretty fair hen.

SHARP. A sharp student was called up by the worthy professor of a celebrated college, and asked the question:—
“Can a man see without eyes?”
“Yes sir,” was the prompt reply.
“How, sir,” cried the astonished professor, “can a man see without eyes?”
How do you make that out?”
“He can see with one, sir,” replied the ready-witted youth; and the whole class shouted with delight at the triumph over metaphysics.

for tidings from the sea. * * *

The Osprey had done her work, and was lying in the shelter of the Falklands, while they refitted for the homeward voyage—and the captain and mate went up among the rocky highland on a hunt, to while away the time. Throughout the voyage, no one could have done his duty better than James Warner; and Frazier had laughed in secret at the very idea that his mate could wish him harm. They slung their muskets. And Warner threw a coil of rope about his shoulders, for he said that they might find penguin's eggs among the ledges, which they could not reach without a line. The captain carried a small basket.

"I suppose you are to be married as soon as you get back, Will?" said the

for more than forty years, it is believed that your readers will be interested in some account of this remarkable woman in your columns.

Although the death of Sarah M. Grimké, has been announced in many of the papers, yet, perhaps but few, now living, remember the great sensation produced fifty years ago, throughout the Northern and the Southern States, by the announcement of her having renounced her inheritance, as a slave-holder. She and her sister Angelina, daughters of the Hon. John F. Grimké, Judge of the Supreme Court of S. Carolina, abandoning home and wealth, forever, because they could not countenance American Slavery. Sarah, the elder of these sisters, published a full "Narrative and Testimony" of that solemn event. It was dated at South offered a reward of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. He was then the editor of a Methodist Anti-Slavery paper, in New York, copies of which finding their way to Charleston S. C., they were publicly burned in the street by the hangman; and a brother member of the South Carolina Annual Conference, Rev. J. C. Pastell, wrote me, saying, that if I would only show my face in that city, the Methodist brethren in New Orleans, would raise half of that sum, and he would guarantee, that I should not be put to any trouble in getting back to New York, again!

Albeit, these sisters had commenced life in the fogs of the old theology, yet, it is interesting to witness, how soon they emerged into the light of open day, as they began to work in earnest for those in bonds. Thus instinctively the sectarian dogmas lose their power over us, when once fully committed to the cause of human freedom. Sarah M. Grimke, was a model woman. She loved the truth, and uttered it. She loved righteousness for its own sake, and she practiced it. She did "good to the souls and the bodies" of all, as opportunity offered, asking for no reward. She lived under the supreme control of virtue. Her sympathies and kindness of heart were unbounded. Of a meek and gentle spirit, genial, affable, and kind, in her inmost nature, and yet she rebuked the wrong doer, with an authority that could not be disputed. Though never "possessed of this world's goods," after leaving her home in the South, she manifested a keen sense of equity, lest she might be a burden to some one, in her old age; but, she was always cheerful and hopeful. Progressive in her tendencies, she never ceased to manifest a deep interest in the franchise movement, for woman. She was bold in the utterance of her convictions. Her soul was too large for sectarian limits. Wholly unselfish, the natural goodness of her heart, drew around her the good and the true of all parties, all colors, and all nations. She had made her principal home in the family of the sister and brother, where she died, and—

"The weary work winds Expire not too soon," as this excellent woman sunk to her final rest. Her intelligence, and the genial aroma that flowed from her conversation, secured for her a large circle of appreciative friends; and, among whom, she was often found. Of the pleasant days spent in the families of Gerrit Smith, Mr. Garrison, Mr. Jackson, and others, I have often heard her speak. In my own household, she was considered as a member, and never as a mere guest. She was a good woman, and her example shall be the inspiration of generations yet unborn.

LARRY SCENDELAND.
Rustic Lodge, Jan. 5th, 1874.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JAN. 17, 1874.

"Born to no Master, of no Sect are We."

Short communications and items of news earnestly solicited from friends and patrons. Anonymous communications are not published.

A POWERFUL PUMP. Money has been raised by subscription, and a large and powerful pump has been purchased by some of our enterprising citizens. Last week it was placed in Mr. William Panten's currying shop, over Webb's brook, where there is at all seasons an abundance of water. After connecting it with the steam boiler it was tested a little with the best of satisfaction. This week another trial, was had,—those were laid in the Unitarian Church, nearly a quarter of a mile, and a handsome stream of water was thrown, after passing through this long strip of hose. It has every indication of giving most perfect satisfaction, and from what we have witnessed we think it will be the greatest protection against fire in the centre of the town, of anything we have ever had. And, in these times, when fires are so common, and also so destructive in other places, it is certainly a great blessing. Many thanks to Capt. Felix and other citizens who have taken such active part in this good work.

ELECTED. At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the National Granite Bank, held on the 15th inst., the following gentlemen were chosen Directors for the ensuing year:—

Daniel Baxter, James Torrey, Charles Marsh, John Faxon, Jesse Burton, John D. Walcott and Alexis Torrey.

On the Thursday following the Board was organized by the election of Hon. Chas. Marsh as President.

NATIONAL MOUNT WOLLASTON BANK. At the annual meeting of the stockholders held 6th inst., the following named gentlemen were elected Directors: John Q. Adams A. W. Russell, Joseph W. Robertson, Edward Turner, Eleazar Pratt, Lemuel Baxter, Edwin B. Fredrick, Israel W. Munroe and Edward H. Dewson. Mr. A. W. Russell was chosen in place of Capt. Lewis Bass deceased.

THE WEATHER. Old Winter with his blustering winds and clouds of snow visited us on Tuesday night, and raged quite furiously most all day Wednesday, covering the earth nearly two feet deep with the feathery mass, which came whirling down. This storm has made quite a change in the looks and appearance of things in this vicinity. On Friday of last week, ploughing at the National Sailors' Home, and other places in this vicinity, might be seen, and the mildness of the weather was the theme of conversation. But a great change has come quickly over the face of nature, and hoary Winter has now put in his appearance. The trains on the Old Colony Railroad were generally on time during the storm on Wednesday, and travel was not interrupted.

G. A. R. The officers of Paul Revere Post, G. A. R., were duly installed by Past Commander, J. P. Jordan, last Tuesday evening.

W. W. Penniman was elected Vice-Commander, in place of Past Commander Sheen, who declined office.

Commander Porter is to be congratulated on having good officers to assist him the new year.

J. B. Stetson tells us that Barnabee is coming. Read the advertisement.

Adams Academy Boarding House.

The building used for many years as a hotel, and known as the Hancock House, now makes an excellent home for the pupils of the Adams Academy. The rooms throughout the building were thoroughly cleaned, papered and painted, and with their neat iron beds, hair mattresses, blankets, &c., make a very comfortable and attractive appearance. The beds are single,—adapted expressly for one person. In some of the larger rooms, there are two beds, and in a few, three. The building is heated by two large furnaces in the cellar, which burn a ton of coal a week. The large room in a second story, used in hotel times as a dancing hall, makes now an excellent reading and study room for the students. A large shed in the rear of the house has been fitted expressly for a gymnasium, giving the boys a grand chance for healthy exercise. There are now forty-seven scholars, Prof. Dimmock and family, and three assistant teachers boarding at the house; which, together with the Superintendent, assistant cooks, &c., make about sixty persons,—a good household. The students all dine in one room and a jolly, pleasant time they have. The Superintendent informs us that they cook about fifty pounds of fresh meat per day, and a bushel of potatoes, and other things in proportion. Eight to ten turkeys with the usual fixings make a good dinner.

We examined their bill of fare and soon came to the conclusion that we would not object to dining with them, at least the variety was excellent. The bill for rising is rung at seven o'clock and breakfast is served during the winter at half past seven, dinner at half past ten, and tea at quarter past six. If a boy is absent from any meal he must report the cause and fact to the teacher within an hour.

The evening study hours are from seven to nine. At nine, evening prayers are held. Ten o'clock is the hour for retiring and no lights are allowed in the bedrooms after half past ten. After the ringing of the evening study bell no pupil is allowed to leave the house, without permission. Smoking is not allowed in or about the building at any time.

READ AUTION NOTICE. There will be a large auction sale of wood this afternoon, in Bass Common, as will be seen by our advertising columns. Joseph W. Lombard invites all who are desirous of purchasing this desirable article of household use, to be on hand, as he will commence business at 1 o'clock, precisely. See advertisement.

HENRY STEPHEN WALKER, the wonderful boy pianist. This clever lad was born in the Highlands of Scotland in the year 1862, and showed a remarkable talent for music as early as five years of age. He was presented to Sir William Steniall Bennett when seven years old, and this great master was so delighted with the lad's precocity and wonderful intelligence, that he called a special meeting of the directors of the Academy, and they admitted him with one consent to the privileges of that institution, where he has been studying for five years past with the most remarkable success. He has lived in Hastings, England, for a few years past, and has given Concerts throughout the British Provinces, since he was seven years old. He has been everywhere received with the highest appreciation of his musical endowments. He is also a very bright boy in any respect besides music, and is very mature for so young a man. He has played by command, before the Royal Family in England, and is under the special patronage of the Princess of Wales and the Princess of Louise. Master Walker will play at Mr. J. B. Stetson's Concert on Monday evening next at 7 45 o'clock. If possible, some card photographs of Master Walker and Liebe will be on sale during the Concert.

THE RESERVOIR. The work on the new reservoir at the junction of Hancock and Adams streets progressed quite rapidly until the big snow storm on Wednesday which put a stop to the work. When it is completed, we learn that an attempt will be made to fill it with water from the new pump at Pantons,—nearly half a mile off.

THE WELL FOR THE ATLANTIC SCHOOL was begun four weeks ago, and water had not been reached, Jan. 12th.

CONCERT. Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. Stetson's second concert next Monday evening at a quarter to eight. He has been able to afford the tickets for fifty cents each, with seats numbered and reserved. The list of artists, as will be seen, is a very excellent one, and with fair weather a full house should result.

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH. Sunday School at 10 A. M. Preaching at 2:30 P. M. by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Whitney. Sunday School Concert in the evening at 7 o'clock.

FIRST CHURCH. Sunday School at 9:20. Bible Class. Morning Service at 10:30. The Pastor will officiate. Children's Service at 4:50. Rev. E. E. Hale will read a story. All are invited.

CHRIST CHURCH. Service to-morrow, at 10:30 A. M. Public Service for Children of the Sunday School, at 3 P. M. Seats free.

FIRE. There was a large fire in Boston on Tuesday morning last. A five-story brick structure, known as Codman building, on Sudbury street, was destroyed. Loss estimated over $130,000.

A Surprise.

"The castle of Macdonald will surprise!"—Shakespeare. Surprises as well as wonders will never cease. In fact, they seem to be the order of the day and even the quiet and temperate town of Quincy seems to have its full share. Mr. Pickwick, history tells us, was surprised when he discovered a lady in the act of disrobing in what he supposed was his own room; Deck surprised his stomach one day with a glass of cold water; the Young Men's Christian Association, alias the H. C. Club, surprises everybody by their strict adherence to total abstinence and religious principles; Honey gives a surprise party every week; but of all the surprising surprises recorded in ancient or modern history, none, I venture to say, was more systematic, complete and agreeable at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mitchell last Monday evening. Unsuspecting Arthur, having made up his mind to enjoy a quiet evening, became suddenly aware of a commotion in the yard, and while about to investigate the cause, was at once surrounded by a party of friends who came trooping into the house without ceremony, seized the Tartan, and caused such a look of astonishment to be depicted on his countenance that it added a red tinge to the occasion. The evening was passed in a highly enjoyable manner; the music, both vocal and instrumental, was a prominent feature, and certainly was a pointed expression, was done. Brown. The supper would have suited the most fastidious epicure (notwithstanding hard Tick was there) in short 'twas no niggardly affair. A merrier party was not assembled around a festive board since the days of Morton of Merry Mount, and his namesake, by the way, seems to possess some of his convivial spirit. Among the distinguished guests may be mentioned Miss Nellie Grant, Clara Louisa Kellogg, Mr. Nig. Floyd the actor, and other celebrities which we omit for want of space. The party reluctantly took their leave at an early hour (in the morning) fully impressed with the fact that the hospitality of mine host and his better half cannot be excelled. On the ride home the gentlemen embraced—the opportunity to have a song and "Wild peals of laughter rent the silent air."

Allow me to wish, with good reason, (Together our feelings are blest.) Full many returns of the season, If not of the merry event.

BUCKLEY'S SERENADERS. One of those unrivaled entertainments by the Buckley Serenaders, will be given in the Town Hall, to-night. There is no question but that this troupe is one of the very best, and their performances are pleasing and entertaining, and our citizens who wish to enjoy themselves, will do well to be on hand early, as we suppose a crowded house will greet this minstrel company. Concert commences at 8 o'clock.

Tickets for sale at R. B. Souther's Periodical Store.

THE First Congregational Society hold a parish meeting at the Lyceum Room, on Tuesday evening next. All persons interested in the welfare of the Society are invited.

Any lady or gentleman can become a member of the Parish and vote at the meetings, by signing the By-Laws and paying one dollar and a half.

THESE have been two changes in the Register of Deeds office, in Dedham, since the 1st of January. Mr. Charles Farrington has retired and Mr. Reed takes the place formerly occupied by Mr. Burdakin, as first assistant.

GREAT FIRE AT NATICK. The business portion of this thrifty village was destroyed by fire on Tuesday morning last. Thirty-five buildings burned, including banks, churches, post office, stores, manufacturing, &c. Loss estimated at $300,000.

SUDDEN DEATH. Mr. Ezra Reed, a well-known farmer, of Weymouth, died suddenly of apoplexy on Saturday evening last.

QUINCY PUBLIC LIBRARY. The following is a list of the Books which have been added to this Institution, since our last issue.

Adams, H. C. The Chief of the School, 281.31	Stories for Sundays, 281.30
Worley College, 281.35	Adams, W. S. Money Makers, 282.15
Burritt, E. Ten minutes talk on all sorts of topics, 142.27	Clarke, J. C. Common sense in Religion, 452.28
Clement, Clara E. Painter, Sculptor, Architect, Engraver, and his Works, 911.84	De Stoly, Madame. Blanche and Beryl, 281.26
Douglas, Amanda M. Home Work or the Crown of Duty, 886.4	Eggleston, G. C. Man of Honor, 801.16
Field, M. B. Memoirs of many Men and some Women, 362.26	Frut, T. Half hours with the Early Explorers, 194.56
Gros, D. Colwells from an Empty Skull, 141.21	Hamerton, P. G. Chapters on Animals, 453.8
Hering, Jennie. Golden Days, or School Life, 281.18	How Paul Ananias made his Fortune, 281.27
Jerrold, B. The best of all Good Company, 185.29	Kingston, H. G. The School Friends, 181.25
Leland, C. G. Ecypian Sketch Book, 142.29	Mayne, L. D. What shall we do tonight, 281.18
Notable Shipwrecks at Sea, 281.18	Pike, J. S. South Carolina under Negro Government, 142.29
Ross, Charles. Mrs. Sybil's Friend, and how she found Him, 281.27	Russell, W. H. The last Great War, 362.3
Seward, W. H. Journey round the World, 191.15

PAINFUL KEROSENE ACCIDENT AT DEDHAM. On Monday evening a step-daughter of Mrs. Johnson, in Mill Village was terribly burned by a kerosene lamp. The young lady, who is about seventeen years of age, left the family and went to her room, but in a moment after came rushing down stairs with her clothes on fire. In the room which she entered were three men, one of whom immediately took his coat and wrapped it around her, while others soon came with blankets. In this way the flames were smothered, but the young lady was badly burned and there is little hope of her recovery. It is a severe blow upon the mother, as she was her only child, and she lost her husband by the caving in of a sandbank but a little over a year ago.

NEW BUTTER. During eight months past eight million pounds of oleomargarine, a commercial substitute for butter, have been consumed in this country. There is said to be a daily production of over twenty-three tons.

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT. The School Committee of Fall River at a recent meeting adopted a resolution ordering all of its pupils until the day following the commission of the offence that needs reproof.

District Court of East Norfolk.

SATURDAY.

Margaret Bennett and Margaret Donahue of Randolph were before the Court this morning for selling intoxicating liquors. Both pleaded guilty and were each fined $10 and costs.

Edward A. Pickett, for breaking and entering the house of Calvin Blanchard in Weymouth. For want of sufficient evidence he was discharged. He was afterwards arraigned for breaking and entering the house of Franklin Evans in Weymouth. The case was continued till Tuesday.

James Carrigan, of Quincy, for being drunk. Plead guilty and fined $3 and costs.

MONDAY.

Hiram Wild, of Braintree, a good natured old gentleman on this occasion, was before the Court for being a common drunkard. He pleaded not guilty. But from the evidence the Judge was obliged to ask him to give sureties in $200 to keep the peace and be of good behavior for the next six months.

Gilbert Randall, of Weymouth, for being drunk. Fined $3 and costs.

James Barry, 2d, of Randolph, for breaking glass; the property of Wm. Barry. He was ordered to pay a fine of $5 and costs, and give sureties in the sum of $300 to keep the peace for six months.

TUESDAY.

The Court room was full this morning. Many citizens of Weymouth were present, feeling an interest in the case of Pickett. They were doomed to disappointment; however, and many of them felt provoked;—it being the second time they had come to Court to hear this case. John Q. Adams, the counsel for Mr. Pickett, being sick, the case was postponed to Friday.

Frank C. Pratt, of Weymouth was then arraigned for breaking and entering Mr. Evans' house with Pickett. His case was also continued till Friday.

James L. Valle, of Cohasset, for keeping a liquor nuisance. Found guilty and it being his second offence, he was ordered to pay a fine of $50 and to be imprisoned for the term of three months. He appealed and was ordered to give sureties in the sum of $300 to appear before the Grand Jury at Dedham, on the first Monday of April next.

Michael L. Cushing of Weymouth for keeping a liquor nuisance. Plead guilty and fined $50 and costs.

WEDNESDAY.

Benjamin F. Jewell, of Weymouth for keeping a liquor nuisance. Fined $50 and costs.

FRIDAY.

The Court room was crowded this morning with spectators. The burglary cases in Weymouth, caused many from that place to be present. The entire forenoon was occupied in hearing evidence against Edward A. Pickett, for burglary. About half past twelve, the case was continued to the 27th. The case of Frank C. Pratt of Weymouth, on a similar complaint, was continued to the same day.

Patrick Hayes of Quincy, for being a common seller of intoxicating liquors. Case continued.

BRAINTREE.

TOWN MEETING. A very important meeting of the town, was held on Thursday afternoon. After proceeding as far as the 24 article in the Warrant, it was voted to adjourn without delay. Owing to the press of business, it was not decided when the next Town meeting should be held.

YOUNG AMERICA. L. S. Coan, of Fall River, will Lecture at the Town Hall, on Tuesday evening next. "You America," is to be his subject, and it will be a very entertaining and instructive Lecture. The Greenhorn, the Pop, the Pedler, and the Politician are presented to the audience, as well as the follies, the wants and future of our country. Mr. Coan is endorsed by the Boston Journal and other papers as a very fine Lecturer.

SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS. On Monday next, the Semi-Annual examination of the public Schools in this Town commences, and the parents and friends are cordially invited to be present. For particulars, see advertisement.

THE Old Colony Railroad refuses to sell a season ticket to some who have been detected in the small game of riding for months upon the road by simply saying "season."

The actual profits of the Boston & Fall River Railroad for last year amounted to $245,63.

There are thirty-one Unitarian churches in Boston.

A bill was introduced into the Senate by Mr. Fuller of Hampden, on Wednesday to abolish the State Constabulary.

On Wednesday a bill was presented to the State Senate to change the divorce laws, so that persons divorced under the laws of 1870 shall be on the same footing as those divorced under the law of 1873.

HEROISM IS LIMITED. A girl who the other day jumped into the Merrimack River and rescued a drowning child, fainted away when she saw her false curls floating down the stream.

BARNABEE, HURRAH!!

MR. H. C. BARNABEE, the original, unique, side-splitting, mirthful, unapproachable, unrivaled wit, humorist, and character sketcher, will appear at which has killed so many thousands already from sheer want of laughing so heartily, and to which millions more must become victims, if he has his usual luck wherever he appears.

MR. J. B. STETSON'S THIRD Musical Entertainment.

ON MONDAY EVENING, January 20th, at 7 45 o'clock. Mr. B. will, among other novelties, give his latest Extravaganza.

The Unprotected Female!

MR. JOSEPH HEINE, the wonderful self-taught, blind Violinist, who ranks with the best, will also perform a number of his choice selections, assisted by his wife on the piano. Seats are numbered, and at 50 cents each, now ready at Mr. Holden's.

Quincy, Jan. 17.

Summary of News.

Mr. Fenelon Hubbard of Bridgeport, Conn., recently gave a dinner to twenty widows, the average age of the guests being sixty-six.

The pupils of the intermediate school, Harvard, have the local paper for a reader.

Cambridge can boast the largest debt of any Massachusetts city except Boston.

The freight department of the Old Colony railroad will in future have the management of the Union Freight Railway.

The demand for postal cards consumes about 400,000 daily.

The bank of England has reduced its rate of discount to 6 per cent.

No more duties are to be charged on the importation of tropical fruit.

The cotton crop of Egypt will exceed two hundred thousand bales this year.

There are 629 convicts in the State Prison of Massachusetts.

The total value of domestic produce of all kinds exported to foreign countries from Boston, during the year 1873, was $30,263,293, against 21,621,497 for 1872.

A Maryland man wouldn't stop working for the sake of marrying a girl worth $50,000.

A Cleveland goods drummer has during the last season, sold $60,000 worth of goods, traveled 11,000 miles and married four wives.

Seventy-eight American theatres have been burned in less than many years.

Switzerland exports $43,000,000 worth of manufactured silks annually.

This has been the most favorable winter for lumbering operations in Maine for the last twenty years.

Seventy-three carriages appeared in a funeral procession at Taunton, of Monday last.

In the last quarter of 1873 the public debt was increased $20,521,426.

Many of the letter-carriers of Boston have received New Year's gifts amounting to from $200 to $300.

The Rev. Dr. A. A. Miner will leave for California, shortly, to further the interests of the Unitarian denomination in that section of the country.

Mrs. Bishop Cheney has entered into a controversy with a Quincy divine as to the merits of Bishop Commins. Let one bishop enough for the lady's attention.—Globe.

About 900 delegates from the various Grand Army Posts of Massachusetts, are expected to be present at the Department Convention to be held in Fitchburg, on Thursday next.

The number of boys now at the Westboro Reform School is larger than at any time for the last ten years, being 348.—The oldest inmate of the institution is twenty and the youngest ten.

A third steamer is to be built to run in connection with the Boston, Rome and Rose Standish next summer.

Thousands of cords of wood are being cut out of the forest district in Wareham, Carver, and Plymouth.

Although about 200 tons of postal cards have been made, they have not materially affected the manufacture of note paper and envelopes.

THE North Bridgewater shoe factories are rapidly filling up with re-employed workmen, and there is every sign of an extensive revival of business.

Eight hundred dollars put on interest in the year 1826, and since undisturbed now sums up over ten thousand dollars.

A colored man black as the ace of spades, has made the most satisfactory speech heard in Congress this session.

This country has more than seventy-one thousand miles of railway, of which upwards of four thousand miles were constructed last year.

Ten thousand feet of close board fence has been erected on the Portland division of the Eastern Railroad, as a guard against snow drifts.

The whole number of postage stamps sold by the Government during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1873, was 791,589,825, being an increase of eleven per cent over the previous year.

The Old Colony Railroad refuses to sell a season ticket to some who have been detected in the small game of riding for months upon the road by simply saying "season."

The actual profits of the Boston & Fall River Railroad for last year amounted to $245,63.

There are thirty-one Unitarian churches in Boston.

A bill was introduced into the Senate by Mr. Fuller of Hampden, on Wednesday to abolish the State Constabulary.

On Wednesday a bill was presented to the State Senate to change the divorce laws, so that persons divorced under the laws of 1870 shall be on the same footing as those divorced under the law of 1873.

HEROISM IS LIMITED. A girl who the other day jumped into the Merrimack River and rescued a drowning child, fainted away when she saw her false curls floating down the stream.

BARNABEE, HURRAH!!

MR. H. C. BARNABEE, the original, unique, side-splitting, mirthful, unapproachable, unrivaled wit, humorist, and character sketcher, will appear at which has killed so many thousands already from sheer want of laughing so heartily, and to which millions more must become victims, if he has his usual luck wherever he appears.

MR. J. B. STETSON'S THIRD Musical Entertainment.

ON MONDAY EVENING, January 20th, at 7 45 o'clock. Mr. B. will, among other novelties, give his latest Extravaganza.

The Unprotected Female!

MR. JOSEPH HEINE, the wonderful self-taught, blind Violinist, who ranks with the best, will also perform a number of his choice selections, assisted by his wife on the piano. Seats are numbered, and at 50 cents each, now ready at Mr. Holden's.

Quincy, Jan. 17.

SOUTHERN'S NEW STORE. A large and excellent assortment of nice diaries, stereoscopes and views can be found at Southern's periodical store. Secure your almanacs for you will be unable to keep posted on time and tide without one of these necessities. Read his advertisement.

James N. Blake has some fresh and excellent canned fruits, which he is selling cheap. See his advertisement.

FOUND.

A ROLL OF MUSIC, containing 8 pieces, has been lost at the Office, which the owner can obtain by paying for this advertisement. Quincy, Jan. 17.

REPORT of the condition of the NATIONAL GRANITE BANK at Quincy, in the State of Massachusetts, at the close of business on the 30th day of December, 1873.

RESOURCES.

Loans and Discounts, $307,580.04	U. S. Bonds to secure circulation, 150,000.00
Deposits, 1,218,212.12	Deposits, 1,218,212.12
Reserve Agents, 32,536.88	Banking House, 6,500.00
Current Expenses, 750.25	Checks and other Cash Items, 1,396.11
Checks and other Cash Items, 1,396.11	Bills of other National Banks, 724.00
Bills of State Bank, 120.00	Legal Tender Notes, 11,000.00
	$410,633.31

LIABILITIES.

Capital Stock paid in, 120,000.00	Surplus Fund, 30,000.00
Discount, 575.25	Profit and Loss, 2,000.00
Circulation outstanding, 184,000.00	Dividends unpaid, 2,197.00
Individual Deposits, subject to Check, 79,781.06
	$410,633.31

State of Massachusetts, County of Norfolk, ss. I, R. E. CLAFFIN, Clerk of the said County, do hereby certify that the above statement is true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Witness my hand and the Seal of said County, this 16th day of January, 1874.

Correct,—Attest,
CHAS. MARSH, Justice of the Peace.

Jan. 17.

REPORT of the condition of the NATIONAL MOUNT WOLLASTON BANK of Quincy, in the State of Massachusetts, at the close of business, December 28, 1873.

RESOURCES.

Loans and Discounts, $244,964.95	U. S. Bonds to secure circulation, 150,000.00
Deposits, 1,218,212.12	Deposits, 1,218,212.12
Reserve Agents, 32,536.88	Banking House, 6,500.00
Current Expenses, 750.25	Checks and other Cash Items, 1,396.11
Checks and other Cash Items, 1,396.11	Bills of other National Banks, 724.00
Bills of State Bank, 120.00	Legal Tender Notes, 11,000.00
	$410,633.31

LIABILITIES.

Capital Stock paid in, $150,000.00	Surplus Fund, 30,000.00
Discount, 575.25	Profit and Loss, 2,000.00
Circulation outstanding, 184,000.00	Dividends unpaid, 2,197.00
Individual Deposits, subject to Check, 79,781.06
	$410,633.31

State of Massachusetts, County of Norfolk, ss. I, HORACE B. SPEAR, Cashier of "The National Mount Wollaston Bank of Quincy," do hereby certify that the above statement is true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Witness my hand and the Seal of said County, this 16th day of January, 1874.

Correct,—Attest,
J. W. ROBERTSON, ( ) Directors.
A. W. RUSSELL, ( )

Quincy, Jan. 17.

RECEIVED, CUTLER BROS. & CO. Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. I should like to tell you what I know about it, in order that others may have the benefit of my experience.

Since this Balsam first came to my notice in 1848, I have been constantly using it, and I can truly say that it has not failed in a single instance in my own case, or in that of any one else. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results.

It is a most valuable remedy, and I can truly say that it has not failed in a single instance in my own case, or in that of any one else. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results.

It is a most valuable remedy, and I can truly say that it has not failed in a single instance in my own case, or in that of any one else. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results.

RECEIVED, CUTLER BROS. & CO. Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. I should like to tell you what I know about it, in order that others may have the benefit of my experience.

Since this Balsam first came to my notice in 1848, I have been constantly using it, and I can truly say that it has not failed in a single instance in my own case, or in that of any one else. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results.

It is a most valuable remedy, and I can truly say that it has not failed in a single instance in my own case, or in that of any one else. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results.

It is a most valuable remedy, and I can truly say that it has not failed in a single instance in my own case, or in that of any one else. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results.

RECEIVED, CUTLER BROS. & CO. Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. I should like to tell you what I know about it, in order that others may have the benefit of my experience.

Since this Balsam first came to my notice in 1848, I have been constantly using it, and I can truly say that it has not failed in a single instance in my own case, or in that of any one else. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results.

It is a most valuable remedy, and I can truly say that it has not failed in a single instance in my own case, or in that of any one else. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results.

It is a most valuable remedy, and I can truly say that it has not failed in a single instance in my own case, or in that of any one else. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results.

RECEIVED, CUTLER BROS. & CO. Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. I should like to tell you what I know about it, in order that others may have the benefit of my experience.

Since this Balsam first came to my notice in 1848, I have been constantly using it, and I can truly say that it has not failed in a single instance in my own case, or in that of any one else. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results.

It is a most valuable remedy, and I can truly say that it has not failed in a single instance in my own case, or in that of any one else. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results.

It is a most valuable remedy, and I can truly say that it has not failed in a single instance in my own case, or in that of any one else. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results. I have used it in many cases of cough, cold, and asthma, and it has always given me the most satisfactory results.

Old Colony Railroad

DEPOT CORNER OF SOUTH AND KNEELAND STREETS,
BOSTON.

*On and after Monday, Dec. 8, 1878
Trains leave Quincy for Boston,*

6.07.	6.54.	7.32.	7.43.	7.58.	8.10.	8.37.	9.04.	9.34.
9.57.	10.47.	A. M.	1.09.	1.50.	3.51.	4.39.	5.14

Return. — 00, 7.30, 8.00, 8.45, 9.30, 11.00
 A. M. 12.00, M. 12.40, 1.45, 2.30, 3.40, 4.30, 5.05, 4.45, 5.30, 6.00, 6.15, 6.40, 7.30, 9.30, 11.15, P. M.
 Atlantic for Boston, 6.15, 7.10, 7.45, 8.17, 9.12
 9.48, 10.54, A. M. 1.59, 3.58, 5.06, 6.47
 8.48, 10.38, P. M. Return 7.00, 8.10, 9.30
 11. A. M., 12.40, 1.45, 2.40, 4.05, 5.00, 5.35, 6.15, 6.40, 7.30, 9.30, 11.15, P. M.
 Wollaston Heights for Boston, 6.11, 6.58, 7.45, 8.14, 9.08, 9.45, 10.51, A. M. 1.54, 3.38, 5.17
 6.44, 8.42, 10.33, P. M. Return 7.00, 8.17
 9.30, 11.00, A. M. 12, M. 12.40, 1.45, 2.40, 3.35, 4.05, 4.45, 5.35, 6.15, 6.40, 7.30, 9.30, 11.15, P. M.
 Quincy Adams for Boston 6.03, 6.50, 7.38, 8.06

3.05, 10.25, 1.45, Return 1.00, 9.50, 1.50,
A. M. 12.40, 1.45, 3.35, 4.05, 4.45, 5.35, 6.15,
7.40 7.30, 9.30, 11.15, P. M.

Vest Quincy for Boston, 6.55, 8.52, A. M., 1.45
4.52, 6.15, P. M. Return 8.10, A. M., 12.40,
2.40, 5.00, 8.15, P. M.

—

SUNDAY TRAINS.

	A. M.	P. M.	P. M.
Leave Quincy Adams, at	9.35	1.48	6.07
" Quincy,	9.37	1.52	6.10
" Wollaston Heights,	9.40	1.55	6.13
" Atlantic,	9.43	1.58	6.16

Returning, leave Boston 8 30 A. M., 12.45 & 5 P. M.

J. R. KENDRICK, Superintendent.

—

N. Y. N.

LIVERY STABLE,

WASHINGTON STREET,
QUINCY.

THE subscriber having recently disposed of his Livery Stock at the Hancock House Stable, where he has been located for the past twenty-five years, has just erected a new, neat, and commodious Stable near his residence on Washington Street, and is now better than ever prepared to supply his old friends and customers and the public generally, with all the accommodations that appertain to a

First Class Livery Stable

ELEGANT VEHICLES AND FINE HORSES furnished at the most reasonable rates.
HACKS, with careful drivers, supplied at short notice.
BOARDING HORSES, by the week, a specialty.
STABLING FOR HORSES, with careful grooms.
Grateful for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed, the subscriber trusts that his present enterprise to accommodate the public will be liberally appreciated. Respectfully,
WASHINGTON M. FRENCH.
Quincy, Oct. 25.                                If

---

LIVERY and BOARDING STABLE

THE subscriber having leased the Hancock Horse Stable and stocked the same with a choice lot of Horses and Carriages, is prepared to furnish the citizens of Quincy and the public generally, with nice Teams at short notice, and at the most reasonable prices.

Horses will be Boarded by the day or week, on the most favorable terms, receiving the personal attention of the subscriber.

A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

R. M. FORD.

Quincy, Oct. 25. tf

---

LIVERY STABLE.

FURNITURE MOVED
— AND —
Pleasure Parties
Accommodated with teams at short notice.

THE subscribers would respectfully inform their patrons and friends of Quincy and vicinity, that they are better prepared than ever

At their Stable
On Washington Street, Quincy Point, to supply the public with fast and splendid teams for drives and business purposes.
Particular attention given to the accommodation of Parties.

F. A. LAPHAM & CO.
Quincy, April 12—tf

---

LIVERY STABLE.
REMOVED.

THE Subscriber would respectfully inform his patrons that he has removed to his
New Stable on Hancock Street,
REAR OF MESSRS. TIRRELL'S SHOP, where he is prepared to furnish Horses and Carriages short notice.

at reasonable prices' to continue to receive their trorage.

JOHN HALL .
if

---

Quincy, June 20.

State Aid.

THE Selectmen will meet at their Office in the Town House, on the last MONDAY in March Month, from 9 to 12 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of paying State Aid to those Volunteers or their families, who are entitled to it under the provisions of the law of 1867.

Quincy, March 8.

WILLIAM A. HODGES, } Selectmen of ENSIGN S. FELLOWS, } Quincy.

THE Selectmen will meet at their Office, in the Town House every SATURDAY, from 10 o'clock, P. M., until further notice. Persons having business with the Town will please present it on those days.

WILLIAM A. HODGES, } Selectmen of ENSIGN S. FELLOWS, } Quincy.
Quincy, March 8. tf

---

$50 Reward!

THE above Reward will be paid by the Selectmen, for the detection and conviction of any person found guilty of defacing and mutilating the Grave-Stones in the Old Burying

ALABAMA, } selection of ENSIGN S. FELLOWS, } Quincy.
 March 8—tf

---

JUST RECEIVED
At D. B. Stetson's
 A LARGE ASSORTMENT OF MEN'S CALF BOOTS!
 — ALSO —

Men's and Boys' Thick Boots, Which we will sell at LOWER PRICES than can be bought at any other place.
We also have CHILDREN'S LONG BOOTS WITH SILVER TIPS,
At $1.25 per pair !
Quincy, Oct. 11.

---

THE subscriber having bought the STOCK
OF GOODS in Store of the late

WYMAN ABERCROMBIE,

would respectfully solicit the patronage of his OLD CUSTOMERS,
Also, that of his friends and the public generally.

EBENEZER BENT.

Quincy. Nov. 1.                      tf

No subscription nor advertisement will be discontinued previous to the payment of all arrears, unless at the option of the Publisher. Advertisements correctly and conspicuously inserted at the customary rates, and will be charged until ordered out.

The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to their own immediate business.

Advertising Agents.

The following gentlemen are authorized Agents to receive advertisements for the Patriot.
 BOSTON.—S. M. PETTINGILL & CO., S. R. NILES, HORACE DODD, and T. C. EVANS.
 NEW YORK.—S. M. PETTINGILL & CO., GEO. P. ROWELL & CO., and PRASLER & CO.
 PHILADELPHIA.—COE, WETHERELL & CO.

The Quincy Patriot.

ESTABLISHED IN 1837.

38TH VOLUME.

A Family Paper devoted to Morals, Education, Agriculture, News and General Literature.

VOLUME XXXVIII.

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, JANUARY 24, 1874.

NUMBER 4.

TON HOTEL,

ON HEIGHTS,
N. Y.

and commodious House
open for the reception of boarders from the city, and last, but not least,
County Railroad, and from the Station, 15 trains each week, at short intervals,
of Quincy—the distance
of old town, whether for business or pleasure, will find the
on Hotel,
the stopping place. Transient boarders will receive the best of a strictly NICE HOUSE,
of any name or nature
out the previous BOARDING STABLE is AVAILABLE.

LORD, Proprietor.

WRIGHT
& Painting
NESS.

ing secured the services of a first-class painter, who is prepared to manage, in the most skillful manner, all the work of the season.

Q. A. WILD,
175 N. B. ST.,
BOSTON.

McConarty's
ND BOSTON
RESS.

and 28 Merchants' Row,
North Market Street,
Boston. Co. & Co. Store,
BOSTON. W. W. W. W. W.
BOSTON. W. W. W. W. W.

HOSIE'S
RESS.

and 28 Merchants' Row,
North Market Street,
Boston. Co. & Co. Store,
BOSTON. W. W. W. W. W.

and 28 Merchants' Row,
North Market Street,
Boston. Co. & Co. Store,
BOSTON. W. W. W. W. W.

TON EXPRESS.

and 28 Merchants' Row,
North Market Street,
Boston. Co. & Co. Store,
BOSTON. W. W. W. W. W.

H. ALEXANDER CASE,

and 28 Merchants' Row,
North Market Street,
Boston. Co. & Co. Store,
BOSTON. W. W. W. W. W.

W. F. LAKIN &amp; CO.,

and 28 Merchants' Row,
North Market Street,
Boston. Co. & Co. Store,
BOSTON. W. W. W. W. W.

F. F. E. THAYER,

and 28 Merchants' Row,
North Market Street,
Boston. Co. & Co. Store,
BOSTON. W. W. W. W. W.

EDWARD TURNER.

and 28 Merchants' Row,
North Market Street,
Boston. Co. & Co. Store,
BOSTON. W. W. W. W. W.

G. S. COFFIN,

and 28 Merchants' Row,
North Market Street,
Boston. Co. & Co. Store,
BOSTON. W. W. W. W. W.

WILLIAM B. RYAN,

and 28 Merchants' Row,
North Market Street,
Boston. Co. & Co. Store,
BOSTON. W. W. W. W. W.

WARD'S INK.

and 28 Merchants' Row,
North Market Street,
Boston. Co. & Co. Store,
BOSTON. W. W. W. W. W.

WARD'S INK.

and 28 Merchants' Row,
North Market Street,
Boston. Co. & Co. Store,
BOSTON. W. W. W. W. W.

WARD'S INK.

and 28 Merchants' Row,
North Market Street,
Boston. Co. & Co. Store,
BOSTON. W. W. W. W. W.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING.
—BY—
M. ELIZABETH GREEN,
—AND—
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT.
TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.
$5.00, if not paid before the close of the year.
OFFICE.—No. 64 Hancock Street,
OVER MR. CLAPP'S STORE.
Posters, Cards, Billheads, Circulars,
Labels, Programmes, &c.
PRINTED PROMPTLY
On the Most Reasonable Terms,
And Greatly Below Boston Prices.

DR. N. DOWNES,
Physician and Surgeon,
He takes the House on the corner of Washington and Edwards Streets, and would give his services to the sick and wounded.
Quincy, Oct. 4

J. W. SMALL, M. D.,
Physician and Surgeon,
Office No. 4 Temple Street,
QUINCY.
Office Hours.—All hours, day and night,
except on Sunday.
Quincy, Aug. 20.

J. A. GORDON, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
HANCOCK STREET.
Office Hours.—From 10 A. M. to 5 P. M.,
Quincy, May 24.

JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.
Homoeopathic Physician,
Residence near the new Adams Academy
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Aug. 25.

HENRY LUNT,
Counselor at Law,
and Secretary Bondholders'
and Creditors' Agency.
OFFICE.—25 Devonshire St. Rooms 13 & 14.
Boston, Jan. 11.

R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,
Attorney and Counselor at Law.
Entrances to Office,
No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.
No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.
Office Hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Jan. 13.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,
Attorney at Law,
BURNED OUT at No. 51 Water Street, now at 42 DEVONSHIRE STREET,
BOSTON.

H. ALEXANDER CASE,
CIVIL ENGINEER & SURVEYOR
PROSPECT AVENUE,
WOLLASTON.
Quincy, Nov. 22.

WHITMAN & BRECK,
Civil Engineers & Surveyors,
CORNER OF Devonshire & Water Streets,
BOSTON.
Entrance 41 Devonshire & 16 Water Sts.
Particular attention paid to Land Surveying,
laying out private grounds, and the general improvement of Real Estate. Plans and working drawings of public and private buildings carefully prepared.
H. T. WHITMAN, C. E. C. BRECK.
Dec. 14 April 15 6m

E. F. E. THAYER,
Real Estate Broker and
AUCTIONEER,
No. 1 PEMBERTON SQUARE,
BOSTON.
Office Hours.—9 A. M. to 5 P. M., P. M.
Home Office in Braintree.
N. B. All kinds of Property sold by Auction in the City or Country.
May 10.

EDWARD TURNER.
(Late of 130 Pearl Street.)
Dealer in Sheep Skins,
Skivers, Roans, &c.
248 and 250 BROAD STREET,
BOSTON.
Nov. 16.

GUTTERS, CONDUCTORS,
AND MOULDINGS.
—ALSO—
A FINE STOCK OF DRY FINISH LUM-BER—constantly on hand.
A. T. STEARNS & SONS,
NEPONSET.
March 8—4

G. S. COFFIN,
LOCKSMITH.
REMOVED TO
No. 39 Merchants Row,
opposite Oak Hall, Boston.
Signs of all kinds put up. Locks picked. Repairing and Jobbing of all kinds.
August 27.

WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber.
Hancock Street,
Quincy.
KEEP constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead Pipe, Water-Closets various kinds, Forcing and Suction Pumps, Bath Tubs and Boilers, Wash-basins, and all kinds of Brass and Copper Work, &c., &c.
Pumps of all kinds repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly attended to.
Quincy, June 10.

WARD'S INK.
Ward & Co., Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
E. B. SOUTHER,
Feb. 14.

J. A. LITTLEFIELD,
Piano and Organ Tuner.
PIANOS
SOLD, AND EXCHANGED, on Favorable Terms.
Pianos Tuned by the year.
Repairing, Regulating, &c., in a manner unsurpassed.
Orders sent to Patriot Office promptly attended to.
December 6.

WILLIAM B. WOODBRIDGE,
TEACHER OF MUSIC,
170 Tremont Street, Room 3,
BOSTON.
N. B. Pupils in Quincy waited on at their residences, and Classes formed if desired.
"Best of City references." 3m
November 29.

Mrs. H. A. CASE,
TEACHER OF MUSIC,
PROSPECT AVENUE,
WOLLASTON.
Quincy, Nov. 22.

ORVILLE M. TILDEN,
TEACHER OF MUSIC.
Terms.—$15 for TWENTY LESSONS,
PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.
P. O. Address, Box 128, NORTH EASTON, MASS.
Agent for Pianos and Organs.
Order left at the Quincy Patriot Office, will receive prompt attention. 3m
Sept. 20.

MUSICAL GIFTS For Christmas & New Years.
Guitars! A Book is now—and laid aside. A musical instrument for a life-time—Guitars! A Book is now—and laid aside. A musical instrument for a life-time—Guitars! A Book is now—and laid aside. A musical instrument for a life-time—

DORCHESTER
MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.
Cash Fund, April 1st, 1873,
$54,733.04.
Cash uncollected Deposit Notes, $59,000.00.
Balance on Deposit Notes, not called on $60,100.00.
Absolute Funds, April 1st, 1873,
$194,833.64.
Amount at risk, $1,600 Policies, and
Insured, $12,471,654.00.
The Company insures Dwellings and other Buildings not extra hazardous, and their contents, at as low rates as any other reliable Company.
W. F. TEMPLE, Secretary.
Neponset, April 26—17

Weymouth & Braintree MUTUAL Fire Insurance Co., OF WEYMOUTH, INSURES DWELLINGS AND OTHER BUILD-INGS NOT EXTRA HAZARDOUS, and their contents, at as low rates as any other reliable Company.
Amount at Risk April 1, 1873,
$2,035,704.00.
Cash Assets: $55,923.01
Deposits, $76,428.57
Total available Assets, $132,351.58
N. L. WHITE, President.
ELIAS RICHARDS, Sec'y.
Wm. B. DUGGAN, Agent, Quincy.
Weymouth, Aug. 1 17

FIRE INSURANCE!!
PERSONS wishing INSURANCE can obtain it at FAIR RATES, in RELIABLE COMPANIES—by applying to
C. W. CARTER,
1 Pemberton Square, Boston.
Quincy, Dec. 7.

JOHN HARDWICK,
Real Estate and Insurance Agent,
Granite Street, Quincy.
COMPANIES REPRESENTED:
QUINCY MUTUAL,
DORCHESTER MUTUAL,
WEYMOUTH & BRAINTREE MUTUAL,
CENTRAL MUTUAL,
ORIENT, HARTFORD.

THE QUINCY MUTUAL
Fire Insurance Comp'y.
CASH FUND, November 1st, 1873,
$260,000.
And every loss insured, Surplus over reinsurance, Over $45,000.
Dividends on expiring policies paid from and after Nov. 10, 1873, on all policies now in force.
None but the Safe classes of hazards written.
L. W. MUNROE, Pres.
CHAS. A. HOWLAND, Sec.
Quincy, Nov. 15—17

INSURANCE AGENCY,
W. PORTER,
1849.
AT QUINCY.
INSURANCE EFFECTED in Reliable and Safe
STOCK and MUTUAL OFFICES—by
W. PORTER & CO.,
At No. 27 State Street, Boston.
Residence, Quincy, corner Adams and Hancock Streets.
Quincy, April 30. 3m

LUMBER!
The subscribers would respectfully announce
to the inhabitants of Quincy and vicinity, that they are continuing to receive
A FULL ASSORTMENT OF
ALL KINDS OF LUMBER!
CONSISTING IN PART OF
SPRUCE AND HEMLOCK
Frames.
WORKED FLOORING,
PINE, SPRUCE AND HEMLOCK
Covering Boards.
MATCHED ROOFING BOARDS,
CLAPBOARDS,
PICKETS,
SHINGLES,
LATHS, etc., etc.
We also keep constantly on hand a full
assortment of
DRY AND DRESSED
FINISH LUMBER,
GUTTERS, CONDUCTORS,
—AND—
MOULDINGS.
We are prepared to furnish Builders
with First-Class Mouldings at less than Manufacturers' Prices!
—ALSO—
We have also received a lot of good
old fashioned
Shaved Cedar Shingles!
All of which we will sell at a small advance from cost, for cash, on Wharf, or deliver promptly to order.

W. F. LAKIN & CO., SOUTHERN WHARF,
QUINCY.
P. S. Frames Sawed to Order.
May 17.

FAWCETT, HAWKES & CO.
MANUFACTURERS.
FOR WARMING
Stores,
Churches,
School Houses,
Public Buildings,
Private Residences,
&c., &c.

To any desiring a GOOD HEATER, we can offer GREAT INDUCEMENTS; and to any who may desire, will furnish with an estimate of putting up of our Furnace complete.
SEND FOR CIRCULARS.
No. 21 Bedford street,
BOSTON.
Feb. 8—17

FURNITURE.
THE subscribers having bought the stock and good will and leased the Store of N. B.
FURNALD, are prepared to accommodate all who may give them a call.
FURNITURE, FEATHERS,
Mattresses, Window Shades,
LOOKING-GLASSES,
Oil CARPETS, Straw MATTINGS,
Paper Hangings,
CHILDREN'S CARRIAGES,
L A M P S, &c.
and many other articles connected with the business,
KEPT CONSTANTLY ON HAND.
ALL ORDERS FOR
Upholstering and Repairing, PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
PICTURE FRAMES,
For Sale, and Made to Order.
EWELL & JOSEPHS,
Cor. of Washington and Coddington Sts.,
QUINCY.
Sept. 27.

Poetry.
The Removal.
A nervous old gentleman, tired of trade—
By which, though, it seems he a fortune had made—Took a house 'twixt two sheds, at the skirts of the town,
Which he meant, at his leisure to buy and pull down.
This thought struck his mind when he viewed his estate,
But alas! when he entered he found it too late;
For in each dwelt a smith;—a more hard working two
Never devoted a patient or put on a shoe.
At six in the morning, their anvils at work
Awoke our good Squire, who raged like a Turkey.
"These fellows," he cried, "such a clatter keep That I never can get above eight hours of sleep."
From morning till night they kept thumping
and
His sound but their anvil the whole of the day;
His afternoon's nap, and his daughter's new song,
Were banished and spoiled by their hammer-ding-dong.
He offered each Vulcan to purchase his shop;
But, not they were stubborn, determined to stop;
At length (both his spirits and health to improve),
He cried, "I'll give each fifty guineas to move."
"Agreed!" said the pair: "that will make us amends."
"Then come to my house and let us part friends;
You shall dine; and we'll drink on this joyful occasion,
That each may live long in his new habitation."
He gave the two blacksmiths a sumptuous regalé.
He spared not provision, his wine nor his ale;
So much was he pleased with the thought that each guest
Would take from him noise and restore him to rest.
"And now," said he, "tell me, where mean you to move—
I hope to some spot where your trade will improve?"
"Why, sir," replied one, with a grin on his face,
"Tom Forge moves to my shop, and I move to his!"

Miscellany.
Longworth's Benevolence.
"Gives to be seen of men," do you mean?"
"Well—I don't like to say so, and I ought not to feel so, perhaps; but Marshall Longworth is not a man to give five hundred dollars, or five hundred cents, to the Relief Fund, unless pretty sure of the world's knowledge and encomiums."
"I have heard him referred to as a patron of generosity, at home and abroad," I said. "Are you sure you are right in your estimate of the man's character?"
The Reverend Milton Sprague paused abruptly in his parlor promenade, and laying his hand on my shoulder, looked down into my face with one of his peculiar but pleasing smiles, and said, with a little significant gesture:
"Now see here, my friend. I've known that man for thirty years—known him inside and out, week-day and Sunday, and it's entirely too late for you, or any other sprig-of-the-pulpit to make me believe that Marshall Longworth is a liberal minded man!"
He had called me an "aprig," but catching sight of my unclerical figure in the pier-glass opposite, and of his own dignified person in contrast, I quickly decided that the appellation was a very proper one, and that I would accept it gratefully.
"Why, I married Marshall," he went on, sitting down beside me, and running his fingers through his light silver locks, slowly as if his brain was busy in recalling some event of his long past life—
"That the event was a humorous one, I inferred by a twinkle in his eyes before he uttered a word.
"You did?" I exclaimed; "tell me all about it."
I was deeply involved in a little love affair myself, just at that time, and was possibly betrayed into a revelation of that same by my manifest eagerness to hear the story of Mr. Longworth's marriage—for a story I knew there was.
The good man looked at me a moment rather quizzically, whereat I flinched, boy-led to the very roots of my hair, and he muttered half to himself. "I thought so," then he said:
"Yes; it was in this wise:
"Thirty years ago Wooster was scarcely a village. I preached to a very small congregation, in a schoolhouse built of logs, and standing where the Empire House now is—we had good meetings too, in those days when the rich and the poor met together—and one night, after I had returned from a stage-trip to Seville, over the worst roads you ever saw, had got off my soiled clothes, and got on a respectable amount of amiability in appreciation of the good supper that I found awaited me, there came a very lively knock at the side door, and in answer to my gruff "Come in!" a woman entered, with a shawl thrown over her head, her teeth chattering with cold and fear, a scared look in her great beseech-ing eyes.
"Well, my good girl," said I, "what do you wish?"
She brightened up considerably then, closed the door, came a step nearer, and said in a loud whisper:
"Do you—marry folks here?"
"Sometimes," I answered. "Do you want anything at this late hour?"
"No I don't; but there is another fellow out here at the gate—he does," and she gave her head a little toss, as much as to say, "I guess I don't now, or ever," twisting the fringe of her shawl, in a nervous way.
"Well, you can bring him in," I said;
"and she disappeared in a twinkling, leaving the door wide open, and myself rather impatient, if the truth was out, for I was tired, hungry and sleepy, and it was ten o'clock.
"She came back presently, accompanied by a young man of twenty-three or four years, and a woman three or four years his senior.
"The poor fellow looked at the walls, the ceiling, and in every corner, as if hunting a place to hide in, and he shook from head to foot; but the woman held him encouragingly, her little black eyes never leaving his face, and a determined look about her wide spread mouth that meant, I thought, "no use, sir; I have got you now, and I shall keep you, too."
"I went up to the party, offered my hand to the bridegroom, saying something about the terrible night, bad wheeling, etc.
"We don't know nothing about wheeling," we don't; said the mistress of the ceremony; "we footed it all the way from Hyde's Corners, and we had a tuff time, too, I tell you."
"Yes, but we don't mind, if the mar-ryin's done, do we, Peggy?" said the mistress, turning to the bride that was to be a wife so soon.
"Peggy only shook her head.
"We've had a terrible time, Mr. Minister," continued she who had first disturbed my peace; "a terrible time, and that's what made us so late. You see, Marshall and Peggy and me, we went to the Squire's first, and Mrs. Squire she said as how her husband was to Lafayette, and wouldn't be back 'fore to-morrow, but she said a good clergyman—that's you, Mr. Minister—lived upon the hill only half a mile off, and you'd do the job nicely. Peggy and me wanted to come right along, for it was dark then, but Marshall said it was too far to walk, and he guessed they'd better go home and be get married to-night. We s't down on the Squire's doorstep to talk it over, and it took hours for Peggy and me to git his courage up to the stickin' pint—
That's how we come to be so late, Mr.
Minister."
"The little woman had forgotten to be shy and awkward, and rattled on in a very earnest way, the bridegroom meanwhile recovering somewhat from his embarrassment, and beginning to return the affectionate glances of the bride, who was all smiles, but minus blushes.
"She's been through it all, Peg has,
twice before you see; and he's uncommon shy," the cicerone added; and we all laughed at her abrupt, honest way of revealing the true state of her friend's affairs.
"Well, it is late and I will not detain you," I said, thinking of my supper. If the parties are ready, we will proceed with the marriage ceremony.
"I'm ready any minute," said the bride. Come on Marshall."
"Marshall came on; and in five minutes the twin were one flesh, and had said adieu, preparatory to the long march home.
"Just then, I suppose, the bridegroom chanced to remember that getting married was expensive; and he came up closely to me, and sighing said:
"I suppose now, ye don't do such work for nothing, do ye? It didn't take long."
"Oh! as to that," I said,—"we ministers I mean—are not in the habit of setting any price upon our services. Whatever you think is right, Mr. Longworth—nothing more."
"He looked down at his muddy 'stogies' a moment, and then, as if a bright idea had found him, he leaned towards me and whispered:
"I'll tell you what it is, Mr. Minister,
I'll give ye fifty cents cash, or a bushel and a half of wheat, which will make just seventy-five. That's a great deal, I take it."
"And he thrust his hands into his pockets, threw up his head till his hat fell off and whistled.
"Just as you please, Mr. Longworth,"
I said.
"Well, if it don't make any difference, I'll fetch the wheat. A bushel and a half—fifty cents a bushel! Good-night, sir."
"He went out, banging the door after him, and Mrs. Sprague looked at me, and I looked at Mrs. Sprague for a minute;
and then we both broke into the merriest doo you ever listened to, and the very walls shook with laughter. Then we went to supper.
"I dreamed all night of the queer bridal party—of growing fields of wheat, and of fifty cent silver pieces that were out of my reach."
"Did I get the wheat? Certainly—But Marshall Longworth's eldest was ten years of age, and brought the grain that has been due nearly eleven years.
He brought me a note from his father, too, stating that wheat had risen since we made our bargain and so he only sent one bushel!"
"Marshall Longworth do so mean a thing as that? It is too incredible! and only that you tell me so," I said, I could not believe it possible."
"That is not all, nor the worst," continued the minister. "I have known him to refuse bread to the hungry; of his keeping back the hard earned wages of his servants; of many things, in fact, which make an honest man's blood like ice in his veins—and yet the press heralds his large liberality, and the world believes him one of God's messengers to disturb God's bounty. He has given much, but only as you say, "that he may be seen of men!"
"One poor woman of my congregation has given more than he to the same Relief Fund; but her name is in no printed column, and only God knows all the gift has cost her!"
"Here is a warm comforter and two of my baby's flannel skirts," she said.
"It is not much, but I am glad to do even a little for the sufferers."
"But you need these," said Mrs.
Sprague. "I do not like to take them."
"Oh, please take them," the lady answered. "I can make baby some more skirts out of one of mine, and we can lie closer in the winter nights. Oh, we will get along nicely. I so want you to send them."
"That is what I call Christian charity, which is, alas! a rare thing under the sun," I said.
Just then, Marshall Longworth's elegant barouche, drawn by two magnificent grey horses driven by liveried coachman, swept up the avenue, past the parsonage and out of sight, even before the hats, lifted in honor of the owner, of them all,

were replaced; and, as if in contrast,
she who had given a moiety of the little she possessed, and whose name and existence was undreamed of outside of parish limits, came slowly along the walk carrying her babe in her arms, and crouching to it softly as she went along.
I thought of the "twin lying closer in the winter night" to keep warm; and though I knew, and know, God's ways are just, I could not, and cannot help marveling that the good things of this life are so rarely given to the worthiest."

Recollections of Quincy, No. 8.
BY WM. M. CORNELL, LL. D.
Life of Elias Smith continued.
When eight years old, he says, he was "sprinkled," his mother then being a "Congregationalist," and his father, though a Baptist, not opposing it. He resisted, as he did every thing that was orderly, and attempted to run out of the church, but was pursued by his uncle and brought back. "Notwithstanding all my exertions, I was brought in front of the basin, and was so confined, hands and feet, that I was obliged to receive what they called "the seal of the covenant."
I felt such malice against the minister, and my uncle, that had my strength been equal to my desire, we should all have been like Sampson and the Philistines, with the house about our ears."
In 1782, in his 13th year, he says, "I had my last schooling, excepting forty days, and eight evenings, in the State of Vermont. My knowledge of letters was such as to be able to read the Bible sometimes, though I did not know the meaning of a comma, semicolon, colon, period, note of interrogation, admiration, or any other marks used in reading. These things were not taught in country schools. I had then never heard of a book called "Dictionary."
May we not well say, what a change has taken place in ninety-one years, now 1873?

"In 1782, my father sold out his property in Lyme, and purchased one hundred acres of land in Woodstock, Vermont.
The journey of removal of a hundred and eighty miles, we performed in thirteen days."
How striking the improvement in the mode of travelling since this period, as this journey could now be performed in a day!

The description Elias gives of the woods and the log house is amusing indeed.
"In 1785, when in my sixteenth year, my uncle, (Elisha Ransom, a Baptist minister,) taught a school, two miles from our house, and I was permitted to go one month.
As they had no candles, Elias studied by fire-light, lying on the floor, till he nearly ruined his eyes. In the year 1785, when he was writing, he says, "I experienced religion." He was then, not quite sixteen years old.
He says, "when I was eighteen years old, I borrowed of my uncle, Estick's Dictionary, and carried it in my pocket, wherever I went, for one year, that whenever a new word was mentioned, I might know the meaning—a good idea for any young man to adopt.
About this period, he describes the school house in which he taught three months in Vermont. "All the covering upon the frame was hemlock boards, feather-edged, and nailed on. There were no clapboards on the outside, nor plastering or ceiling upon the inside.
The chamber floor consisted of loose boards, laid down, being neither jointed nor nailed. The lower floor was the same, and there was not one window in the room. All the light, excepting what came through the boards, was as follows—there were two or three holes cut through the boards of the side, and the end of the house. These were filled up with a newspaper, Spooner's Vermont Journal, which was cited to let the light through, and fixed into thin strips of wood, and made fast.
"These were all the windows we had;
sometimes the boys would by accident, make a large hole through them with their elbows. Often, when I first came into the room I could discern but little.
In this cold, dark, inconvenient place, I spent three months instructing others according to the best of my ability."
Some of us can remember schoolhouses that would not carry off the palm, when compared with this, of Elias Smith's.
About this time, for want of light, or some other reason, or all combined, his eyes became very bad; and he applied a "particular kind of eye-water."
He had sometime previous, borrowed a pair of green spectacles, and, now, to add to his affliction, these were called for.

What could he do? The eye-water, with all its virtues, could not enable him to read, without the green glasses, and none of these were to be had where he resided.
But, he heard they were to be sold in Windsor, ten miles off.
To Windsor he must go. But, the school must not stop. So he says, "I engaged a horse, took one bushel of wheat in a bag, and after midnight, and very cold, started for Windsor. The snow was deep, the path poor, the road very hilly, and the weather cold. Sometimes I rode, and sometimes walked.
Just as the daylight appeared, I arrived at the store where it was said, green glasses were kept. I knocked at the door of the store several times; at last, a man in the chamber, half awake, cried out, "who is there?" I replied, "a friend." He spoke out again, "What do you want this time of night?" I told him, "a pair of spectacles." "I have none," said he. This at once, sunk my raised expectation. I then asked him, if he had any green spectacles? "Yes," said he, but it is too cold to get up now."
I told him my necessity, and how far I came in the night, and that he must let me have them. He was quite mad, at my urgency; but finally, came down with a candle, showed me the glasses, and told me the price, which was four shillings. I asked him if he would take some wheat for them? "Yes," said he, and quite mad about it. "What do you give per bushel?" Five shillings," said he. All my desire for that time was granted. I took the bag off the horse, and brought it in;

ing Edition
day in the week.
Smos.

East Milton, Jan. 27th, Perid. W. to Mr. Nathan F. and Mrs. Clara C.
Miller, aged 10 years, 10 months and 6
days.
Is Boston, Jan. 25th, Mr. Lawrence Richards, formerly of this town, aged 60 years.

Poster Printing.

POSTERS Large or Small, printed at short notice, at the Patriot Office.

WINNES, GEORGE WHITE, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Jas. 19. J. H. COBBE, Register.

22 Temple Place.
H. W. FOLSOM, Solicitor.
Boston, Jan. 10, 1874.

Seamstress. Boards at Mrs. WALKER'S at the Sevil House, on Hancock Street, and is as apprentice of Mrs. Kearz.
Quincy, Oct. 4. July 1-1874

Poetry.

The Puzzled Dutchman.

I'm a proven bearded Dutchman,
Voor villed mit eric and shame,
I dells you vot der trouble ish:
I dellen't know my name.

You dinks dis fery funny, eh?
Yen you der story hear,
You vas not vunder den so much,
It vas so strange and queer.
Mein moder had dore liddle twins,
Yen vas der main trouble:
Yen lookt fery much alike
No von knew vich vom toder.

Yen v'er der boys vas "Yawcup."
Und "Hans" der older's name;
Petten it made no differens,
Ve both got called der same.

Vell, von v'er us got lead—
Yaw, Myneer, dat ish so;
But volder Hans or Yawcup
Mein moder she ton't know.

Und so I am in droubles,
I gan't kit dore mein bed
Volder I'm Hans vots lifing,
Or Yawcup vot is tead.

Home, Farm and Garden.

Profitable Farming.

Mr. Joseph Day, of Wenham, some years ago, bought a small farm containing a cedar swamp of three acres. The value of the swamp was reckoned at $50 an acre, about the value of the wood on it. It was connected with a pond whose surface was but little below that of the swamp. A thinking, industrious man, Mr. Day believed he might make this swamp, apparently of no value, a source of great profit, and about ten years ago laid his plans accordingly. He worked at his trade as shoemaker in the forenoon and spent the afternoon on his land, as much time as possible on the swamp. He first cut off the wood, selling it for $40 an acre. He then lowered the outlet of the pond so as to bring its surface seven feet below the swamp and cut ditches through it and drained it thoroughly. He dug out the stumps of trees many of them the remains of trees cut off years ago, and thus secured wood enough to last his family for years. He cut out two feet of mud, making about six hundred cords to the acre, which he sold for $1.50 a cord, or at the rate of $2700 for the three acres. Some of the mud he burned with pieces of stump, and sold for $5 a cord. After the mud was removed he planted cranberry vines, and this year took off three and a half bushels to the rod, selling them for $4 a bushel, or at the rate of over $2000 an acre. The mud has not been as yet all removed, and but a small part planted with cranberry vines, but next spring he will plant an acre and in two or three years a meadow. He has so far sold to the amount of $2000, mainly from the mud. When done he expects an annual income of $6000 from the cranberries.—American Journal

A Few Handy Hints.

There are some things which a farmer wants but once a year, and there are others which he always should have ready. No tool comes oftener into play than a hammer for example. Every new or old wooden tool or wooden part of a tool should be oiled. Have a barrel or keg or can of crude petroleum always ready in your shop. Keep every thing well oiled. The crude oil goes right into the pores, and makes any wood durable as cedar. Keep it constantly on hand. Again save every piece of rope cord and leather strap. They will be useful for repairing. The next time you go to a hardware store, get fifty cents worth of a dollar's worth of copper wire and copper straps. Copper wire is a great deal better than iron wire, because it is so much more flexible, like cord, and copper straps are capital for repairing any fracture in woodwork, it may be so easily wrapped around, or nailed on with small nails. Then again always have a pound or two of wrought or annealed nails of different sizes, that will clinch readily when you use them. (You will remember that in driving these or any other nails into hard wood, they will go in more easily, by first touching the points with a little grease, but don't let the grease get on the face of the hammer.)—Cor. Country Gentleman.

Anecdotes.

A drunken Irishman was found by his friends, the other night, lying in the snow with his heels upon the fence, warming his toes by the moonlight.

He was muttering, "What a cold fire you have got, Biddy, darling; have on some carryalls, or my fute will freeze."

"It's a settled principle your honor," said an eminent lawyer, "that causes always produce effects."

"They always do for the lawyers," blithely responded the judge, "but I've sometimes known a single cause to deprive a client of all his effects."

A BUSINESS ACQUAINTANCE. Miss Luffy—Really, sir, I don't remember where was I, I have met you?—Jenkins—Well, we ain't met often, so to speak; but I sold you them stockings which I guess you've got on."

Prisoner (to learned magistrate)—Has any one a right to commit a nuisance?—Learned Magistrate—"No, sir, not even the Mayor—no, sir, not even the Governor."

Prisoner—"Then you can't commit me for I was arrested as a nuisance, and you've decided that I am one."

Elm Street Market.

THE undersigned are prepared to furnish their customers with

Poultry, Meats, Lard, Eggs, &c., at the LOWEST MARKET RATES. We also keep a good assortment of

Family Groceries,

as can be found at any other Store in town.

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables,

IN THEIR SEASON.

CANNED GOODS in great variety.

G. TOTMAN & SON.

Quincy, March 15—11

Diagonal Coats & Vests.

I HAVE just received a Splendid Stock of

DIAGONAL COATS AND VESTS, which

I am selling very cheap.

GEORGE SAVILLE,

90 Hancock Street.

Quincy, Sept 27

Bryant & Stratton

SCHOOL,

BOSTON, MASS.

Commercial

COURSE OF STUDY PREPARATORY TO BUSINESS.

The studies embraced in the plan of the School, and designed for those pupils who have acquired a good knowledge of the elementary

English Branches, are

Book-keeping,

Commercial Arithmetic,

Commercial Writing,

Commercial Law,

(Relating to Negotiable Paper, Contracts, Partnerships, &c.)

all of which are especially necessary for and adapted to commercial purposes.

Those desiring to accomplish more than the course included in the above studies may select any or all the following studies, viz

Reading, Writing, Spelling, Grammar, and Arithmetic, and pursue them as associate studies separately.

Pupils received at any time when there are vacancies. Parents desiring children educated in a useful and practical manner are invited to examine into the merits of this School.

Catalogue post free. Communications should be addressed, 541 Washington Street, at which place interviews may be had from 9 A. M. until

2 P. M. CLOSED SATURDAYS.

H. E. HIBBARD, Principal.

N. B. This School will be removed after a few weeks to its new building, now in process of completion, corner of Essex and Washington

Streets—location previous to the fire.

Nov. 26. (Aug. 1. 1y)

PRACTICAL TRAINING FOR

BUSINESS.

FRENCH & CHAMBERLIN'S

UNION

Business & Nautical College,

460 Washington St.,

Opposite Boylston Street,

BOSTON.

Charles French, A. M., PRINCIPAL.

Charles E. Chamberlin, JR., PRINCIPAL.

THIS MOST COMPLETE BUSINESS COL-

LEGE IN AMERICA, offers to young men and women every desirable facility for thoroughly and practically qualifying themselves for the practical duties of business.

It affords many advantages not found at any other Institution. Its apartments are arranged and furnished in the most commodious manner.

PRACTICAL EDUCATION,

having an entirely separate DEPARTMENT for

ACTUAL BUSINESS.

It is most thorough in DISCIPLINE, training its Students in all that pertains to the

ETIQUETTE OF BUSINESS, and teaching them to respect themselves that they may be respected by others.

It affords a Course of Lectures on

COMMERCIAL LAW,

by Prof. BIGLOW of the Boston University

Law School, and a Course of practical training in

BOOK-KEEPING,

by Professor MERRICK'S System.

Its standard of education is far in advance of any BUSINESS COLLEGE IN AMERICA.

Its Rates of Tuition are very reasonable.—

LOREZ, even, than at several of the other Colleges. Its means of placing its graduates in GOOD SITUATIONS!

ARE UNEQUALLED.

Students commence any time. Separate instruction. Day Sessions, 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., except business days. Evening Sessions, from October 1st to April 1st.

Call or send for Circular.

Sept. 18.

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.,

Practical and Analytical Chemists.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

J. W. LOMBARD,

WITH

LEOPOLD MORSE & CO.

CLOTHING,

OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS,

29 & 30 Dock Square,

BOSTON.

My services as AUCTIONEER can be had by calling on me at 29 & 30 Dock Square, Boston, and giving me one day's notice.

J. W. LOMBARD.

N. B. All my friends are invited to call and see me.

October 25.

OVERCOATS!

JUST RECEIVED

A LARGE STOCK OF

OVERCOATS

BEAVER

CHINCHILLA, KERSEY,

MELTON, and

UNION CLOTH,

FASHIONABLE STYLES, AND EQUAL TO

CUSTOM MAKE!

At prices from $8.00 to $30.00.

—ALSO—

A FULL LINE OF REEFING AND

CARDIGAN JACKETS.

—AT—

GEORGE SAVILLE'S,

90 Hancock Street, Quincy.

Oct. 25.

Groceries & Provisions.

THE STORE formerly occupied by THOMAS

H. HAYES, on the corner of Water and Phipps Streets, has been leased by

DANIEL S. SULLIVAN,

who will carry on the GROCERY AND PRO-VISION BUSINESS.

Quincy, Aug. 30.

Smith & Smith.

BAILEY'S PATENT STONE AND

ASPHALT PAVING FOR

DRIVEWAYS, SIDEWALKS, GARDEN-

WALKS, CELLARS, &c.,

LAID TO ORDER.

—ALSO—

DEALERS IN FIRST-QUALITY

Canada Pressed Hay,

Constantly on hand and delivered at purchasers' residences.

Orders solicited and promptly executed.

Post Office address—

Wollaston Heights, Mass.

Quincy, Sept. 6.

MAKER'S PATENT

SPRING BED!

A Spring Bed that cannot Be Beat.

It is simple in construction, durable, and at least cost than any other bed now in the market. It is very light, and can be moved about as easily as a chair. It is also very strong, and will last for many years. It is also very cheap, and can be had for as little as $1.50.

Call and examine its merits.

J. KENDRICK,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

REFERENCES.

QUINCY—Dr. W. S. Patton, Amos Litchfield,

George Jones, Ralph Lowe.

WYOMOUTH—Clinton Lord, Goldard French,

Edward A. Dyer, John White, John E. Stoddard.

Quincy, March 22.

Genuine Lykens Valley

THE Undersigned having now on hand, the above Pure Franklin Red Ash Coal, is prepared to furnish all orders at immediate notice

at the lowest cash prices.

OWEN ADAMS.

Post Office Box, No. 31.

Quincy, July 6.

UPHOLSTERING.

HAVING secured the services of a first-class workman, for all orders in the line of upholstering, in that line, which, in consequence of the increase of business, have heretofore been unable to fill.

KEATING & SPEAR,

Quincy, April 26—11

CATARRH!

A Woman Having Catarrh

35 Years, Cured.

And Droppings in Throat, Choking,

Stranglings, Pains in the Side, Loins,

Worms, &c., Cured by less than Three Bottles of Dr. J. C. Ayer's Catarrh Remedy.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.,

Practical and Analytical Chemists.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

CLOTHING

MADE TO ORDER.

NEW STYLES

Fall and Winter Goods!

CLOTHING!

READY-MADE.

HATS and CAPS.

COLLARS and TIES.

Undershirts & Drawers.

GLOVES and STOCKINGS.

Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, &c.

For Sale Cheap,

AT

C. A. SPEAR'S,

56 Hancock Street, - Quincy.

(Next door to Savings Bank.)

Quincy, Sept. 14.

TREANOR & McREA,

(SUCCESSORS TO R. HALLS.)

MERCHANT TAILORS,

Corner Granite and Hancock Streets,

QUINCY.

HAVE ON HAND and always receiving from

the best Houses,

THE BEST QUALITY AND STYLE

—OF—

CLOTHS and TRIMMINGS,

ADAPTED TO THE TRADE.

All who wish FIRST-CLASS GARMENTS,

will find it to their advantage to call at the above Establishment and examine.

Quincy, Sept. 6.

JOHN A. HOLDEN,

Merchant Tailor & Dealer

—IN—

CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DOESKINS

AND VESTINGS,

Hancock, cor. of School St., Quincy.

Has on hand and is constantly receiving from the best sources, New and Durable

Goods adapted to his trade. All who wish first class Custom Made Garments, for a fair price, are respectfully invited to call.

N. B. It would be well to remember, that cheapness and Daintiness are relative attributes;

they have a relation to the QUALITY of the article we buy, and that, which does not answer well

the purpose for which it was intended, is DEAR at any price.

Quincy, March 30

READY-MADE

CLOTHING,

NEW FALL STYLES,

Selling at Low Prices, by

GEORGE SAVILLE,

90 Hancock Street.

Quincy, Sept. 27.

C. F. & J. W. PIERCE.

ular Encyclopedia.
Work for the Masses!
2,000 three-column pages
125,000 subjects, with 2,500 subjects are treated with a superbness, and it will be nothing not to be found in found a Dictionary of Things.
Comparison with any Compendium? of 40 pages at 50 cents each;
times, according to size of emptily attended to by BRIGGS ARNOLD,
Authorized Agent,
Mass., Feb. 28-87
PRINTING.
TY OF PRINTING neatly accurately executed, at the Patriot Office.

INCY
E WORKS. would respectfully announce his premises, by the ad where
OF A VARIETY
ental Work, give sure, to the
and Costly Table,
and ready for lettering;
such, are invited to call elves, they are sure to find what will suit their taste the place for good work and will know that it is not in dollars upwards.
near South Quincy Depot
P. McGrath

RECEIVED,
d Choice Stock
CKERY.
having just received a FRESH CROCKERY and GLASS
ING CHEAP, tends and patrons to call J. N. BLAKE

the Blood AN IRON Tonic
CRUP
E WEAK STRONG.

A Srup, a Protect-of this remedy is
of an element, as and ex-estimated as the simplest reases the quantity Ours. Flies in in the blood, and and it is simply Fascinating and System. The en-talized blood per-part of the body,
ages and waste,
it morbid secre-
ing nothing for it up.
secret of the won-
of this remedy is
apsia, Liver Com-the Kidneys and eale Complaints, sues originating in blood, or any gery debility or a ystem. Being free in any form, the fects are not folresponding re-perment, vigor, vigor, and new arts of the system, up an Iron Com-

have been changed its remedy, from suffering creaing, healthy, and and women, and at reasonably hestrial.
bottle has PERU-the glass
free. Proprietor,
New York.

HALES VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER increases the popular-the Hair Preparation to moisten alone. We old patrons that it is its high standard;
reliable and perfect for restoring Gray
to its youthful color,
lustrous, and silken.
s. as, becomes white removes all eruptions
by its tonic prop-
dates and nourishes
By its use, the hair and stronger. It restores the capillary normal vigor, and ow growth, except in
It is the most ex-CESSIVE ever used,
fewer applications,
air a splendid, glossy
A. A. Hayes, M.D., Massachusetts, says are pure, and cure
for excellent quality;
it the Best Prepara-tation purposes."
One Dollar.

ham's Dye.
S WHISKERS.
ower in many cases
and a time, and restore gray or faded have prepared this oration; which will fectually accomplish is easily applied, color which will
Price Fifty Cents.
Y. P. HALL & CO.,
NEW YORK.

J. W. SMALL, M. D.,
Physician and Surgeon,
Office No. 4 Temple Street,
QUINCY.

G. S. COFFIN,
LOCKSMITH.
REMOVED TO
No. 39 Merchants Row,
opposite Oak Hall, Boston.

WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber.
Near the Post Office.
KEEP constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
and Solder, Brass, and all kinds of
Pumps of all kinds repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
filled and delivered on short notice.
August 27.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING,
BY
M. ELIZABETH GREEN,
AND
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT.
TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.
$1.00, if not paid before the close of the year.
OFFICE.—No. 64 Hancock Street,
OVER MR. CLAPP'S STORE.
Posters, Cards, Billheads, Circulars,
Labels, Programmes, &c.
PRINTED PROMPTLY
On the Most Reasonable Terms,
and Greatly Below Boston Prices.

HENRY LUNT,
Counsellor at Law,
and Secretary Bondholders'
and Creditors' Agency.
OFFICE.—50 Devonshire St. Rooms 18 & 19.
Boston, Jan. 11.
R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Entrances to Office,
No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.
No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.
Office Hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Jan. 12.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,
Attorney at Law,
TURNED OUT AT No. 51 Water Street, now at 4 DEVONSHIRE STREET,
BOSTON.

H. ALEXANDER CASE,
CIVIL ENGINEER & SURVEYOR
PROSPECT AVENUE,
WOLLASTON.
Quincy, Nov. 22.

WHITMAN & BRECK,
Civil Engineers & Surveyors,
CORNER OF
Devonshire & Water Streets.
BOSTON.
Entrance 41 Devonshire & 16 Water Sts.

E. F. E. THAYER,
Real Estate Broker and
AUCTIONEER,
No. 1 PEMBERTON SQUARE,
BOSTON.
Office Hours—9 A. M. to 2 o'clock, P. M.
Home Office in Braintree.
N. B. All kinds of Property sold by Auction
in the City or Country.
May 10.

EDWARD TURNER.
(Late of 180 Pearl Street.)
Dealer in Sheep Skins,
Skivvers, Roans, &c.
248 and 250 BROAD STREET,
BOSTON.
Nov. 16.

GUTTERS, CONDUCTORS,
AND MOULDINGS.
—ALSO—
A FINE STOCK OF DRY FINISH LUMber—constantly on hand.
A. T. STEARNS & SONS,
NAPESSET.
March 8-87.

A. GORDON, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
HANCOCK STREET.

JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.
Homoeopathic Physician.
Residence near the new Adams Academy
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Aug. 25.

DR. N. DOWNES,
Physician and Surgeon,
His office is at the corner of Washington and Edwards Streets, and would give a
Quincy, Oct. 4

J. W. SMALL, M. D.,
Physician and Surgeon,
Office No. 4 Temple Street,
QUINCY.

G. S. COFFIN,
LOCKSMITH.
REMOVED TO
No. 39 Merchants Row,
opposite Oak Hall, Boston.

WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber.
Near the Post Office.
KEEP constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
and Solder, Brass, and all kinds of
Pumps of all kinds repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
filled and delivered on short notice.
August 27.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING,
BY
M. ELIZABETH GREEN,
AND
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT.
TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.
$1.00, if not paid before the close of the year.
OFFICE.—No. 64 Hancock Street,
OVER MR. CLAPP'S STORE.
Posters, Cards, Billheads, Circulars,
Labels, Programmes, &c.
PRINTED PROMPTLY
On the Most Reasonable Terms,
and Greatly Below Boston Prices.

HENRY LUNT,
Counsellor at Law,
and Secretary Bondholders'
and Creditors' Agency.
OFFICE.—50 Devonshire St. Rooms 18 & 19.
Boston, Jan. 11.
R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Entrances to Office,
No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.
No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.
Office Hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Jan. 12.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,
Attorney at Law,
TURNED OUT AT No. 51 Water Street, now at 4 DEVONSHIRE STREET,
BOSTON.

H. ALEXANDER CASE,
CIVIL ENGINEER & SURVEYOR
PROSPECT AVENUE,
WOLLASTON.
Quincy, Nov. 22.

WHITMAN & BRECK,
Civil Engineers & Surveyors,
CORNER OF
Devonshire & Water Streets.
BOSTON.
Entrance 41 Devonshire & 16 Water Sts.

E. F. E. THAYER,
Real Estate Broker and
AUCTIONEER,
No. 1 PEMBERTON SQUARE,
BOSTON.
Office Hours—9 A. M. to 2 o'clock, P. M.
Home Office in Braintree.
N. B. All kinds of Property sold by Auction
in the City or Country.
May 10.

EDWARD TURNER.
(Late of 180 Pearl Street.)
Dealer in Sheep Skins,
Skivvers, Roans, &c.
248 and 250 BROAD STREET,
BOSTON.
Nov. 16.

GUTTERS, CONDUCTORS,
AND MOULDINGS.
—ALSO—
A FINE STOCK OF DRY FINISH LUMber—constantly on hand.
A. T. STEARNS & SONS,
NAPESSET.
March 8-87.

A. GORDON, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
HANCOCK STREET.

JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.
Homoeopathic Physician.
Residence near the new Adams Academy
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Aug. 25.

DR. N. DOWNES,
Physician and Surgeon,
His office is at the corner of Washington and Edwards Streets, and would give a
Quincy, Oct. 4

J. W. SMALL, M. D.,
Physician and Surgeon,
Office No. 4 Temple Street,
QUINCY.

G. S. COFFIN,
LOCKSMITH.
REMOVED TO
No. 39 Merchants Row,
opposite Oak Hall, Boston.

WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber.
Near the Post Office.
KEEP constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
and Solder, Brass, and all kinds of
Pumps of all kinds repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
filled and delivered on short notice.
August 27.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING,
BY
M. ELIZABETH GREEN,
AND
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT.
TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.
$1.00, if not paid before the close of the year.
OFFICE.—No. 64 Hancock Street,
OVER MR. CLAPP'S STORE.
Posters, Cards, Billheads, Circulars,
Labels, Programmes, &c.
PRINTED PROMPTLY
On the Most Reasonable Terms,
and Greatly Below Boston Prices.

HENRY LUNT,
Counsellor at Law,
and Secretary Bondholders'
and Creditors' Agency.
OFFICE.—50 Devonshire St. Rooms 18 & 19.
Boston, Jan. 11.
R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Entrances to Office,
No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.
No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.
Office Hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Jan. 12.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,
Attorney at Law,
TURNED OUT AT No. 51 Water Street, now at 4 DEVONSHIRE STREET,
BOSTON.

H. ALEXANDER CASE,
CIVIL ENGINEER & SURVEYOR
PROSPECT AVENUE,
WOLLASTON.
Quincy, Nov. 22.

WHITMAN & BRECK,
Civil Engineers & Surveyors,
CORNER OF
Devonshire & Water Streets.
BOSTON.
Entrance 41 Devonshire & 16 Water Sts.

E. F. E. THAYER,
Real Estate Broker and
AUCTIONEER,
No. 1 PEMBERTON SQUARE,
BOSTON.
Office Hours—9 A. M. to 2 o'clock, P. M.
Home Office in Braintree.
N. B. All kinds of Property sold by Auction
in the City or Country.
May 10.

EDWARD TURNER.
(Late of 180 Pearl Street.)
Dealer in Sheep Skins,
Skivvers, Roans, &c.
248 and 250 BROAD STREET,
BOSTON.
Nov. 16.

GUTTERS, CONDUCTORS,
AND MOULDINGS.
—ALSO—
A FINE STOCK OF DRY FINISH LUMber—constantly on hand.
A. T. STEARNS & SONS,
NAPESSET.
March 8-87.

A. GORDON, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
HANCOCK STREET.

JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.
Homoeopathic Physician.
Residence near the new Adams Academy
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Aug. 25.

DR. N. DOWNES,
Physician and Surgeon,
His office is at the corner of Washington and Edwards Streets, and would give a
Quincy, Oct. 4

J. W. SMALL, M. D.,
Physician and Surgeon,
Office No. 4 Temple Street,
QUINCY.

G. S. COFFIN,
LOCKSMITH.
REMOVED TO
No. 39 Merchants Row,
opposite Oak Hall, Boston.

WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber.
Near the Post Office.
KEEP constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
and Solder, Brass, and all kinds of
Pumps of all kinds repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
filled and delivered on short notice.
August 27.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING,
BY
M. ELIZABETH GREEN,
AND
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT.
TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.
$1.00, if not paid before the close of the year.
OFFICE.—No. 64 Hancock Street,
OVER MR. CLAPP'S STORE.
Posters, Cards, Billheads, Circulars,
Labels, Programmes, &c.
PRINTED PROMPTLY
On the Most Reasonable Terms,
and Greatly Below Boston Prices.

HENRY LUNT,
Counsellor at Law,
and Secretary Bondholders'
and Creditors' Agency.
OFFICE.—50 Devonshire St. Rooms 18 & 19.
Boston, Jan. 11.
R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Entrances to Office,
No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.
No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.
Office Hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Jan. 12.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,
Attorney at Law,
TURNED OUT AT No. 51 Water Street, now at 4 DEVONSHIRE STREET,
BOSTON.

H. ALEXANDER CASE,
CIVIL ENGINEER & SURVEYOR
PROSPECT AVENUE,
WOLLASTON.
Quincy, Nov. 22.

WHITMAN & BRECK,
Civil Engineers & Surveyors,
CORNER OF
Devonshire & Water Streets.
BOSTON.
Entrance 41 Devonshire & 16 Water Sts.

E. F. E. THAYER,
Real Estate Broker and
AUCTIONEER,
No. 1 PEMBERTON SQUARE,
BOSTON.
Office Hours—9 A. M. to 2 o'clock, P. M.
Home Office in Braintree.
N. B. All kinds of Property sold by Auction
in the City or Country.
May 10.

EDWARD TURNER.
(Late of 180 Pearl Street.)
Dealer in Sheep Skins,
Skivvers, Roans, &c.
248 and 250 BROAD STREET,
BOSTON.
Nov. 16.

GUTTERS, CONDUCTORS,
AND MOULDINGS.
—ALSO—
A FINE STOCK OF DRY FINISH LUMber—constantly on hand.
A. T. STEARNS & SONS,
NAPESSET.
March 8-87.

A. GORDON, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
HANCOCK STREET.

JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.
Homoeopathic Physician.
Residence near the new Adams Academy
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Aug. 25.

DR. N. DOWNES,
Physician and Surgeon,
His office is at the corner of Washington and Edwards Streets, and would give a
Quincy, Oct. 4

J. W. SMALL, M. D.,
Physician and Surgeon,
Office No. 4 Temple Street,
QUINCY.

G. S. COFFIN,
LOCKSMITH.
REMOVED TO
No. 39 Merchants Row,
opposite Oak Hall, Boston.

WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber.
Near the Post Office.
KEEP constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
and Solder, Brass, and all kinds of
Pumps of all kinds repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
filled and delivered on short notice.
August 27.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING,
BY
M. ELIZABETH GREEN,
AND
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT.
TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.
$1.00, if not paid before the close of the year.
OFFICE.—No. 64 Hancock Street,
OVER MR. CLAPP'S STORE.
Posters, Cards, Billheads, Circulars,
Labels, Programmes, &c.
PRINTED PROMPTLY
On the Most Reasonable Terms,
and Greatly Below Boston Prices.

HENRY LUNT,
Counsellor at Law,
and Secretary Bondholders'
and Creditors' Agency.
OFFICE.—50 Devonshire St. Rooms 18 & 19.
Boston, Jan. 11.
R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Entrances to Office,
No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.
No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.
Office Hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Jan. 12.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,
Attorney at Law,
TURNED OUT AT No. 51 Water Street, now at 4 DEVONSHIRE STREET,
BOSTON.

H. ALEXANDER CASE,
CIVIL ENGINEER & SURVEYOR
PROSPECT AVENUE,
WOLLASTON.
Quincy, Nov. 22.

WHITMAN & BRECK,
Civil Engineers & Surveyors,
CORNER OF
Devonshire & Water Streets.
BOSTON.
Entrance 41 Devonshire & 16 Water Sts.

E. F. E. THAYER,
Real Estate Broker and
AUCTIONEER,
No. 1 PEMBERTON SQUARE,
BOSTON.
Office Hours—9 A. M. to 2 o'clock, P. M.
Home Office in Braintree.
N. B. All kinds of Property sold by Auction
in the City or Country.
May 10.

EDWARD TURNER.
(Late of 180 Pearl Street.)
Dealer in Sheep Skins,
Skivvers, Roans, &c.
248 and 250 BROAD STREET,
BOSTON.
Nov. 16.

GUTTERS, CONDUCTORS,
AND MOULDINGS.
—ALSO—
A FINE STOCK OF DRY FINISH LUMber—constantly on hand.
A. T. STEARNS & SONS,
NAPESSET.
March 8-87.

A. GORDON, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
HANCOCK STREET.

JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.
Homoeopathic Physician.
Residence near the new Adams Academy
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Aug. 25.

DR. N. DOWNES,
Physician and Surgeon,
His office is at the corner of Washington and Edwards Streets, and would give a
Quincy, Oct. 4

J. W. SMALL, M. D.,
Physician and Surgeon,
Office No. 4 Temple Street,
QUINCY.

G. S. COFFIN,
LOCKSMITH.
REMOVED TO
No. 39 Merchants Row,
opposite Oak Hall, Boston.

WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber.
Near the Post Office.
KEEP constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
and Solder, Brass, and all kinds of
Pumps of all kinds repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
filled and delivered on short notice.
August 27.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING,
BY
M. ELIZABETH GREEN,
AND
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT.
TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.
$1.00, if not paid before the close of the year.
OFFICE.—No. 64 Hancock Street,
OVER MR. CLAPP'S STORE.
Posters, Cards, Billheads, Circulars,
Labels, Programmes, &c.
PRINTED PROMPTLY
On the Most Reasonable Terms,
and Greatly Below Boston Prices.

HENRY LUNT,
Counsellor at Law,
and Secretary Bondholders'
and Creditors' Agency.
OFFICE.—50 Devonshire St. Rooms 18 & 19.
Boston, Jan. 11.
R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Entrances to Office,
No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.
No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.
Office Hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Jan. 12.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,
Attorney at Law,
TURNED OUT AT No. 51 Water Street, now at 4 DEVONSHIRE STREET,
BOSTON.

H. ALEXANDER CASE,
CIVIL ENGINEER & SURVEYOR
PROSPECT AVENUE,
WOLLASTON.
Quincy, Nov. 22.

WHITMAN & BRECK,
Civil Engineers & Surveyors,
CORNER OF
Devonshire & Water Streets.
BOSTON.
Entrance 41 Devonshire & 16 Water Sts.

E. F. E. THAYER,
Real Estate Broker and
AUCTIONEER,
No. 1 PEMBERTON SQUARE,
BOSTON.
Office Hours—9 A. M. to 2 o'clock, P. M.
Home Office in Braintree.
N. B. All kinds of Property sold by Auction
in the City or Country.
May 10.

EDWARD TURNER.
(Late of 180 Pearl Street.)
Dealer in Sheep Skins,
Skivvers, Roans, &c.
248 and 250 BROAD STREET,
BOSTON.
Nov. 16.

GUTTERS, CONDUCTORS,
AND MOULDINGS.
—ALSO—
A FINE STOCK OF DRY FINISH LUMber—constantly on hand.
A. T. STEARNS & SONS,
NAPESSET.
March 8-87.

A. GORDON, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
HANCOCK STREET.

JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.
Homoeopathic Physician.
Residence near the new Adams Academy
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Aug. 25.

DR. N. DOWNES,
Physician and Surgeon,
His office is at the corner of Washington and Edwards Streets, and would give a
Quincy, Oct. 4

J. W. SMALL, M. D.,
Physician and Surgeon,
Office No. 4 Temple Street,
QUINCY.

G. S. COFFIN,
LOCKSMITH.
REMOVED TO
No. 39 Merchants Row,
opposite Oak Hall, Boston.

WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber.
Near the Post Office.
KEEP constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
and Solder, Brass, and all kinds of
Pumps of all kinds repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
filled and delivered on short notice.
August 27.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

WARD'S INK
Small Ward & Co. Proprietors, Boston.
FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
J. B. SOUTHER,
Sept. 20.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING,
BY
M. ELIZABETH GREEN,
AND
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT.
TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.
$1.00, if not paid before the close of the year.
OFFICE.—No. 64 Hancock Street,
OVER MR. CLAPP'S STORE.
Posters, Cards, Billheads, Circulars,
Labels, Programmes, &c.
PRINTED PROMPTLY
On the Most Reasonable Terms,
and Greatly Below Boston Prices.

HENRY LUNT,
Counsellor at Law,
and Secretary Bondholders'
and Creditors' Agency.
OFFICE.—50 Devonshire St. Rooms 18 & 19.
Boston, Jan. 11.
R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Entrances to Office,
No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.
No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.
Office Hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.<

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING.
—BY—
M. ELIZABETH GREEN,
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT.
TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.
$1.00, if not paid before the close of the year.
OFFICE.—No. 64 Hancock Street,
OVER MR. CLAPP'S STORE.
Posters, Cards, Billheads, Circulars,
Labels, Programmes, &c.
PRINTED PROMPTLY
On the Most Reasonable Terms,
And Greatly Below Boston Prices.

HENRY LUNT,
Counsellor at Law,
And Secretary Bondholders'
and Creditors' Agency.
OFFICE.—58 Devonshire St. Rooms 12 & 14.
Boston, Jan. 11.
R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Entrances to Office,
No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.
No 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.
Office Hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Jan. 12.
EVERETT C. BUMPUS,
Attorney at Law,
SHEPARD OUT at No. 31 Water Street, now at 42 DEVONSHIRE STREET,
BOSTON.

H. ALEXANDER CASE,
CIVIL ENGINEER & SURVEYOR
PROSPECT AVENUE,
WOLLASTON.
Quincy, Nov. 22.
WHITMAN & BRECK,
Civil Engineers & Surveyors,
DEVONSHIRE & WATER STREETS,
BOSTON.
Entrance 41 Devonshire & 16 Water Sts.
Particular attention paid to Land Surveying,
laying out private grounds, and the general improvement of Real Estate. Plans and working drawings of public and private buildings carefully prepared.
H. T. WHITMAN, C. E. & C. BRECK.
Dec 14 April 15 6m

E. F. E. THAYER,
Real Estate Broker and
AUCTIONEER,
No. 1 PEMBERTON SQUARE,
BOSTON.
Office Hours—9 A. M. to 2 o'clock, P. M.
Rooms Office in Brimfield.
N. B. All kinds of Property sold by Auction
in the City or Country.
May 10.
EDWARD TURNER,
(Late of 100 Pearl Street.)
Dealer in Sheep Skins,
Skivers, Roans, &c.
248 and 250 BROAD STREET,
BOSTON.
Nov. 16.

GUTTERS, CONDUCTORS,
AND
MOULDINGS.
A FINE STOCK OF DRY FINISH LUM-BER—constantly on hand.
A. T. STEARNS & SONS,
NEPONSET.
March 8.—17
J. A. GORDON, M. D.,
Physician and Surgeon,
HANCOCK STREET.
REFERENCE.
H. I. Bowditch, M. D., D. W. Cheever, M. D.,
D. H. Storer, M. D.,
Office Hours—From 1 to 3 and after 7, P. M.
Quincy, May 24.
JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.,
Homoeopathic Physician.
Residence near the new Adams Academy
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Aug. 25.

DR. N. DOWNES,
Physician and Surgeon,
Has taken the House on the corner of Washington and Adams Streets, and would give his services to the public.
Dr. Bowditch and Storer of Boston, and Dr.
Richard of Neponset, and Dr. Ward of Milton
Quincy, Oct. 4.
J. W. SMALL, M. D.,
Physician and Surgeon,
Office No. 1 Temple Street,
QUINCY.
Office Hours—All hours, day and night,
when not absent on business.
Quincy, Aug. 20.

G. S. COFFIN,
LOCKSMITH.
REMOVED TO
No. 39 Merchants Row,
opposite Oak Hall, Boston.
Keys of all kinds put up. Locks picked. Repairing and Jobbing of all kinds.
August 27.

WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber.
Near the Post Office.
KEEP constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
and Solder, Pump, Bell Taps and Boilers, Wash-Bowls, various patterns, Brass and Plated Cups, &c., &c.
Pumps of all kinds repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly attended to.
Quincy, June 10.

WARD'S INK
For Sale in Quincy, BY
E. A. SOUTHERN
104-107

The Quincy Patriot.

ESTABLISHED IN 1837.

A Family Paper devoted to Morals, Education, Agriculture, News and General Literature.

VOLUME XXXVIII. QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1874. NUMBER 7.

Patch's Library

CONDITIONS.

No subscription nor advertisement will be discontinued previous to the payment of all arrearages, unless at the option of the Publisher. Advertisements correctly and conspicuously inserted at the customary rates, and will be charged until ordered out.

The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to their own immediate business.

Advertising Agents.

The following gentlemen are authorized Agents to receive advertisements for the Patriot:

BOSTON.—S. M. PETERSON & Co., S. R. NILES, HORACE DODD, and T. C. EVANS.
NEW YORK.—S. M. PETERSON & Co., Geo. P. ROWELL & Co., and FRASER & Co.
PHILADELPHIA.—COB, WETTERBERG & Co.

DORCHESTER MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.
Cash Fund, April 1st, 1873, $84,738.64.
Cash uncollected on Deposit Notes, $59,000.00.
Balance on Deposit Notes, not called on, $60,100.00.
Absolute Funds, April 1st, 1873, $194,833.64.
Amount at Risk, $1,650 Policies, and Insured, $12,471,654.00.
The Company Insures Dwellings and other Buildings not extra hazardous, and their contents, at as low rates as any other reliable Company.
W. F. TEMPLE, Secretary.
Neponset, April 26.—17

Weymouth & Braintree Fire Insurance Co., OF WEYMOUTH.
INSURES DWELLINGS AND OTHER BUILDINGS NOT EXTRA HAZARDOUS, and their contents, at as low rates as any other reliable Company.
Amount at Risk April 1, 1873, $2,035,704.00.
Cash Assets, $25,923.01
Deposit Notes, $16,428.57
Total available Assets, $102,351.58
N. L. WHITE, President.
ELIAS RICHARDS, Sec'y.
Wm. R. DUGGAN, Agent, Quincy.
Weymouth, Aug. 1

THE QUINCY MUTUAL Fire Insurance Comp'y.
CASH FUND, November 1st, 1873, $260,000.
Over $45,000.
Dividends on expiring policies paid from and after Nov. 10, 1873, on all policies now in force. None but the safe claims of hazards written.
L. W. MUNROE, Pres.
CHAS. A. HOWLAND, Sec.
Quincy, Nov. 15.—17

MESSINGER BROTHERS' GENTLEMEN'S DINING ROOMS, OPEN NEW.
55 Bromfield St. & 15 Montgomery Place BOSTON.
Rooms by the Day or Week.
F. W. MESSENGER, E. M. MESSENGER.
Feb. 1.—17

KID GLOVES, Warrented!
NEW PAIRS given for any that will little wear. An invoice of LADIES' KID GLOVES.
Just received and for sale VERY LOW—by E. CLAPP.
Quincy, Sept. 27

WILLIAM B. WOODBRIDGE, TEACHER OF MUSIC,
170 Tremont Street, Room 3, BOSTON.
N. B. Pupils in Quincy waited on at their residences, and in Cases where desired.
Best of City references.
November 29.
Mrs. H. A. CASE, TEACHER OF MUSIC,
PROSPECT AVENUE, WOLLASTON.
Quincy, Nov. 22.
ORVILLE M. TILDEN, TEACHER OF MUSIC.
Terms—$15 per TWENTY LESSONS, PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.
P. O. Address, Box 128, NORTH EASTON, MASS.
Agent for Pianos and Organs.
Order left at the Quincy Patriot Office, will receive prompt attention.
Quincy, Sept. 27

Bryant & Stratton SCHOOL, BOSTON, MASS.
Commercial
COURSE OF STUDY PREPARATORY TO BUSINESS.
The studies embraced in the plan of the school, and designed for those pupils who have acquired a good knowledge of the elementary English Branches.
Book-keeping.
(SINGLE AND DOUBLE ENTRY.)
Commercial Arithmetic.
(Designed for practical application in Business.)
Commercial Writing.
(With special reference to legibility & rapidity.)
Commercial Law.
(Relating to Negotiable Paper, Contracts, Partnerships, &c.) all of which are especially necessary for and adapted to commercial purposes.
Those desiring to accomplish more than the course included in the above studies may select any or all of the following studies, viz:—Reading, Writing, Spelling, Grammar, and Arithmetic, and pursue them as associate studies or separately.
Pupils received at any time when there are vacancies. Parents desiring children educated in a useful and practical manner are invited to examine into the merits of this School.
Catalogue post free. Communications should be addressed 534 WASHINGTON STREET, at which place interviews may be had from 9 A. M. until 2 P. M. CLOSED SATURDAYS.
H. E. HIBBARD, Principal.
N. B. This School will be removed after a few weeks to its new building, now in process of completion, corner of Essex and Washington Streets—where it will be held from 9 A. M. until 2 P. M. CLOSED SATURDAYS.
Aug. 1.—17

PRACTICAL TRAINING FOR BUSINESS.
FRENCH & CHAMBERLAIN'S UNION Business & Nautical College,
460 Washington St., Opposite Boylston Street, BOSTON.
Charles French, A. M., PRINCIPAL.
Charles Chamberlain, Sec'y.

THE QUINCY MUTUAL Fire Insurance Comp'y.
CASH FUND, November 1st, 1873, $260,000.
Over $45,000.
Dividends on expiring policies paid from and after Nov. 10, 1873, on all policies now in force. None but the safe claims of hazards written.
L. W. MUNROE, Pres.
CHAS. A. HOWLAND, Sec.
Quincy, Nov. 15.—17

MESSINGER BROTHERS' GENTLEMEN'S DINING ROOMS, OPEN NEW.
55 Bromfield St. & 15 Montgomery Place BOSTON.
Rooms by the Day or Week.
F. W. MESSENGER, E. M. MESSENGER.
Feb. 1.—17

KID GLOVES, Warrented!
NEW PAIRS given for any that will little wear. An invoice of LADIES' KID GLOVES.
Just received and for sale VERY LOW—by E. CLAPP.
Quincy, Sept. 27

WILLIAM B. WOODBRIDGE, TEACHER OF MUSIC,
170 Tremont Street, Room 3, BOSTON.
N. B. Pupils in Quincy waited on at their residences, and in Cases where desired.
Best of City references.
November 29.
Mrs. H. A. CASE, TEACHER OF MUSIC,
PROSPECT AVENUE, WOLLASTON.
Quincy, Nov. 22.
ORVILLE M. TILDEN, TEACHER OF MUSIC.
Terms—$15 per TWENTY LESSONS, PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.
P. O. Address, Box 128, NORTH EASTON, MASS.
Agent for Pianos and Organs.
Order left at the Quincy Patriot Office, will receive prompt attention.
Quincy, Sept. 27

Poetry.
For the Patriot.
Beneath a Chestnut Tree.
Two young lovers sat conversing,
'Neath the boughs of a chestnut tree;
The bright sun was fast declining,
But its beauty they did not see.
They were talking love so sweetly,
And then, sweet kisses did ensue,
But don't be shocked, dear reader,
For of course, you've done it too.
Sweet Annie, I love you so dearly
This passion can never grow cold;
You part me from me on every day,
Which we might together behold.
She smiled like a Psyche on Ery,
He felt encouraged and said:
Now put me in the preparation,
We will join together that night.
Now lovers, be careful I pray,
When beneath the shady boughs;
Or you may before you consider,
Be making the marriage vows.
When Venus was disappointed,
By the death of Adonis fair;
She vowed, that love should ever
Have previous trials to bear.
Be not thus in the matter,
Nor put me soon to flight;
These blissful hours of courtship,
Glowing with tints, so bright.

Receipts, Wit & Humor.
LEMON CAKE. One teaspoon butter, three teaspoons sugar, five eggs, four cups flour, one cup milk, one teaspoon saleratus dissolved in the milk, grate skin and juice of a lemon and a half; bake in tins a half hour.
TO CUT GLASS. Any hard steel tool, says the Boston Journal of Chemistry, will cut glass with facility when kept freely wet with camphor dissolved in turpentine. The ragged edge of glass may also be thus smoothed with a flat file.
TO Preserve Old Flowers Fresh longer time than by the use of water alone we have seen the experiment of adding to the water a small quantity of alcohol—common whiskey—repeatedly and successfully tried.
To Freshen Cut Flowers, it is recommended to "cut off half an inch of the stems and place them in boiling water or otherwise place them in fresh water with pure powdered charcoal and place a bell glass over them."
A New Hampshire party who has just enjoyed his first experience with Washington pies, thus describes them: They were about an inch thick, with two crusts, and had Pervian syrup spread all over between them.
The tea-kettle is the only singer that never gets cold.
A man who had been to a crowded ball said he was fond of rings on the fingers but he didn't like bells on his toes.
A young beau, at his sister's evening party, began to sing, "Why am I so weak and weary?" when a little brother brought the performance to a close by yelling out, "Aunt Mary says it's cause you come home so late and drunk 'most every night."

FURNITURE.
THE subscribers having bought the stock and pool will and leased the Store of S. B. FERNALD, are prepared to accommodate all who may give them a call.
FURNITURE, FEATHERS, Mattresses, Window Shades, LOOKING-GLASSES, Oil CARPETS, Straw MATTINGS, Paper Hangings, CHILDREN'S CARRIAGES, LAMPS, &c.
and many other articles connected with the business.
KEPT CONSTANTLY ON HAND.
ALL ORDERS FOR Upholstering and Repairing, PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
For Sale, and Made to Order.
EWELL & JOSEPHS,
Cor. of Washington and Coddington Sts., QUINCY.
Sept. 27.—17
Elm Street Market.
THEY are prepared to furnish their customers with Poultry, Meats, Lard, Eggs, &c., at the LOWEST MARKET RATES. We also keep a good assortment of Family Groceries,
as can be found at any other Store in town.
Fresh Fruits and Vegetables, IN THEIR SEASON.
CANNED GOODS in great variety.
G. TOTMAN & SON.
Quincy, March 15.—17

Miscellany.
Births in Quincy for 1873.
The following births were registered by the Town Clerk in this town for the year 1873.
JANUARY.
1, Andrew, son to John and Honora O'Keefe.
1, Lillie Belle, daughter to William H. and Isabella E. Chamberlin.
8, son to John and Emeline Harmon.
13, Walter B., son to George B. and Elizabeth M. Bailey.
15, Mildred May, daughter to Daniel B. and Mary E. Estes.
16, Rupert W., son to R. F. and Lydia M. Claffin.
16, Mary A., daughter to Peter and Maggie J. Farrell.
17, Stephen E., son to Stephen M. and Amelia B. Bennett.
18, Maud E., daughter to Richard and Susan M. Polson.
23, Emily M., daughter to Thomas W. J. and Mary Sullivan.
25, Lillian Lincoln, daughter to William F. and Mary Emma Barker.
27, Ellen, daughter to William and Maggie Langdon.
27, Elizabeth, daughter to Michael and Ellen O'Hara.
28, Jerry, son to Jerry and Mary Leary.
28, Michael F., son to John L. and Catherine Cronin.
31, Lillian F., daughter to Edward F. and Mary S. Jarvis.

February.
1, John J., son to John and Phoebe C. Harris.
1, William H., son to James H. and Carrie A. Dill.
3, Mary E., daughter to Thomas and Bridget Butler.
6, Wallace P., son to Henry and Mary E. Glidden.
12, Maggie T., daughter to Patrick and Susanna Donlon.
16, Marian E., daughter to George T. and Annie Hope.
18, John M., son to Patrick H. and Bridget Rooney.
16, Louie M., daughter to James E. and Abbie M. Maxim.
17, John, son to Charles and Kate Lyons.
19, Edmund, son to Jeremiah and Bridget Shea.
19, Dennis son to Timothy and Mary Sullivan.
20, John and Thomas, twins to Thomas and Bridget Foley.
25, Walter, son to Walter R. and Mary J. Pegan.
26, Frances P., daughter to Winslow P. and Lydia F. Johnson.
26, Maud E., daughter to Charles F. and Annabella Lapham.
27, Catherine, daughter to Timothy and Ann Reardon.
28, Joseph L., son to Joseph L. and Mary A. Whiton.

March.
2, Jane E., daughter to William and Jane Daggon.
3, Adeline, daughter to Martin and Margaret Fladman.
4, Edward Irving, son to Edwin B. and Abbie M. Pratt.
5, Maggie, daughter to John and Margaret Mundy.
7, Sophia L., daughter to Elliot and Sophia C. Stoddard.
7, Maggie, daughter to James and Catherine Golden.
8, Sarah Abbie, daughter to John and Louisa L. Hall.
8, Abbie L., daughter to Edward A. and Sarah E. Brown.
9, John, son to John and Ann Croty.
10, Albin DeForest, son to Enoch E. and F. Anna Hall.
12, Sarah E., daughter to Richard and Sarah E. Williams.
13, Nellie, daughter to A. W. and Emma Hayford.
13, George White, son to George H. and A. Gertrude Mitchell.
14, Ellen, daughter to Christopher and Ellen Keenan.
14, Charles V., son to John D. and Annie L. Wells.
14, Ethel, daughter to William H. and Isadore Faxon.
15, Lydia A., daughter to Thos. W. and Mary W. Carter.
15, Rosanna, daughter to Thomas and Ann McGonigle.
16, Morris G., son to Griffin and Ellen Williams.
17, Lizzie, daughter to James and Elizabeth McIntosh.
17, Helena J., daughter to David and Hannah Clements.
18, Bernice L., daughter to Robert and Hannah Clark.
19, Lizzie J., daughter to George and Ellen Shepard.
20, Florence Lord, daughter to Francis L. and Mary M. Hayes.

April.
1, Margaret, daughter to Michael and Mary Moynihan.
2, Squire A., son to Herbert M. and Emily Luther.
5, Mary A., daughter to William and Hannah Webb.
6, Mary A., daughter to James and Mary J. Cleverly.
6, Logure H., son to James and Maria Reed.
9, Cora, daughter to Benjamin and Louisa Huzzey.
10, John T., son to Thomas A. and Isabel S. Whicher.
11, Katy, daughter to Patrick and Ellen Dorey.
17, Agnes, daughter to John and Johanna Crathorne.
17, James H., son to James H. and Eliza A. Gould.
20, Francis M., son to Frank W. and Harriet E. Perry.
21, Mary E., daughter to John G. and Lizzie Ryan.
24, Mabel W., daughter to William W. and Mary Lizzie Brown.
29, John H. F., son to Michael and Kate Shea.
30, Lizzie D., daughter to George and Elizabeth F. Monk.

May.
1, Catherine, daughter to Patrick and Margaret Sheehan.
1, Michael F., son to Michael and Margaret Dugan.
3, Michael, son to Patrick and Katie Fitzgerald.
3, Charles C., son to Charles C. and Ella H. Hodgkinson.
4, Mary Alice, daughter to William A. and Annie Hodges.
6, John, son to John and Honora Holland.
6, Mary A., daughter to Michael and Margaret Sullivan.
9, Ernest M., son to John C. and Antoinette Lloyd.
13, Mary A., daughter to Thomas and Annie Maloney.
16, George M., daughter to George W. and Sarah A. Trask.
19, Ernest Hathaway son to George M. and Lucy Washburn.
21, Gertrude, daughter to Charles R. and Kate W. Sherman.
24, Hannah M., daughter to Patrick and Mary Keilher.
25, Annie R., daughter to John A. and Julianna C. Packard.
25, Wilhelmina M., daughter to William and Esther A. Faxon.
26, Patrick, son to Cornelius and Johanna Collins.
27, Harry G., son to Robert and Jennie Josselyn.
27, George W., son to Joseph N. and Amelia Welch.
29, Henry G., son to Alden H. and Marietta A. Holbrook.
29, James W., son to James and Lucy G. Fletcher.
31, Flora May, daughter to Albert Lucas and Sarah Woodward.

June.
1, Arthur, son to Arthur and Mary Sanville.
2, Charles A., son to Charles and Emma S. Leavitt.
2, Mary, daughter to James and Bridget Cunningham.
4, John, son to John and Kate Reardon.
5, Nathaniel, son to Nathaniel and Agnes Carter.
7, Emma B., daughter to Charles and Mary Biggins.
7, Belle, daughter to William D. and Frank J. Spelman.
9, Alfred J., son to Byron W. and Nancy C. M. Loud.
10, Thomas, son to Peter and Ann Gilligan.
11, Emily A., daughter to James and Emily Bisson.
11, John R., son to Price and Mary Morris.
12, Clara, daughter to William E. and Annie L. Corbett.
14, Ellen J., daughter to John and Ellen Barry.
15, Lucie W., daughter to Elijah S. and Clara S. Brown.
16, Guy A., son to Artemas and Mary Willard.
21, Hannah M., daughter to Cornelius and Hannah Connor.
22, Jane, daughter to Edward and Jane Murphy.
29, Johanna, daughter to Michael and Mary Donovan.

July.
1, Frederick, son to Frederick and Josephine Meller.
2, Susan L., daughter to Charles F. and Elizabeth Arnold.
4, Walter G., son to William H. H. and Martha E. Willett.
8, Annie, daughter to William and Rosanna Savage.
9, John, son to John and Annie Gill.
9, Maria F., daughter to Patrick and Ellen L. Granahan.
12, William S., son to John and Penel Gordon.
14, Son to Jas. M. and Robt. B. Harris.

August.
2, Mary E., daughter to Nicholas and Emily E. Garbano.
3, Henrietta H., daughter to Francis C. Jr., and Pamela F. Ellis.
4, Eva F., daughter to S. F. and L. I. Dalby.
5, Malachi F., son to Malachi and Bridget Garrity.
6, Mary E. Welsh, adopted by George B. Jones.
9, Lillian Minerva, daughter to Elijah A. and Lydia B. Corlies.
9, Walter C., son to F. H. and Sarah A. I. Butterworth.
10, Arthur Shaw, son to Arthur L. and Lucie A. Mitchell.
15, William W., son to Matthew H. and Frances A. Oliver.
18, Joseph H., son to Joseph and Agnes M. Kendrick.
19, John, son to Jeremiah and Hannah Corcoran.
19, Fanny, daughter to John Q. and Fanny C. Adams.
19, Lillian May, daughter to Abner M. and Eunice D. Turner.
20, Elisha Beale, son to Elisha and Charlotte H. B. Packard.
21, Son to John and Lizzie A. Hall.
21, Fanny B., daughter to George H. and Ellen E. Hitchcock.
24, Isaac M., son to Joseph B. and Lucy M. Lord.
24, Fred E., son to Lewis T. and H. Adelaide Tupper.
25, Patrick H., son to John and Catherine Moynihan.
25, Thomas, son to James and Hanora Forrest.
26, Catherine E., daughter to Lewis and Catherine E. Walters.
26, Daughter to Samuel E. and Clara E. Foye.

September.
4, Daniel, son to Thomas and Mary Connor.
5, Etta M., daughter to Thomas and Nancy A. Noble.
5, Maud M., daughter to Warren and Augusta Crane.
5, Julia, daughter to Michael and Margaret Butler.
7, Maggie A., daughter to Michael and Annie Gerry.
10, Edward B., son to Edward B. and Eliza D. Whiting.
12, Margaret Ann, daughter to John S. and Lizzie M. Farrell.
12, Clara Ellen, daughter to George H. and Ellen M. Collins.
15, Maggie J., daughter to Richard and Mary E. Powers.
19, Catherine, daughter to Timothy and Mary O'Brien.
21, Samuel, son to Adam 3d and Louisa Curtis.
22, Annie, daughter to Napoleon and Mary King.
22, Willie Gardner, son to Matthew M. C. and Frances R. Chubbuck.
24, William, son to John and Catherine Mahan.
26, Ida M., daughter to Joseph and Emma Miller.
26, Michael, son to Dennis and Ellen O'Neil.
28, Jeremiah, son to James and Bridget Sullivan.

October.
2, LeFrank Herbert, son to Maurice R. and Adalissa Newcomb.
3, Edith B., daughter to George T. and Abbie Wald.
3, Sarah E., daughter to John W. and Martha P. Nash.
3, Lilly, daughter to Joseph Nichols.
4, Annie L., daughter to William and Mary McGowan.
4, James H., son to William and Jane Duggan.
6, Julia, daughter to Thomas F. and Julia Carroll.
6, Addie F., daughter to George F. and Francis Choate.
7, Alphaeus M., son to Herbert F. and Flora R. Holmes.
7, Catherine, daughter to Thomas and Catherine Welch.
7, Charles W., son to James and Mary Nightingale.

November.
1, Son to James and Jessie Carter.
5, Hannah, daughter to Timothy and Hannah Fitzgerald.
5, Mary A., daughter to William and Kate Corcoran.
9, Son to George O. and Jerusha H. Langley.
10, Lillian Whittier, daughter to Horace W. and Mary Phillips.
10, Arthur W., son to George A. and Mary A. Bailey.
10, Israel, son to Israel and Delina Mitchell.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, FEB. 14, 1874.

"Born to no Master, of no Sect are We."

Short communications and items of news earnestly solicited from friends and patrons. Anonymous communications are not published.

TEMPERANCE. The third in the second course of temperance lectures at the Town Hall, was as usual largely attended. The Constables were present and good order prevailed, for which we doubt not, they have the thanks of the audience. Since the Patriot poked them with a sharp stick they have aroused from their sleep and are now determined to do their duty.

Mr. J. R. Osgood of Maine, was the speaker, and a better lecture we have not heard this season. While relating his sad experience, the misery and wretchedness had done for him, many an eye was moistened with the tear of pity. A gentleman of great natural ability, with a large circle of friends; a man of wealth with a fond and loving family, brought to the very door of poverty. Money, friends, character! Yes, all had left him but his family, and his sufferings no one could tell. But fortunately a little over two years ago he turned over a new leaf, and now he is doing a glorious work. May his health and strength allow him for many years to continue in the reform he so nobly advocates.

THE 27TH. Another of those pleasant and social gatherings given by the Universalist society of this town, will take place at the Town Hall, on Tuesday evening, the 24th inst. This will be the twenty-seventh annual gathering by this society, and it is expected to be the pleasantest and most entertaining of any given for a number of years. The dramatic pieces are amusing and instructive, and will give good satisfaction; the parts being well sustained. See notice in another column.

QUINCY POINT. The first lecture of the course at the Methodist Church was delivered on Monday evening by Rev. Mr. Parkinson of "Lookout Mountain" was told in an eloquent and interesting manner. We have seldom listened to anything better than Mr. Parkinson's vivid picturing of the battle ground and its unique surroundings, his enthusiastic portrayal of the first day's battle and "Hooker's Charge," and his grander description of the storming of "Mission Ridge."

Prof. Townsend of Boston will lecture on Wednesday evening, February 18th, Subject: "Placed and misplaced men and women."

REAL ESTATE SALES. The neat and pretty gothic cottage, with a fine piece of land well stocked with excellent fruit, on Quincy Avenue, owned by Mr. Alvin Rogers, was sold at private sale by Joseph W. Lombard, to Capt. Samuel Crane for about $7000.

L. Billings, sold to Joshua W. Daniels 12 lots, on Beach and Cottage Avenues, Squantum, for $4800.

Benjamin T. Dowse sold a lot of land with buildings on the south west side of Fayette street, Wollaston to John W. Loud, for $2725.

Cornelius Hurlbut, sold 40,000 feet of land, corner of Beach and Cottage Avenue, Squantum, for $3200.

Nathaniel Evans, Jr., sold two lots on Appleton and one lot on Walker street North Quincy, to Russell Ballou for $8000.

SERIOUS. One of our solid men in the Square, broke one of his fingers yesterday while pulling on a boot. An accident of this kind seldom happens; but this was one of those serious ones; but the owner did not take off his glove, or feel in great pain. Last we learned he talked of going to a carpenter to see what could be done. It was a wooden finger so Southern said. Look out next time, Edward.

A NEW ORANGE LODGE was installed on Thursday evening, in Lombard's Hall, by the Officers of Abraham Lincoln District Lodge, Richard Cassidy, D. M. Hugh Robinson, D. S. All Orangemen are invited to pay a visit on the 24th Thursday in March, at 8 o'clock.

DISGRACEFUL AFFAIR. On Monday last a large and happy party of school children belonging to East Weymouth started off for a pleasant sleigh-ride which was no doubt highly enjoyed. But on arriving at Neponset on their way home some evil spirit seemed to take possession of the party and prompted them to do a shameful deed. They entered Mr. Gregg's apothecary shop, and finding him alone took from the premises about $100 worth of pocket-books and other things usually found in such establishments. An officer was immediately dispatched after them and found most of the stolen goods, and the parents have since settled the affair with Mr. Gregg. We think there must be some very scaly sheep in that flock.

The next lecture will be given on Tuesday evening next, by Prof. Wm. Denton of Weymouth; followed on Thursday evening of the same week by Dr. Chas. Jewett of Norwich.

VALENTINES. Southern has some handsome Valentines, both comic and sentimental.

The great transformation allegory of the Pilgrim, or life illustrated, will be at the Town Hall this afternoon and evening. Also on Monday evening—Admission, 25 cents.

MORE SHIPBUILDING. We learn that arrangements have been made, with Deacon Thomas of this town, to build another large ship like the one launched from his yard at Quincy Point last fall. The proposed vessel will be 250 feet long 43 wide, 23 deep and 2046 tons burthen with three decks and all her accommodations on the upper deck, including a large house abaft the foremast for the crew, galley, &c., and a half poop with another house in it for the cabins. She will also have an open foremast, with a capstan on it, extending aft to the windlass, and all the other arrangements of a first class ship. It is expected she will be ready to launch in September.

Deacon Thomas will also build at the same time a ship for a Bremen house, with two decks. She will be 175 feet long 40 wide, 23 deep, and register about 1000 tons, and will be ready to launch in October. These ships are to be built for Mr. Isaac Taylor, who was the purchaser of the large one, built by Mr. Thomas last season. When they are completed and ready for sea the two vessels will be worth over $210,000.

DECEASED. Mr. Lewis Pierce, one of the oldest citizens of Dorchester, died on Monday last, in the house where he was born, at the advanced age of eighty-eight years. He was one of the first members of the Handel and Haydn Society, and for many years was chorister of the First Parish in his native town. Mr. Pierce took an active part in the local affairs of the town, and was sent three times as Representative to the General Court. He was a Webster Whig and was one of those who voted the Webster electoral ticket, after the decease of that distinguished statesman.

The old house in which Mr. Pierce was born is situated on the highlands westerly from Neponset Village, and commands a fine view of Boston Harbor, the valley of the Neponset, and Blue Hills. Part way to the river on the south-easterly slope of the hill is the old Minot house, erected by George Minot who died more than two hundred years ago.

SUDDEN DEATH. Mr. Gideon Thayer of Braintree died very suddenly on Tuesday morning last. He went out to feed his swine, and was found soon after the doorstep in an insensible condition. He was seventy-one years old and a gentleman well known and highly respected in that place. It is thought that he died with the heart disease; although a scar was found on the side of his head, and some think that he slipped down and struck so violently as to cause his death.

For the Patriot. SURPRISE PARTY. On Friday evening of last week, a few of the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. James N. Blake, called at their residence and agreeably surprised the worthy couple. Mrs. B. seemed quite confused at first, but on spying our noble Captain accompanied by our genial town father, her self-possession was soon restored, and she admitted us all without further ceremony, heavy laden as we were with eatables and implements of games of various kinds, which our portly father knew would add greatly to the comfort of the party.

At ten o'clock the tables were spread and they were loaded with dainties of all kinds, which Mrs. F. ate very freely of. Quite a compliment was paid Mrs. B. on her fine specimen of tea. She pleasantly retorted "that when she made tea she generally made tea." &c. Every thing being in readiness, Mr. B. was escorted to the head of the table, when he made a very short but pleasant speech, followed by other able speakers which were procured for the occasion.

INTRUDER. "ON THE ROAD TO RUIN." On Tuesday last four young men from this town started on a sleigh-ride to Brighton and Boston in a cutter of antiquarian style drawn by two rather dilapidated looking horses wearing old nets and labelled "Dexter and his running mate—Time 7.30." The sleigh bore the figures 1776. They excited no little laughter as they drove through the streets.

SOCIABLE. The next entertainment at Robertson's Hall, by the Universalist Society, will take place on Tuesday evening next, commencing at 8 o'clock. A dramatic entertainment is expected.

PERSONAL. Mr. Samuel P. Lord, a venerable and highly respected citizen, who was many years ago one of our County Commissioners, is now living in Dorchester, and is over ninety years of age. He is said to be the oldest man in that place.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH. Children's day. Sermon to the children by the Pastor at 10-12 A. M. Sabbath School at 12. Sabbath School Concert at 7 o'clock P. M. Address by George Beal, Esq. of Cohasset. Subject, Precious stones of the Bible.

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH. Sunday School at 10 A. M. Preaching at 2.30 P. M. by the Rev. H. Bygrave of East Milton. Sunday School Concert at 7 P. M.

FIRST CHURCH. Sunday School at 9.20. Bible Class. Morning Service at 10.50. Vespers at 4.50. Rev. Wm. G. Todd, of Hingham, will officiate. Sermon to young people at Vesper Service.

CHRIST CHURCH. Service to-morrow at 10.30 A. M. Public Service for the children of the Sunday School at 3 P. M. Seats free.

Expenses for 1873.

The following figures give the expenditures, and also the appropriations, for the year ending February 1, 1874, in the town of Quincy:

	Expended.	Appropriated.
Schools, teaching and fuel,	$21,514.12	$24,000.00
Incidental expenses,	3,752.33	4,000.00
New School House,	33,240.18	35,000.00
Enlargement of Willard School House,	5,623.76	6,000.00
Repairs of Highways,	12,702.25	7,000.00
Newport, Vene, (1873),	10,134.09	6,500.00
New Streets,	5,124.16	5,000.00
Alms-house,	1,946.72	2,000.00
Poor out of the Alms-house,	2,068.44	2,000.00
Cometries,	1,710.41	1,000.00
Fire Department,	6,399.23	4,000.00
Repairs on Town Buildings,	1,756.09	1,500.00
Town Officers,	3,644.60	4,000.00
Town House,	692.98	600.00
Miscellaneous Expenses,	2,925.39	3,000.00
Small Pox Hospital	1,000.07
Police Station,	214.32	63.00
Street Lamps,	3,121.37	2,000.00
State Aid,	3,362.00	3,000.00
Public Library,	2,730.49	2,730.49
Bridges,	1,214.22	2,000.00
Militia,	300.00	100.00
Discount and abatement of taxes,	4,135.50	4,000.00

The items of the above accounts, with their corresponding credit, if any, can be found in the Auditors' Report, to be shortly published.

JOSEPH W. ROBERTSON, Auditor.

D. HOWARD BELL, Auditor.

JOHN Q. A. FIELD, Auditor.

ELIZABETH FREDERICK, Auditor.

Quincy Public Library.

The following is a list of the books which have been added to this institution, since our last issue.

Adams, W. T. The Youth Club,	283.5
Classical Literature,	322.36
Charles, Elizabeth. About the Stream,	20.25
Cooper, T. Biographical Dictionary,	921.75
Dawson, J. W. The Story of the Earth,	44.68
Elia, Elizabeth. The Boy with an Idea,	28.24
Flannery, C. The Atmosphere,	141.19
Freitag, G. Leisure Hour Series, Ingraham,	300.19
Hamilton, J. R. Excelsior, or,	142.14-19
Higginson, T. W. Old-port Days,	12.12
Holland, J. G. Arthur Bonaventure,	39.21
Howell, W. D. A Chance Acquaintance,	80.14
Jerrild, Douglas (William). Friends and Strangers,	141.18
Kellogg, F. The Pleasant Cove Series—
John Godeau's Legacy,	283.8
Whispering Pine Series—
Turner of the Tide,	283.7
Lacroix, P. Manners, Customs, and Dress during the Middle Ages,	447.15
Lombard Street. A Description of the Money Market,	444.67
Logan, A. History of Greek and Roman Literature,	124.11
Maggie's Mistake: a School Girl's Story,	24.13
May, Isabella F. Crooked Places: a Story of Edward Gannett (Jewett),	262.25
Monkton, Louis C. Bed-time Stories,	280.18
Pearson, F. C. Sparks among the Ashes, Proctor, K. A. The Moon: her Motion, Aspect, History, and Physical Condition,	142.13
Savage, E. H. Police Records and Records of Boston,	475.25
Smart, C. Driven from the Path,	262.19
Stevens, C. A. Fox-hunting as recorded by an Englishman,	304.20
Wallace, L. The Fair God,	302.23
Wooling, Thos. O.,	300.17

*Not to be taken from the Library.

Vital Statistics in Quincy.

The complete registration for the year 1873, gives the following items.

BIRTHS.
Whole number,	291
Increase over 1872,	21
No. of Males,	112
" Females,	119
" American Parentage,	110
" Foreign,	96
" Mixed,	25
MARRIAGES.
Whole number,	83
Increase over 1872,	11
No. of First Marriages,	138
" Second,	27
" Third,	1
DEATHS.
Whole number,	214
Increase over 1872,	44
Number of males,	119
" females,	95
No. under 10 years of age,	90
Between 10 and 20 years,	16
" 20 and 30 "	14
" 30 and 40 "	18
" 40 and 50 "	16
" 50 and 60 "	19
" 60 and 70 "	12
" 70 and 80 "	17
" 80 and 90 "	9
" 90 and 95 "	3

THE PROTECTION OF LAW. A common fellow in California, who was made a target for revolver practice, has been kept in jail as a witness for two months past, while the gentleman who shot him has been out on bail. Law being the perfection of human wisdom, we are not presumptuous enough to question equity of such a procedure, but the obvious moral is that it is better and more lawful to shoot a Californian than to be shot at by him.

LIQUOR DEALERS' ASSOCIATION. A meeting of a new organization, to be known as the Massachusetts Malt Liquor and Wine Dealers' Association has been held at the Parker House, Boston. The rules of the association forbid any action upon political matters, and the principal features are as follows:—No member shall keep his place open on Sunday; the patronage of minors, drunkards, idle and vicious persons shall not be encouraged; no place of business of a member shall be open after eleven o'clock, P. M., or before five o'clock, A. M.; all gaming with cards, dice or other devices is discounted, and gaming is forbidden. The first violation of the regulation against keeping open on the Sabbath shall be punished by a fine of fifty dollars, expulsion from the society being the penalty for any subsequent violation.

PERSONAL. We have received Giles' Pamphlet of the Sabbath. A very interesting little work written by Alfred E. Giles of Hyde Park. No better notice of it can we give than the following, copied from the Commonwealth:—

"It is an exhaustive treatise showing the origin of the Jewish Sabbath, how Jesus observed it, the origin of the Pagan Sunday, how it became Christianized, and the origin of the Puritan Sabbath—a complete armory of unanswerable facts and arguments in favor of a rational use of Sunday as a day of rest and improvement. Those who wish to know what a mountain of flimsy pretense has been built up to invest Sunday with undue sacredness should read this little work of thirty-six pages." For sale at the Hyde Park Castle Office.

The Brown Case.

FRIEND PATRIOT:—Noticing some manifest errors in the report of the trial of the case of Richard Newcomb, Administrator of estate of Abby M. Newcomb, vs. John F. Brown and William J. Vinal, Executors of the will of Joseph N. Brown, copied from one of your exchanges, and learning that the representations therein have been understood to reflect unfavorably to the reputation and honor of the said Joseph N. Brown, I desire to suggest such corrections and additions to the same as will give a fair and correct understanding of the true questions at issue therein. It was an action of contract and not of tort, as reported.

In this action the plaintiff seeks to recover on two written agreements purporting to have been signed by Joseph N. Brown, and which are duly marked "A" and "B" of which the following are copies.

(COPY "A.") Quincy, January 8, 1862.

Received of Richard Newcomb, a Bank book, $19 dollars and a order in trust for Abby M. Newcomb till she said Abby is one and twenty, for value received, I promise to pay to said Abby, or her guardian.

JOSEPH N. BROWN.

(COPY "B.") Quincy, Dec. 17, 1862.

Held in trust Abby M. Newcomb's share of her brother Thomas' estate which is $152.39, till the said girl is one and twenty, for value received I promise to pay.

JOSEPH N. BROWN.

The plaintiff admitted that he wrote the body of each said paper and that Brown signed the same in his presence, no one else being present.

There was no question as to the receipt of the money by Brown, and that he held the same and accrued interest in January 8, 1862, but it was claimed by the defence that said Brown received and appropriated the same in payment of board and clothes of Abby from 1853, when she came to his house, to Jan. 8, 1862, and in support thereof offered the following receipt purporting to be signed by Richard Newcomb of which the following is a (COPY.) Quincy, Jan. 8, 1862.

Received of Richard Newcomb, a Bank book containing three hundred and nineteen dollars and interest from the deposit of the money for Abby M. Newcomb, which book I have delivered to Joseph N. Brown, for his full pay to date for board and clothes.

RICHARD NEWCOMB.

On being shown the last signature of this last paper, Newcomb testified that he thought it his signature. The first two lines thereof were next shown him and he thought it his writing. On being shown the entire contents thereof Newcomb then said he neither wrote nor signed it.

Messrs. Warren W. Adams Ebenezer Adams and Thompson Baxter were then called and the two latter testified they were familiar with his (Newcomb's) writing, and that in their opinion he both wrote and signed it. First witness could not so positively swear to having seen him write off but yet thought it his writing. George A. Sawyer an expert of large experience in examination of writing, (being Principal of Sawyer's Commercial College in Boston,) was called after an examination of writings admitted by Newcomb to be his own, he said he had no doubt that the writing and signature were both Newcomb's. Newcomb on being recalled said he had no recollection of ever signing it though it resembled his writing. It was shown that this receipt was found after Brown's death among his other papers. The account book found in the desk of Joseph N. Brown after his death with other papers containing an open account with Abby M. Newcomb, commencing in 1853, in a hand writing claimed to be Brown's was offered in evidence, but was rejected to which ruling exceptions were taken. It was not claimed nor was there any attempt at proof that Brown ever adopted Abby M. Newcomb, or ever applied for her adoption, but Newcomb was at that time her guardian and so continued to the time of her death.

The defence simply claimed that the account of Abby for board and clothes from 1853 to Jan. 8, 1862, was closed at date of said receipt. Quite an initiation has been given, (though we think unintentionally,) that Brown wrongfully drew the funds deposited in the Bank.

The best answer to this is perhaps a copy of the order put into the case by the plaintiff, viz:—

Quincy, January 8, 1862.

To the Treasurer of the Quincy Savings Bank:—

Please pay to Joseph N. Brown the whole amount due Abby M. Newcomb, principal and interest, on book No. 1355, and oblige

RICHARD NEWCOMB, Guardian.

The evidence of Mr. Sawyer was further to the effect that in his opinion the signatures of Joseph N. Brown, to the two papers marked "A" and "B," were not written by the same hand as the other proved signatures of Joseph N. Brown, but in his opinion the same hand that wrote the body of the two papers, "A" and "B," also signed both of them. It was also shown by the defence that a period of almost three years elapsed after the maturity of the first said Abby (Brown being then living) without any effort on the part of Newcomb to take out administration papers on her estate, and that a few days after the burial of Brown, and before his will was ever presented for Probate and while the Executors were powerless to act, he demanded of one of the Executors named in the will a settlement of his claims; he then having no legal authority to represent the Estate of Abby.

John F. Brown, one of the Executors named in the will, and a brother of Jos. N. also testified that he was familiar with the writing of Jos. N., and that he did not consider the signatures to papers "A" and "B" those of Jos. N. Brown.

No issue was made as to the receipt by Brown of Abby's share of her brother Thomas' Estate, 1862,—but it was claimed in payment of her board and clothes from 1862 to 1868; also about $132 for expenses, of her last sickness and funeral expenses, and for a marble tablet erected over her place of burial. The same being in the main correctly reported in your issue. A motion for a new trial has been filed, but not yet argued.

Hoping this will leave the matter before the public in its true light and without any injustice either to the living or the dead, I desire to thank you for the space occupied in your columns which I find open to fair and candid statements.

WITNESS.

Summary of News.

Nantucket sold, a few days ago, the last vessel she had in the whaling business. In 1841 she had not less than ninety-two vessels in this fishery.

Incredible as it may seem, says the Express, there are families in New York city existing on less than one dollar a week.

Some bungling workmen smashed eight panes of plate glass while taking them from the boxes the other day in Watertown, in passing a given point—each, and cost $200—or a total of $1,600.

A bridal procession in Milwaukee was four hours in passing a given point—that point was a saloon.

The New York World learns that church music in Boston re-choirs a yearly expenditure of $142,000.

They say that 100,000 sandwiches are eaten annually at the Poughkeepsie station on the Hudson River Railroad.

There is a man in Chicago who has spent $7000 on pet dogs for his wife, and the women in that neighborhood say that he would go to Utah they would follow him in a body.

There is a two-year-old boy in North Adams who smokes tobacco, and the stronger the pipe the better he likes it.

At the end of 1873 there were 71,654 miles of railroad in the country, 4,190 miles having been constructed during the year.

It is said that in some parts of Germany, when a guest arrives at a house on a visit, it is the custom to suspend over his chamber door, after he has retired to rest or early the next morning a wreath of freshly-cut flowers, with words of welcome in the centre.

Notwithstanding the panic in 1873, there were less failures in Massachusetts than in 1872, there being 353 failures in 1872, aggregating $25,374,000, while in 1873 there were but 309 failures in this State, representing liabilities of $21,224,000.

A water tank constructed at Masour in Southern India, covers an area of forty square miles.

Ripe field strawberries were gathered at Crisfield, Md., last week!

A Waterbury, Ct., man owns a tame turtle, a pet clam, an extensive assortment of dried snakes and stuffed woodchucks. He is a common councilman and a delegate to a political convention; and yet he is not happy, for he wants to be a policeman.

A Chippewa half-breed has reflected additional lustre upon Duluth, by skating for twenty-four and a half consecutive hours on one of its rinks, taking but two minutes of each hour for rest and refreshment.

Milford, N. H., "pans out" 6500 cans of milk monthly, for the Boston market and receives in return about $35,000 annually.

St. Louis has 100,000 children, of whom 50,000 never go to school.

A French paper points out how the passion for gambling is shown in this country so that even in wedding notices it is necessary to state that there were "no cards."

There are 93 publications in San Francisco, Cal., daily, weekly and monthly, issued in nine different languages.—Four of them are published every day in the week (Sunday included,) which is one more than in any other city of the United States.

Executor's Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that the subscriber has been duly appointed Executor of the Will of CHARLES E. MILLER, late of Quincy, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bonds as the law directs.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased, are required to exhibit the same, and to file with the Probate Court, at Quincy, the last publication to be two days at least before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE WHITE, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this eleventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

J. H. COBB, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK SS. PROBATE COURT.

To the Heirs-at-Law, Next of Kin, and all other Persons interested in the Estate of MIRIAM MARSH, late of Quincy, in said County, single woman, deceased.

Whereas, A certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by George Cobb, of said Quincy, who prays that letters of administration with the will annexed, may be issued to him, as executor being named in said will.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Dedham, in said County of Norfolk, on the second Wednesday of March next, at nine o'clock before noon, to show cause, if any you have, against the same.

And said Petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this Citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Quincy Patriot, printed at Quincy, the last publication to be two days at least before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE WHITE, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this eleventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

J. H. COBB, Register.

SOCIAL ASSEMBLIES. Prof. Ross B. Walker, the popular dancing master, advertises a series of assemblies, the first to come off on Friday evening of next week, at the town hall. All forward!

APPOINTMENT. J. White Belcher, Esq., of Randolph, clerk of the East Norfolk District Court, has received the appointment of inspector of State Work-house at Bridgewater.

JOSEPH W. LOMBARD, Auctioneer. Office 29 and 30 Dock Square, Boston.

Will be sold at Public Auction, at the House of Mr. LYSANDER S. RICHARDS, on Hancock Street, nearly opposite the residence of Peter Butler, Esq., on MONDAY, March 23, at one o'clock, P. M., a variety of Household

FURNITURE

CONSISTING OF: WOOLEN and Oil Cloth Carpets; 1 Peerless Cooking Stove, Gas Burners and open Grates; Extension Table; Chamber Set; Clock and Glass Ware; Common Chairs; Pictures; Looking-Glasses; Paul; Garden Tools; Wheelbarrow; one Hat Tree; a number of interesting Books—and many other articles, too numerous to mention.

Mr. Richards having made up his mind to dispose of his household furniture, so as to enable him to travel over his native land and see the works of Nature, this offers a rare chance to purchase at a great discount, a well selected and useful household furniture, on MONDAY, March 23, at 1 o'clock, P. M.

Quincy, Feb. 14.

Social Assemblies.

ROSS B. WALKER will give THREE ASSEMBLIES at the TOWN HALL, FRIDAY EVENINGS,

February 20th, 27th, and March 6th. Dancing from 8 to 12.

Parents and Ladies free. Gentlemen, 15 cents.

The Ladies and Gentlemen of Quincy are cordially invited.

Feb. 14.

"Born to no Master, of no Sect are We."

Short communications and items of news earnestly solicited from friends and patrons. Anonymous communications are not published.

SURPRISE PARTY. On Monday evening last, a gay and happy party of about sixty, with baskets and bundles, assembled at the residence of Mrs. Geo. Nightingale, to enjoy a few hours of sociability with that most estimable lady. On entering her house, she was found knitting and quietly entertaining her friend Mrs. Sarah Dunn, who had been let into the secret, and was perfectly unconscious of the raid that was being made on her quiet home. Everything passed off in a very pleasant manner, and Mrs. Nightingale seemed perfectly delighted to see so many of her friends assembled, even if they had come unbidden, and made them welcome, in a graceful and lady-like manner. After a short time spent in social conversation, the contents of baskets and bundles were spread, and soon the party were discussing their merits.

Mrs. Nightingale was made the recipient of a lovely bouquet, by some thoughtful friends, which she appreciated very highly. Over seventy years ago when this lady was a little child, she learned a piece of poetry, which she kindly repeated to the company, in a clear and distinct manner. After a few hours of social enjoyment the company dispersed, leaving their best wishes for her continued good health and the return of many more of these happy occasions.

EXCELLENT. The lectures at the Town Hall this week have been excellent, and large gatherings have been in attendance. The constables were present and kept good order, and with smiling faces helped the ladies and gentlemen to find seats. We have not seen such an interest in the subject of temperance in Quincy for the last twenty years as there has been the present winter. Never was a town blessed with more able, eloquent and popular speakers.

Dr. Charles Jewett, a long and hard worker in the cause, spoke robustly on Thursday evening. Being a practical physician and surgeon, he has had a grand chance to study the effects of intoxicating liquors on the system. He said that they were not only stimulants, but were narcotics, and that was the reason they did so much injury. If a person commences to take narcotics regularly, he has got to constantly increase the dose, to have the same effect; it mattered not whether it was laudanum, paregoric, chloroform, ether, wine, gin, or brandy. That which was sufficient the first day was not enough at the end of a month or year. Thus it is that the many thousands who are drunk and diseased, and who are willing and anxious to stop the habit, but could not. He pitied the poor sot who was brought before the courts and fined for being drunk, and if his loving wife, who had earned a few dollars by taking in washing did not step up and pay the fine and costs, he was sent to jail, while the miserable rum-seller who had taken the last dollar the poor fellow had, which should have gone to buy bread for his half-starved children, is allowed to pursue his wicked business, by occasionally paying a fine and costs.

The next lecture, and the last of the course, will be given on Thursday evening next by Rev. Geo. S. Ball, of Upton.

"Among the Breakers." Next Tuesday evening the great festival of the year, the Universalist Levee, takes place. Everybody and his aunts, cousins, and all other connections living in adjoining towns, think it a duty to be present at this Levee, where so much rational enjoyment is to be had and where friends meet who perhaps will not see each other again until next year. The managers this year offer great attractions, and are desirous of making this occasion one of pleasure and enjoyment, equal, if not superior to those of former years. Two fine dramas have been selected for the early part of the entertainment, and a general good time may be expected. No pains will be spared to make this one of the best of entertainments, and from present indications the twenty-seventh annual Levee of the Universalist Society will be a crowded one. For cast of characters &c., see advertisement in another column.

MARSHALLS PRESS ASSOCIATION. The first winter reunion of the Massachusetts Press Association, was held in Boston, at the American House, on Tuesday last, and a more social and pleasant party of ladies and gentlemen, it would be hard to find. A business meeting was held at two o'clock, and most of the old board of officers were unanimously re-elected and other matters were freely discussed. After the meeting dissolved, the gentlemen joined the ladies in the parlors, and the company proceeded at once to the dining room where a sumptuous dinner was partaken of spiced with wit and humor. Several distinguished persons were guests, among them were Canon Kingsley of London, and that humorous writer, Mark Twain; they made excellent addresses, one eloquent and beautiful, the other given in Mark's own way, full of jolly humor. Invitations had been extended the party to visit either the Boston Theatre, Howard Athenaeum, or to hear Mr. Kingsley lecture, which were generally accepted, and thus ended the first of the winter socials of the Press Association.

For the Patriot.
A Good Candidate.

The name of Isaiah White, has been favorably mentioned by the Republicans as a candidate for one of the Selectmen of this town. This appears to be a step in the right direction as the north part of the town has been without representation the past few years. Mr. White, a resident of that section, possesses that sterling integrity which will enable him to deal justly and fairly by all sections of the town. A native of Quincy, knowing its requirements, a successful and economical business man, he will be a valuable acquisition to the board of Selectmen. At the last Republican caucus he came within a few votes of gaining the nomination and gracefully refused to have his name used at the polls against the regular nominees. He therefore is in the regular line of promotion, aside from his other qualifications, and we trust him, not only handsomely nominated but elected.

Taxes for 1873.

GEORGE H. LOCKE, Collector.	Dr.
To Town tax,	$100,950.00
" State "	7,942.50
" County "	5,405.82
" Non-residents Bank tax,	2,341.38
" Overlaysings,	3,048.60
	$119,688.30
	Cr.
By Town orders for discount on $98,686.37 collected on or before Sept. 15th, 1873,	$9,947.45
By cash paid for abatement, 2,246.10
By Town paid Town Treasurer	113,494.75
	119,688.30

POSTPONED. The performance announced at Lombard's Hall, this afternoon by the Quincy Novelty Theatre Company has been unavoidably postponed. It will take place in a few weeks, when due notice will be given.

REMINISCENCES. Our readers will find a very acceptable article, from an able pen, on the outside of to-day's paper for which the author has our most sincere thanks. If a glance at the old PATRIOT can carry him back to the trials and joys of his school life, of which he gives such an interesting account, we shall be only too glad to keep his memory green, and hope some of the boys whose names he has mentioned, will also be able to furnish some of their experiences and add to the interest of these reminiscences.

CAUCUSES. The Republicans will hold their caucus at the Town Hall, on Monday evening next, and the Democrats hold theirs at the same place on Wednesday evening, as will be seen by notice in another column.

WOLLASTON ITEMS. We learn that on the 27th ult., a Musical Society was formed at Wollaston, composed of persons known as the "Wollaston Choral Union," with the following named gentlemen as officers:—

President.—William W. Bemis.
Vice President.—William C. Seeley.
Secretary.—Albert G. Olney.
Treasurer.—Ezra H. Sanborn.
Librarian.—Israel Waterhouse.
Directors.—Joseph H. Loud, Quincy
A. Faunce and John C. Russell.
Pianist.—Miss Annie Lord.

A literary class has also been formed with L. A. Elliot, Esq., as President.

We learn that the Congregational church is to be organized here in a few days.

AUCTION IN BRAINTREE. E. F. E. Thayer, Esq., will sell this afternoon at auction, at the farm of E. S. Bridges, on Adams street, in Braintree, some prime English and other hay, horse cart and farming tools, wood coal, lumber and numerous other articles, among which are a lot of choice Bartlett pear trees. The sale takes place at 1 o'clock.

When a communication is sent us for publication, we first look to see if it is signed by a responsible party, and if not it goes straight into the waste basket unread. We have no time to spend over an article of which the writer desires to conceal from us its authorship. The rule with all respectable newspapers is to suppress a anonymous contributions, and those who desire to avail themselves of the benefit of the Memorial circulation must at least comply with the requirements of common courtesy, and furnish their names in order to secure attention.—Memorial.

A Kentucky woman, eighty years old, has made a shawl of rabbits' fur, having caught the rabbits, extracted the fur, and spun and woven it with her own hands; and yet this old woman never used tobacco or walked ten miles to church.

CHRIST CHURCH. Service to-morrow at 10.30 A. M. Sunday School at 3 P. M. Service at 4 P. M. Seats free. During the season of Lent, Feb. 18th to April 4th, service will be held on Wednesday at 4 P. M. and on Fridays at 7 P. M.

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH. Sunday School at 10 A. M. Preaching at 2.30 P. M. by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Whitney.

FIRST CHURCH. Sunday School at 9.20. Bible Class, Morning Service at 10.50. Vespers at 4.50. The Pastor will preach Subject of Vesper Sermon, "Having a good time."

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH. Sermon by the Pastor at 10.1-2 A. M. Sabbath School at 12. Promise meeting at 7 o'clock P. M.

For the Patriot.
Wollaston Heights.

A social and literary club has been formed here, composed of some fifty members which meet at private residences every other Thursday evening. This was started by certain enterprising ladies who appreciated the advantages of intellectual diversion, and who wished to afford rational amusement and instruction. Thus far the success has been all that could be desired. Eating, dancing and card playing, are in no way auxiliaries, nor has there been any lack of the social element. The next gathering is at the residence of Mr. G. F. Pinkham, next Thursday evening.

A monthly social circle is also held in the Baptist Chapel, where tea is served and all made welcome in the evening. Some ten or fifteen new dwellings are to be erected here the coming spring, and the next promises to be a prosperous season for Wollaston Heights. * * *

Town Election.

The caucuses are shortly to be held, and we think it highly desirable that they be fully attended, by those persons whose characters evidence a disposition to select for candidates honorable and able men. The caucuses should in every sense of the word be primary meetings. There should be no meeting in club-rooms or citizens' parlors to arrange the caucuses, but at the appointed time every man who has property at stake and the welfare of the town at heart, should appear, then and there; to select men upon whose reputations there are no stains; men who have always enjoyed the respect and confidence of their neighbors and the towns-people in general.

In this day when almost every hour reveals new tokens of corrupt practices, by those holding places of public trust it is imperatively demanded that Quincy assert her old wide-world reputation for independence and love of fair play.

District Court of East Norfolk.

There have been but a few cases before the Court this week. Two of the State Constables were badly injured on Saturday last. Mr. Fernald was thrown from a carriage in Dorchester by his horse starting suddenly, and quite severely bruised, so much so that he was unable to leave the cars. We are pleased to learn that he is slowly recovering and will soon be out again. Mr. Clifford met with a miserable drunken chap at Randolph, and received some hard knocks but he has so far recovered as to be able to be about his arduous duties.

Michael J. McLaughlin of Randolph, found guilty of keeping a liquor nuisance, fined $50 and costs, and sentenced to 3 months in the house of Correction. He appealed.

Catherine Feecey, who was found guilty last week of keeping a liquor nuisance and sentenced, failing to get bonds has been ordered to the House of Correction.

Geo. A. Faunce of Randolph for an assault on State Constable Clifford has been fined $15 and costs. Also, for being drunk fined $3 and costs.

Yesterday morning Edward Murphy of Quincy was fined $5 and costs for being drunk.

BRAINTREE. The ladies of the South Parish Congregational society of Braintree, will hold a levee at the Town House commencing on Monday evening and ending on Wednesday. The proceeds are to be used for printing the Church, a good time is expected.

DON'T NOD TO THE AUCTIONEER.—Professor Jones went to a second hand furniture auction and as he had not attended an auction for several years before he purchased several articles because they were so cheap. Two second hand bedsteads were bought for $1.25, a lot of lard oil lamps for 42 cents, a pair of cast iron andirons, for 28 cents.

When the expressman carried them to the house, Mrs. Jones viewed them for a few moments in silent indignation, then quietly remarked, that she could put them to some good use. Next day she told the wood-man to split up the bedstead and pile it by itself, it was so dry it would be quite handy when she wanted a quick fire. The pile of broken glass and crockery back of the shed also received a considerable large addition that day. She sold the brass trimmings of the lamp to the old junk man for nine cents, and the andirons which proved deficient of part of one leg, for six cents.

Sunday morning after breakfast, Jones took a walk about the back yard, and made several discoveries. He wisely refrained from making any remarks to his wife, but gave his little boy some instructions in politeness, telling him to make a bow to the school master and mistress, and minister when he met them on the street, also, to the selectmen and such kind of folks, but he did not wish him to get in the habit of nodding to the auctioneer.

The largest single window light in Boston is that of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Co., 167 Tremont street, 108x160 inches. Of these there are two. They are of English make, and came over in the steamer Shannon, April 30, 1872, and are valued at $600. The most expensive window lights are those of Shreve, Crump & Low, jewellers, corner Washington streets, and also of A. Hamilton & Co., Summer and Kingston streets. These firms each have three lights 92x122 inches, and with trimming, side window glass, have each expended $3000 in this one item.

For the Patriot.
Superintendent of Schools.

We learn that there will be in the forth coming warrant, an Article to see if the town will create such an office. We have no reflections on the School Committee who now direct the public instruction in our Schools. Like other models they are limited in their capacity for benevolent effort. No one can be master of any occupation which shares only a moiety of his time and thought.

A hasty glance at an educational essay now and then, or a flying visit to one's own Schools, does not qualify for directing the best methods of teaching children. A closer contact with schools and systems abroad is necessary. Three months of correct teaching of any science is worth more to the child than a whole year of unskilled method. How can we engross in law and politics learn practically of such methods. Could we have a Superintendent of our schools who was intelligently and practically familiar with the latest and best systems of teaching, the saving to the town would far exceed the salary paid. Why can't Quincy study its own interests and have such supervision of its schools. No one of the present Committee would probably hesitate to surrender the present fees of office if he could insure a better system of school instruction. If so the expenses to the town would be little if any more. Can't we thus follow close on the example of other large towns and so maintain schools which shall draw here a high order of intelligence and morals. * * *

Town Appropriations.

As there seems to be a discrepancy between the tables of the town appropriations as announced by the Auditors in the last week's PATRIOT, and the one as published in the PATRIOT, March 8th, 1873, by the Town Clerk, as the official proceedings of the annual Town Meeting, we therefore submit the two following tables for the consideration of the town.

Tables as published by the Auditors.	Expended, Appropriated.
Schools, teaching and fuel,	$23,214.12 $24,000.00
Incidental expenses,	3,122.00 4,000.00
New School Houses,	$3,240.18 35,000.00
Enlargement of Willard School,	5,623.76 6,000.00
Repairs of Highways,	12,702.25 7,000.00
Newport Avenue, 1873,	10,138.09 6,500.00
New Streets,	5,124.16 5,500.00
Alms-house,	1,846.72 5,000.00
Foot out of the Alms-house,	1,210.61 1,000.00
Cometries,	6,200.25 4,000.00
Fire Department,	1,756.69 1,000.00
Repairs on Town Buildings,	3,548.60 4,000.00
Town Officers,	792.98 850.00
Town House,	2,628.39 3,000.00
Miscellaneous Expenses,	1,093.07 65.00
Small Post Hospital,	2,121.27 2,000.00
Street Lamps,	3,465.40 2,000.00
State Aid,	2,730.49 2,730.49
Public Library,	1,314.22 2,000.00
Briggs,	200.00 100.00
Discount and abatement of taxes,	6,183.55 4,000.00

Official table of the appropriations of the town of Quincy for the year 1873, as published by the Town Clerk in the PATRIOT, March 8th, 1873. The difference between the two tables is marked by an asterisk (*).

Voted. To raise and assess on the polls and estates of the Town the sum of $100,950, of which sum $24,000 shall be appropriated for support of school and $76,950 for all other expenses of the town during the year, for the following appropriations:—

Incidental Expenses of Schools,	4,000.00
For completion and equipment of New School House at Atlantic and Wollaston Heights,	35,000.00
Support of Poor,	5,000.00
Repairs on Town Buildings,	4,000.00
Town Officers,	850.00
Discount and abatement of taxes,	4,000.00
Interest on Town Debt,	7,066.69
Miscellaneous Expenses,	3,000.00
Briggs,	1,000.00
Cemeteries,	4,000.00
Repairs on Highways and Streets,	7,000.00
Street Lamps,	2,000.00
Fire Department,	4,000.00
Public Library,	2,000.00
Newport Avenue,	6,500.00
Balance appropriation for new Streets, 1873,	1,250.00
Balance William School House,	6,000.00
Decoration of Soldiers' Graves,	$250.00
Town Way from Grove Street,	500.00
" " Central Street,	500.00
" " Warren Street,	500.00
" " Lincoln Street,	500.00
" " Highland Street,	200.00
" " Prospect Street,	300.00
" " Winthrop Street,	300.00
" " Grand View Avenue,	150.00
Payment on Town Debt,	10,000.00
Support of Schools, as above,	$76,950.00
	24,000.00
	$100,950.00

AN APPALLING TRAGEDY. One of the most awful crimes which has ever been committed in Plymouth county occurred their last Sunday night, by which three aged and innocent persons were deprived of their life in a most brutal manner. The victims were two brothers, named Sturtevant, and their housekeeper, Miss Mary Buckley. The object for committing this dreadful deed was robbery. A nephew of the Sturtevants is suspected and he has been arrested, and no doubts are entertained but that he is the guilty party. The Sturtevants were highly respected and well to do farmers.

PENSION CASE. A bill has been introduced into the lower branch of Congress, for the extension of relief to Mr. Ansel Thayer of South Braintree, who had four of his sons enlist and serve with credit during the war. One of them was killed, and the other three died of diseases contracted. The hugeing illness of these sons made heavy drafts on his purse, and now at the advanced age of seventy-one, his case has assumed a form of need. Mr. Thayer has never received one farthing from the government or from any other source, and it is to be hoped that the peculiar merits of the case will be considered and that he will now receive that aid which he so richly deserves.

Persons in pursuit of houses well do to read the advertisement of H. H. Faxon, in our columns to-day.

For the Patriot.
Tax Exemption.

Shall church property be exempt from taxation? This fair to be the next great question before the people. There is a vast amount of church property in the United States,—estimated at about three hundred and fifty millions. Of this amount the Methodists are said to have the largest of any denomination; amounting to nearly seventy millions. We are among those who think the Methodist are doing more good in this country than any other denomination, but we do not think it right or just to compel those who think otherwise to pay additional tax in consequence of so large an amount being exempt.

The Quaker meeting-houses are very plain; and cost but very little compared with other denominations. The Quakers or Friends support their own poor. It is not just to compel them to pay tax for the benefit of those societies who build churches costing two hundred thousand dollars; or more, and to hold large corner lots in cities exempt from taxation, year after year, until their meeting house gets out of repair, or out of fashion, and then sell out for a large sum that makes the society very wealthy, and rebuild in a more convenient location.

The Jews are quite numerous in Boston and vicinity. They hold a considerable amount of real estate and other taxable property. Their church property exempt from taxation is a much smaller amount than many other denominations, and they, like the Quakers support their own poor. Is it right to compel them to pay a tax directly or indirectly, to support a religion they do not believe in, for the benefit of those who wish to have costly churches; so expensive that the poor cannot afford to pay pew rent. We have no right to compel the "comet-aster," or rather the "stay-outer," who believes the highest act of worship is to obey God's moral and physical laws, because they are his laws, and does not go to any church to bear a part of this burden.

We are glad to know the New York Independent, and one or two of the other large religious papers take the same view of this subject, and acknowledge that it would be just to tax church property.—This government should and does protect every one in his or her right to worship God according to the dictates of their conscience. But should compel no man to help support a religion in which he does not believe.

TAXPAYER.

Canton is surpassed by but few towns in the variety of its manufactured products. It makes car wheels, axles, trees, shovels, print coats, rings, copper sheathing and belis, shoe-nivens, stove polish, cardigan jackets, sewing silk twine, and rubber goods.

Summary of News.

Crocker of South Wilbraham, died Jan. 20, from the effects of eating enormously of dried apples.

Mr. George T. Waite of Fitchburg has a raft of 850,000 feet of logs afloat in Connecticut river, owing to the breaking of a boom at Turner's Falls.

A man in Waterville, Maine, is said to have offered to sell his wife and two children for one hundred dollars.

A gentleman in Reading has a cedar fence-post that has been doing duty more than a century. It was first set in 1767, and is sound enough to last another century.

Forty-seven barrels of clothes pins are turned out daily in one manufactory at Hillsborough Bridge, N. H.

Jennie Collins estimates that the scrubbing women of Boston receive from twenty to thirty thousand dollars per week.

Nahant is called the "paradise of taxpayers," assessing the lowest tax in the State, namely, four dollars and twenty cents on a thousand.

United States Senator, John P. Jones of Nevada, is said to be worth seven million dollars in gold.

Some four or five hundred persons, residents of Greenfield, visited Boston, on Wednesday, by invitation of the president of the Lowell road. More than half of the party had never visited the city before, and some of them were ninety years old.

One hundred and twenty-five thousand valentines passed through the New York post office last Saturday.

It is reported that James Gordon Bennett has given fifty thousand dollars to the poor of New York city.

A woman was recently sent to Tewksbury almshouse, from Boston, and it was found that she had $250 sewed in the lining of her dress.

The movement of the Western women to stay dram selling is being emulated in various sections of the Union.

Last Sunday was New Year's Day for the Chinese citizens in the United States. It was celebrated by a procession and banquet in New York.

Hon. Albert Fearing of Hingham, has given one hundred dollars to his High School of that town, for the purchase of chemicals and chemical apparatus.

Palm-leaf hats sell for seven cents each to merchants and dealers, and the leaf costs 18 cents per pound. A Bennington woman has braided, since Nov. 1, 1873, and has just discovered that the leaf costs $1.08 more than the hats come to.

The amount of honey gathered in Apocostock county, Me., the past season, exclusive of the amount required to carry the bees through the winter, is estimated, at upwards of twenty tons—more than any three counties in the State.

A wealthy London firm of four brass-founders has just dissolved partnership. Three of them could not sign their names, and have always put their cross to the firm's documents.

Town Meeting.
NORFOLK, SS. To either of the Constables of the Town of Quincy, in said County.

In the name of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, you are hereby required to notify and warn the Inhabitants of the Town of Quincy, qualified to vote in town affairs, to meet at the Town Hall, in said County, on MONDAY, the second day of March next, at eight o'clock in the forenoon, to act on the following articles:—

- ARTICLE 1. To choose a Moderator.
- ARTICLE 2. To choose Town Officers.
- ARTICLE 3. To act on the Report of the Auditor of Accounts and School Committee.
- ARTICLE 4. To determine the method of repairing the Highways the ensuing year.
- ARTICLE 5. To determine how the Town Land shall be improved the ensuing year.
- ARTICLE 6. To revise the Jury Box.
- ARTICLE 7. To see if the Town will authorize and appoint the Selectmen to be agents and attorneys for the Town, to prosecute, defend, compromise or settle any and all suits or proceedings in which the town may be in any way engaged or interested as a party or otherwise for the ensuing year.
- ARTICLE 8. To see what compensation the Town will allow the Engineers, Members, and Stewards of the Fire Department for their services the past year.
- ARTICLE 9. To hear and act on the Report of the Selectmen on Guide Boards.
- ARTICLE 10. To see if the Town will authorize the School Committee to purchase the lot of land on Coddington Street, lying between said street and Coddington School, if owned, and belonging to the heirs of the late William S. Morton, deceased.
- ARTICLE 11. To see if the Town will authorize the Treasurer, with the approval of the Selectmen, to borrow of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts on the credit of the Town for a term of not less than ten years, such a sum of money as may be needed to meet the demands against said Town not exceeding twenty thousand dollars.
- ARTICLE 12. To see if the Town will authorize the Selectmen to sell by public auction, upon the premises, the lot of land with the School House standing thereon, situated on the corner of Hancock and Aquanum Street, and formerly occupied by the Quincy School, and give a good and sufficient warranty deed to the purchaser thereof, and convey all the right, title and interest which the inhabitants of Quincy have in the same.
- ARTICLE 13. To see if the Town will authorize the Selectmen to pay one-half the expenses of Concrete Sidewalks wherever the abutters will pay the remainder.
- ARTICLE 14. To see if the Town will grant the free use of the Town Hall to Henry H. Faxon for five weeks.
- ARTICLE 15. To see if the Town will build a Reservoir opposite the Willard School House.
- ARTICLE 16. To see if the Town will build a Reservoir near the corner of Pearl and Mount Pleasant Streets.
- ARTICLE 17. To see if the Town will build a Reservoir near the corner of Hancock and Atlantic Streets.
- ARTICLE 18. To see if the Town will authorize the Engineers to purchase 500 feet of Hose for the use of the Fire Department, and appropriate a sum of money for the same.
- ARTICLE 19. To see if the Town will locate the Public Library in the Church building on the corner of Hancock and Canal streets.
- ARTICLE 20. To see if the Town will authorize the Trustees of the Public Library to select some suitable and convenient place for the Library whenever it becomes necessary to remove it from its present location.
- ARTICLE 21. To see if the Town will accept the Report of the Selectmen laying out a Town-way from the foot of Mt. Pleasant to the old Plymouth road.
- ARTICLE 22. To see if the Town will accept the Report of the Selectmen laying out a Town-way from a point on Sea Street to a point on Rock Island.
- ARTICLE 23. To see if the Town will accept the Report of the Selectmen laying out a Town-way from Sea Street to Washington Street.
- ARTICLE 24. To see if the Town will accept the Report of the Selectmen, laying out Town-ways from Cherry Street to the corner of Hancock and Cherry Street.
- ARTICLE 25. To see if the Town will accept the Report of the Selectmen, laying out a Town-way from Pine Street to St. James Street.
- ARTICLE 26. To see if the Town will appropriate the sum of one thousand dollars to widen and repair Franklin Street at Penn's Hill.
- ARTICLE 27. To see what action the Town will take upon the recommendations in regard to the Students from Quincy, on the Report of the Managers of the Adams Academy.
- ARTICLE 28. To raise money to defray the necessary expenses of the Town the ensuing year.
- ARTICLE 29. To hear and act on the Report of any Committee the Town may think proper.

Hereof fail not, but make due return of this warrant, with your doings thereon, unto the Town Clerk, on or before the day and time appointed for said meeting.

Given under our hands at Quincy, this Eighty-eighth day of February, A. D., One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-four.

WILLIAM A. HODGES, Selectman of ENGLISH'S FELLOWS, Quincy.
A True Copy.—Attest,
WASHINGTON M. FRENCH, Constable of Quincy.

NORFOLK, SS. Quincy, Feb. 18, 1874.

Pursuant to the foregoing Warrant, I hereby notify and warn the Inhabitants of the Town of Quincy, qualified as therein expressed, to meet at the time and place, and for the purpose there in named.

WASHINGTON M. FRENCH, Constable of Quincy.

Lost, a Setter Dog, COLOR white and yellow; strap on neck.—Whoever returns the same to HORACE JENKINS, North Quincy, will be suitably rewarded.
Quincy, Feb. 21.

MUSIC. THE undersigned respectfully announces to the citizens of Quincy and vicinity, that he is prepared to give instruction on the VIOLIN, CORNET, TROMBONE, or any Brass Instrument, at his residence on Washington Street. Terms reasonable.
FRANK P. LOUD, Quincy, Feb. 21.

Partnership Notice. A CO-PARTNERSHIP has this day been formed by and between Liba Litchfield and

NUMBER 9.

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1874.

the place for good ink and well known that it is not it.
$ollars upwards.
near South Quincy Depot
P. McGRATH
✓

MSB, June 10.

USE
WARD'S INK
Daniel Ward & Co., Proprietors, Boston.

✓ FOR SALE IN QUINCY, BY
E. B. SOUTHER,
Feb.-17

INSURANCE AGENCY,
ESTABLISHED BY
W. PORTER,
1849.
AT QUINCY.
INSURANCE EFFECTED in Reliable and Safe
STOCK and MUTUAL OFFICES—by
W. PORTER & CO.,
At No. 27 State Street, Boston.

PEERLESS GLOSS, at 15 cents per bottle.

---

At D. B. Stetson's
Washington Street,

✎ A farmer, not accustomed to literary composition or letter-writing, having lost a new hat at a meeting and inquired into its possible mistaking, addressed the following note to its supposed possessor; Mr. A. presents his compliments to Mr. B; I have got a hat which is not his; if he have got a hat which is Now, Boston need not be singled out to find such "ladies" as this sixteen-year-old specimen of pride, poverty and laziness. Every town in this broad Republic reproduces at wholesale this nunny of Boston. Mothers delve and cook, sweep and mend, while the lavender scented delicacies sit, or loll, or lie about the house, even more useless than pet poo.

moon receives 26 times more light than Jupiter and the result is, the latter planet gives out 17 times more light than he should, and furthermore the density of Jupiter is considerably less than our earth, it is not but about a quarter as dense, about in fact the same density as the Sun, and this low density of course deprives it of any solidity, and consequently it exists mainly in the state of pick, bat, sword, etc., in short, all that the court gentlemen of the time were accustomed to wear, and introduced it into the presence of the King. The animal bowed, danced; and followed all orders in the most artistic manner, until getting tired, it became so awkward that the King roared with laughter to the delight of his courtiers.

An English gentleman carefully went to Brigham Young and got a special dispensation, and then he offered to marry all the women who rode in his stages, to take all the men into partnership, and to give gum rings to all the babies. Smith was broken up and had to sell out and abandon the business.—Johnson now has 1426 wives, 1500 partners, and he is indebted to an India rubber man for six bushels of gum rings.—

But he killed Smith, and he is now happy.—Max Adeler.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, FEB. 28, 1874.

"Born to no Master, of no Sect are We."

Short communications and items of news earnestly solicited from friends and patrons. Anonymous communications are not published.

THE SEWING SCHOOL. The celebration of the second anniversary of the Sewing School connected with Christ Church took place on Saturday afternoon last. The exercises consisted of an address by the Rector, reading the year's report, recitation, singing and prayers. Prizes were given for the greatest improvement in sewing, which was all good, much of it, excellent. A collection furnished by those friends whose ready hands respond always to their good hearts, closed the afternoon enjoyment.

The school, consists of from between forty to fifty pupils, and five teachers, and is doing a most excellent work. In the past year it has increased in number from sixteen to forty-eight.

THE LEVEE. The twenty-seventh annual gathering of the Universalist Society was a perfect success, as far as numbers and a pleasant time generally were concerned. The hall was packed with human beings, and during the entertainment it was with difficulty that those who came late could get standing room. The performance, although quite lengthy and tedious to those standing, was much enjoyed and appreciated. The actors performed their parts exceedingly well for amateurs, and were loudly applauded. The President in his opening address cautioned the young ladies about losing their hearts at this gathering, as many had done at the levees in former years; but if any should be captivated they would find Brother Whitney ready to tie the silken cords.

The music was good, the prompter one of the best, and many of those enjoying the mazy dances were sorry when the clock in the steeple struck two, as that was the hour assigned for drawing the festivities to a close.

Good order was maintained throughout the evening, and all returned to their homes well pleased with the occasion, and many wishing that the year might roll swiftly round so that they could go to another.

PERSONAL. Lyander S. Richards, Esq., is about ready to start on his tour of pleasure and observation, and being a lover of the works of nature, his mind will be richly stored with sights, that in years to come, will be not only a source of pleasure, but also a store of useful and entertaining knowledge. May this tour be one of happiness and a safe return to his native town is the wish of all his friends.

His household furniture and many other things will be disposed of on Monday next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at his residence on Hancock street.

CLARK'S MINSTRELS. Our citizens are to be favored with a rich and entertaining concert, by the Clark Minstrels, on Wednesday evening next. This troupe are first-class artists, and each performer is a star in his particular line. They have returned from a very successful tour through Rhode Island and Connecticut, where they were greeted with large and appreciative audiences, and flattering and well-deserved compliments. For particulars see advertisement.

TEMPERANCE. The Town Hall was well filled on Thursday evening last, but the audience were somewhat disappointed in not seeing Rev. Mr. Ball, the speaker announced for the occasion. They were, however, highly entertained by Rev. D. C. Eddy of Boston, a noble looking gentleman, who had a loud clear voice, and for an hour labored hard to impress upon the hearers the evils of intemperance, and to show that the rumrunner did the mischief and should be made to suffer for the crime and misery in the land. And, not only the dealer in the traffic, but the gentleman who let his estate for the accused business.

Henry H. Faxon has decided to give our citizens one more free lecture on this all-important subject, and has secured Rev. A. J. Church, a very able gentleman of Providence, to speak next Thursday evening.

POLITICAL. The Republicans and Democrats have held their caucuses, and made their nominations for town officers, as will be seen by our columns to-day. The nominations were not strictly democratic or republican; and, no doubt, each party selected as they thought the best men. But now it is proposed to have a citizen's caucus this evening, as will be seen by a notice in another column.

Attention is called to a communication in another column, giving a list of the names of the first officers appointed to administer the affairs of the town of Quincy. It is proposed to give at various times, such extracts from the votes of the town, as may be of interest.

Mr. Hodges advertises for sale to-day, his fine residence on Sea Street. It offers a grand chance to anybody wishing a pleasant estate in the centre of the town at a reasonable price.

The Mansfield school committee consists of two women and one man. The latter likes the position, and thinks the Boston committee were foolish to vote out the women. He would not.

Newport Avenue.

To the Publishers of the Patriot.

As Newport Avenue figures quite largely in the Auditors' Report of the present year, as one of the places where the town has spent its income; and as perhaps some of your readers have been led to believe that the building of this street together with the other expenditures of the town at Wollaston Heights have increased their taxes, I propose to show the expenditures and receipts in that part of the town since the Wollaston Land Co. commenced operations.

They purchased the property in Oct. 1869—Taxes for that year less than $500. Since then the expenditures have been as follows, viz:—

1870, " "	$0.00
1871, School expenses, " "	$983.92
1872, " " "	1,549.31
1873, Newport avenue, " "	3,426.74
1873, School expenses, " "	1,369.68
1873, Newport avenue, " "	10,138.09
1873, New streets, " "	1,782.07

A total expenditure of $19,249.81

The taxes assessed at Wollaston Heights for the same time, as follows, viz:—

1870, " "	$767.20
1871, " " "	3,433.20
1872, " " "	5,166.60
1873, " " "	9,413.20

A total income of $18,780.20

So that Wollaston Heights, including the above street, has actually cost the town, $469.61

By the above figures it will be seen that Wollaston Heights has not been a very great burden.

It may be noticed that I have said nothing about the School house which has cost, by the Report, $14,992.55, the reason is, this town owns the building and besides, it has loaned the money to pay for it with, and long before payment will be called for, Wollaston Heights will have paid into the town treasury all it has cost, besides paying all the current expenses of the village.

All the above figures have been taken from the town books and can be relied on as correct.

Wollaston Heights will pay into the town treasury the coming year not less than $11,000, and more probably $12,000, so when an appropriation is asked for from that part of our good old town let no one outside of there, think that his burden of taxes is to be increased.

FRANKLIN.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS. Notwithstanding the violent snow storm on Wednesday evening last, an earnest and wide-awake crowd was present at the Town Hall, to attend to the business of the evening, which was to nominate a full list of town officers for the ensuing year. Asa Wellington, Esq., was chosen Moderator, and Emery E. Fellows, Secretary. The following gentlemen were then nominated as town officers.

Town Clerk.—George L. Gill.

Town Treasurer.—Horace B. Spear.

Selectmen.—William A. Hodges, E. S. Fellows, and Hosea B. Ellis.

School Committee.—Henry Lunt, and W. B. Duggan.

Trustees of Public Library.—H. A. Keith, and Thomas Curtis.

Managers of Adams Academy.—Geo. W. B. Taylor and J. H. Mundy.

Managers of Mount Wollaston Cemetery.—Benj. F. Curtis, and A. B. Packard, for two years; Asa Wellington, and Ensign S. Fellows, for one year.

Constables.—William Parker, Joseph T. French, George H. Hobart, J. W. Lombard, W. M. French, Ralph Lowe, Michael Welsh, J. E. Maxin, Fred H. French, A. M. Litchfield, Charles N. Hunt, J. H. Elocup, P. F. Lacy and John Ring.

REMOVED. Mr. Florence Crowley has removed to a building opposite, known as the Boston store, where he will make or repair boots and shoes, for ladies and gentlemen, in a neat and workmanlike manner. He solicits a trial and guarantees perfect satisfaction. See his advertisement.

ST. NICHOLAS. One of the very best children's magazines is the St. Nicholas, with its pleasing and entertaining stories, puzzles, poetry and pictures. It amuses, instructs and pleases the little ones, and no better magazine can be put in their hands, as they are always sure to get interested in its contents if they only get a peep at its pages.

A bill was passed in the lower branch of Congress a few days since, permitting any person sending books, newspapers or matter of a third class through the mail, to write his name or initials on the outside or inside of the package without additional postage.

A LARE PIECE OF ICE. Mr. Robert E. Bemis of Chicopee has been engaged during the winter in building an iceberg, by pouring spring water into a properly prepared receptacle, and has now a solid piece of ice estimated to contain about five thousand tons. This is properly protected from heat by tan and sawdust and Mr. Bemis can afford to laugh at the charges of the ice men during the coming summer.

A Stratford (N. H.) turkey swallowed a corn-cob which is eight inches long, and would have died had not its mistress wriggled the indigestible thing out of its throat.

"How is it, my dear, that you never kindled a flame in the bosom of a man?" said an old lady to her pretty niece, who was portliness.

"The reason, dear aunt," replied the young lady, "is, as you well know, I am not a good match."

Florida boasts a hundred thousand orange trees.

The Boston Custom House.

Boston, Feb. 20th, 1874.

A genuine surprise was given to the politicians and merchants of Boston and vicinity, last Tuesday, in the nomination of Mr. Wm. A. Simmons of Boston, supervisor of Internal Revenue for New England, for the position of Collector for the port of Boston, vice Hon. Thomas Russell, who was to receive the appointment as minister to Venezuela. Had this appointment come from other than what is known as the Butler wing of the Republican party, it is probable that no organized opposition would have been formed. As however he is Butler's protégé a strong opposition has been organized principally among those opposed to Gen. Butler politically, and many merchants and others who have joined to defeat his confirmation by the United States Senate.

Unless there can be sufficient pressure brought to bear on the Senate previous to the time they meet for confirmation, it is probable that Mr. Simmons will be confirmed, and judging from the testimony of those who are personally acquainted with him, he will make an efficient and faithful Collector.

For the Patriot.

The "Adams School Fund."

QUERY. Did the honored and venerated JOHN ADAMS, by his bequest to the Town in 1822, so well known as the "Adams Temple and School Fund," and for which the Town, by its public votes, expressed so much gratitude at that time, and which sentiment of gratitude as in duty bound, we the descendants have been taught to cherish and continue ever since, really intend to establish a school for the advantage and instruction of Quincy boys, or is the whole bequest and the traditional public idea of it a delusion?

See the very strange and unexpected position in which the town is placed by the Report of the Managers, on pages 93, 94 and 95 of the "Town Report," and Article 27 in the warrant for the annual Town Meeting.

Pro Bono Publico.

Wollaston Heights.

DEAR EDITORS:—

For some time past there has been quite an exciting controversy in our village, in regard to the height of our hill, and which culminated last Saturday evening in an oyster supper at the hotel.

The facts of the case are these: Two gentlemen, whom we will call Messrs. A. and B., seemed more at variance upon this subject than any other. Mr. B. has recently purchased a fine mansion near the summit of the hill; and as he gazes from this elevated position upon the beautiful landscape spread before him; upon the South—our own town of Quincy, nestling among its granite hills; to the West the Blue Hill of Milton; on the North the winding course of the Neponset River, the villages beyond, and the spires of the city in the distance; and before him towards the East, the Harbor dotted here and there with islands, and away in the distance the blue and boundless expanse of the Ocean, he cannot but be impressed with the idea of how much nearer heaven he is, than his friends living in the valley below. Taking a stroll one fine morning down into the valley, he there meets his friend Mr. A.; he immediately begins to expatiate upon the view he has been enjoying from the hill, and ventures the opinion that it must be at least one hundred and forty feet above the railroad. Mr. A. is of the opinion that it is not more than sixty-five. Mr. B. in his quiet way offers to stake upon the height an oyster supper for all the winning party may be pleased to invite. Now Mr. A. according to his own statement is not a betting man, but it is rumored that he once got a suit of clothes under circumstances somewhat similar to these; and it is further a well established fact that he is extravagantly fond of oysters, especially when he has an opportunity to "go for them" at some one else's invitation, and on such occasions the quantity of the bivalves he has been known to carry away with him, would amaze if not alarm any except an intimate acquaintance; and influenced perhaps by these two facts he agrees to the proposition.

It was finally decided to call an hundred feet the dividing line, the decision to be left to Messrs. Whitman & Breck, Civil Engineers, who have charge of the extensive improvements now being made by the Wollaston Land Company. By careful measurement the height was found to be one hundred and eight feet, much to the disappointment of Mr. A., whose confidence in his estimation of heights was such, as to cause him to invite about fifteen gentlemen to the supper in advance of the decision; but there was no retreat, and on Saturday evening last, the company sat down at the Wollaston Hotel, to one of Lord's best suppers.

After an hour spent in discussing the good things of the table, the company adjourned to the sitting room, where Mr. A. had a large number of pictures, and had many admirers. By leaving orders with Mr. Clapp, a copy can be secured at short notice, and we do not know of a more acceptable picture, that the members of this church could have to adorn their sitting rooms with. Send in your orders at once.

A HANDSOME PICTURE. One of the neatest and prettiest pictures that we have seen for some time, is an excellent photographic view of the new Orthodox Church of this town, taken by Mr. Chamberlain, of Weymouth. One of these pictures has been on exhibition at Mr. Elbridge Clapp's store, and had many admirers. By leaving orders with Mr. Clapp, a copy can be secured at short notice, and we do not know of a more acceptable picture, that the members of this church could have to adorn their sitting rooms with. Send in your orders at once.

DISTRICT COURT. Owing to the interest felt in the approaching town meetings in our own and surrounding towns, coming under the jurisdiction of this august body, business has been very quiet.

Elliot M. Whitcomb of Hallowell, for committing an assault on Charles Phillips of Hallowell, was fined $5 and costs.

Samuel H. Gooch of Braintree, arrested for being drunk. His case was continued.

H. C. J.

February 24, 1874.

For the Patriot.

First Officers in Quincy.

Quite a large number of the people of Quincy, particularly at the present time will be interested in the following extract from the town records, giving a list of our first town officers.

The act of incorporation was approved February 23, 1792, by Governor John Hancock, and the warrant calling the meeting was issued, as provided in the act, by Richard Cranch, Esquire, "to choose all such town officers as towns are required to choose."

The names of some of the officers seem strange to our ears, and it will be noticed that titles were at least as plentiful then as now.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

QUINCY.

At the first meeting of the inhabitants of the town of Quincy on the 8th day of March, A. D. 1792, Voted, The Hon. Richard Cranch, Esq'r, Moderator.

Ebenezer Vesey, Clerk.

Peter Boylston Adams, Esq'r, Treasurer.

Ebenezer Miller, Esq'r, Capt. John Hall, Benja Beale, Jun'r, Esq'r, Select Men.

The above Select Men to be Assessors. Joseph Neal Arnold, Constable.

Lieut. Jonathan Baxter, Lieut. Peter Brackett, Fence Viewers.

Lieut. Jon'a. Baxter, Lieut. Peter Brackett, Ebenezer Nightengale, Jonathan Beale, Insign Samuel Bass, Surveyors of Highways.

Thomas Cleverly, Jun'r, Sealer of Leather.

John Nightengale, Lemuel Billings, Haywards.

John Sanders, Peter Adams, 2d, Hogreaves.

William Adams, William Sanders, Tithingmen.

Lieut. Thomas Pratt, Surveyor of Boards, Plank, Siltwork, &c.

John Billings, Surveyor of Hemp.

Ebenezer Adams, Packer of Beef.

Capt. Samuel Brown, Cutter of Fish.

Edward Willard Baxter, Samuel Nightengale, Fire-wards.

Deacon Jon'a. Webb, Bread-weighter.

The original spelling of the names is preserved. The number of votes for the above officers is not stated in the record, but at a meeting held April 2, 1792, for the election of state officers, "His Excellency, John Hancock," received 51 votes, being the whole number cast for that office.

The Republican Caucus.

The Republicans held their caucus on Monday evening last. The evening was pleasant and a large gathering of our citizens was present. James H. Slade, was chosen Chairman, and John P. Bigelow, Secretary. It was voted that the Chairman appoint a committee of seven to retire and bring in a double list of candidates for the various town offices. The committee consisted of Messrs. J. P. Jordan, Henry H. Faxon, William B. Worster, Warren W. Adams, Noah A. Glover, Geo. B. Wendall and Jonas Shackley. They attended to their duties and made a report which was accepted. The meeting instead of marking for the candidates as has been the custom in former years, then proceeded to vote for the different persons, taking one name at a time, which resulted in the choice of the following list of officers:—

Town Clerk.—George L. Gill.

Town Treasurer.—Horace B. Spear.

Selectmen.—John Q. A. Field, Wm. A. Hodges and Isaiah White.

School Committee.—Samuel Kelley and James H. Slade.

Managers of Adams Academy.—Josiah P. Quincy and Henry Barker.

Trustees of Public Library.—Henry Barker and Geo. W. Prescott.

Managers of Mount Wollaston Cemetery.—William B. Worster and Benj. F. Curtis, for two years; George L. Baxter, and Henry F. Barker, for one year.

Constables.—Benjamin Watson, Wm. Parker, Jr., Edward A. Spear, Abel Norton, Chas. N. Dison, William C. Seelye, Geo. B. Pray, Jefferson Morrill, Joseph A. Lapham, Amos M. Litchfield, Alonzo Glines, Washington M. French, Chas. H. Curtis, Fred H. French.

After nominating John Q. Adams, Esq., for Moderator on Monday next, the meeting dissolved.

The business having been performed in one-half the usual time, and the nominations were made generally very unanimately.

A HANDSOME PICTURE. One of the neatest and prettiest pictures that we have seen for some time, is an excellent photographic view of the new Orthodox Church of this town, taken by Mr. Chamberlain, of Weymouth. One of these pictures has been on exhibition at Mr. Elbridge Clapp's store, and had many admirers. By leaving orders with Mr. Clapp, a copy can be secured at short notice, and we do not know of a more acceptable picture, that the members of this church could have to adorn their sitting rooms with. Send in your orders at once.

DISTRICT COURT. Owing to the interest felt in the approaching town meetings in our own and surrounding towns, coming under the jurisdiction of this august body, business has been very quiet.

Elliot M. Whitcomb of Hallowell, for committing an assault on Charles Phillips of Hallowell, was fined $5 and costs.

Samuel H. Gooch of Braintree, arrested for being drunk. His case was continued.

H. C. J.

February 24, 1874.

For the Patriot.

Adams Academy.

The report of the Managers of the Adams Academy, said to be from the pen of Hon. C. F. Adams, deserves the careful consideration of our citizens. Owing to the indefatigable efforts of those interested in its success, this institution has already taken rank as a first class collegiate school, and is attracting pupils from all parts of the country. It has already proved of social advantage in inducing desirable families to take up their residence in Quincy, and by its direct expenditures, has brought an important addition to the business of the town. At the end of only eighteen months of its existence, we find eleven boys from Quincy attending the Academy, and eight more who are about to enter it in the Preparatory School. Of course this is only an indication of the number of pupils our rapidly growing community may be expected to supply, if the school can be maintained at its present standard.

For reasons that are already stated in their report, the Managers find themselves compelled to ask permission to collect a tuition-fee from all who wish to use the school without distinction of residence.

The town is prohibited by law from making an appropriation in aid of the Academy, and for many years the cost of the fund will contribute little or nothing towards the expenses of instruction. It is to be hoped that the time will come when the Academy may be conducted as a free classical school of the highest grade; but it is evident that there are no existing means to accomplish it.

A WELL WISHER.

New Books in the Library.

The following is a list of the books which have been added to this institution, since our last issue.

Buchner, L. Force and Matter, 444.14
Ellis, Grace A. Memoir of Mrs. A. L. Barbauld, 2 vols., 362.39-30
Hare, A. J. C. Memorials of a Quiet Life, 362.87
Living Voices (Poetry Collected), 506.38
Mayo, Isabella F. Gold and Dross, 308.7
Planche, J. B. Pursuivant at Arms, 444.15
Proffitt, J. Woman before the Law, 451.46
Stewart, B. The Conservation of Energy, 444.70
Thorpe, T. E. A Manual of Inorganic Chemistry, 440.19
Wilmot, E. Reminiscences of Thomas Smith, 362.28
Young, J. Physical Geography, 450.49

Summary of News.

Monday night thunder was heard in New Haven, and the fire bell was struck by lightning.

The epizootic has killed several horses in Randolph recently.

The Virginia Legislature proposes to license fair banks.

Money goes a begging. The Boston banks are urging their customers to take it at four per cent. for four months.

Over three hundred Virginia babies have been named after Robert E. Lee, and still the work goes on.

The bridegroom in a recent Hebrew wedding in Hartford entered the marriage table with a suit for $15,000 for breach of marriage promise hanging over him.

More ministers have been furnished from Amherst College than from any other in the United States.

Twenty million dollars were expended in passage money, last year, between this country and Great Britain.

For eleven performances of opera, Boston has paid, during the present season, the sum of over forty-six thousand dollars.

A French colony is to be founded in Missouri, and forty thousand acres of land have been purchased by the colonists, who number about five hundred.

Valuable coal fields are reported as having been discovered in Vera Cruz, Mexico.

Evans, the murderer, sold his body previous to his execution, to the hospital surgeon for fifty dollars.

England spends sixty-four million dollars a year for tobacco.

There are seven hundred and thirty parish churches in London and its suburbs. If they are as good as they are plenty, London ought to be a model city.

Church property is taxed in California, and nobody is unhappy on account of it.

GRAND

Vocal and Instrumental

CONCERT,

AT TOWN HALL, QUINCY,

TUESDAY EVENING,

March 10th, 1874.

On which occasion the following eminent talent will appear:—

Mrs. JENNIE HOWARTH BOWKER, Soprano.

Miss LUCIE M. BLAKE, Contralto.

Mr. ERNEST SZEMELENTI, Tenor.

(First Tenor of "The Harvard Glee Club.")

Mr. FRANCIS L. PRATT, Baritone.

Mr. GEORGE M. TAYLOR, Pianist.

(Organist of Old Cambridge Baptist Church.)

SELECT ORCHESTRA

Of Ten Pieces.

Sale of Tickets at John O. Holden's, to commence on Thursday morning, March 5th, where programmes may be had.

TICKETS, 45 cents. Whole house reserved.

WILLIAM W. PRATT, Manager.

Copartnership Notice.

A COPARTNERSHIP has this day been formed by and between Liza Litchfield and Elwood M. Litchfield both of Quincy, under the firm and style of

L. & E. M. LITCHFIELD, for the business of House Painting and Glazing.

LIZA LITCHFIELD, ELWOOD M. LITCHFIELD, Quincy, Feb. 21, 1874.

CLARK'S MINSTRELS,

IN CONJUNCTION WITH

MARTINI CHRISIK'S

Novelty Troupe,

Having returned from a tour through Rhode Island and Connecticut, will give one of their classic and

Pleasing Entertainments,

AT THE TOWN HALL, QUINCY,

On Wednesday Evening,

March 4th, 1874.

* * * Every performer is a star in his peculiar line.

Tickets for sale at the store of John O. Holden, Quincy, Feb. 28.

WANTED,

A SMART, intelligent GIRL, with good references, to assist in general housework. Apply to—Mrs. G. B. WENDLELL, Quincy Farm, Wollaston.

PAPER HANGINGS.

WE have recently added to our stock a lot of the cheaper kinds of Wall Paper. We have also marked down our old stock, and have now as large and cheap an assortment of Paper as there is in town, to which we respectfully invite the attention of the public.

E. WELLS & JOSEPHS, Cor. Washington and Coddington Sts. Quincy, Feb. 23.

DRESS MAKING,

Railroad.

SOUTH AND STREETS,
N.
y, Dec. 8, 1873,
cy for Boston,
10, 8.37, 9.04, 9.42
30, 50, 5.57, 4.59, 5.14
30, P. M.
0, 8.45, 9.30, 11.00,
45, 3.30, 2.45, 8.35, 0, 6.15, 6.40, 7.30,
P. M.
7.10, 7.48, 8.17, 9.13,
45, 5.58, 5.08, 6.47,
turn 7.00, 8.10, 9.30, 40, 4.05, 5.00, 5.55,
5, P. M.
0, 8.11, 6.58, 7.45,
M., 7.54, 9.35, 5.17,
Return 7.00, 7.39,
2.40, 1.45, 2.40, 3.35,
10, 7.30, 9.30, 11.15,
P. M.
6.00, 6.50, 7.38, 8.06,
1.46, 2.47, 5.10, 6.36,
Return 8.30, 9.30, 11.00,
0, 6.15, 6.40, 7.30,
10, 7.30, 9.30, 11.15,
P. M.
5.55, 8.02, A. M., 1.45
Return 8.10, A. M., 12.40,
P. M.

RAILS.
M. P. M. P. M.
3.32 1.48 6.07
1.37 1.52 6.19
1.40 1.55 6.13
1.43 1.58 6.16
A. M., 12.45 & 5 P. M.
K., Superintendent.

EXPRESS.
1315, 1873, a RAILroad between
Boston,
10.45 A. M., Return
at 2.30 P. M.
Boxes in Quincy, orders may be left at
lico, Hancock Street, p to the starting of
will be run to meet public early in Spring.
to have the import-
ances early as possible;
more time is requir many are aware of — table time, to make able, I trust the public at thereby assist an the public faithfully.

POOLIDGE,
PROPRIETOR.
tf

W STABLE,

N STREET,
CY.
recently disposed of Hancock Horse Stationed for the past erected a new neat, near his residence on now better than ever with friends and customers, and all the action to a Horse Stable. and FINE HORSES furnishes supplied at short notice.
the week, a specialty,
with careful grooms.
ironage aero/ore be that he presents that he to the public will be perfectly,
M. FRENCH.
tf

BOARDING STABLE.
he leased the Hancock placed the same with a Cargoes, is prepared Quincy and the public at short notice, and the day or week, on request the personal omage is respectfully
A. FORD.
tf

STABLE.
MOVED
Parties
at short notice.
respectfully inform of Quincy and visitors than ever
Stable
at Quincy Point, h fast and splendid
ses purposes.
om to the accommoda-
short notice.
APHAM & CO.

STABLE.
MOVED.
respectfully inform his patrons his
Hancock Street,
STRELL'S SHOP,
h Horses and Carriages
ntunity to thank the public opes by furnishing good ontinue to receive their JOHN HALL.
tf

DIARIES !
and 1875.
LAPES, at very LOW
16 cents to $5.50, at ER'S,
ck Street.
Old Farmer Thomas'
1874 — at
Hancock Street.
autiful Russia Calf and and Gents'
BOOKS,
8 Hancock Street.
New York, a large first-class
SCOPES,
d ic Views!
Luckhardt, of Vienna, Exposition, and many Old World,
W P R I C E S .
Line of
BOOKS ! ould do well to look
ere. Also,
PAPER,
AND PRICES !
HER'S
ck Street,
tf

Poetry.
March.
In the snowing and the blowing,
In the cruel sleet,
Little flowers begin their growing
Tad beneath our feet.
Softly taps the Spring, and cheerily—
"Darlings, are you here?"
"Till they answer: "We are nearly, Nearly ready, dear."
"Where is Winter, with his snowing?
Tell us, Spring," they say;
Then she answers: "He is going,
Going on his way,
Poor old Winter does not love you,
But his time is past;
Soon my birds shall sing above you, Set you free at last!"
—M. D. D., in St. Nicholas for March.

Home, Farm and Garden.

HEAVES.
The cause of heaves or broken wind in horses is not yet satisfactorily accounted for. It is said by some veterinarians to be incurable; still we never found a case in our experience that was not either greatly relieved or entirely cured by simple treatment. This was as follows:

To aid the digestive powers by simple tonics, and to feed the most nutritious and least stimulating food in small bulk, avoiding all dry, dusty food. For instance, a horse purchased by the writer for a very small sum, as being incurably diseased with the heaves, was fed three times a day with a pailful of cut timothy hay and oats in the sheaf, soaked in hot water and fed when cold, mixed with three quarts of oats, corn, and rye bran ground together. A handful of salt was given in each feed, and occasionally a few raw potatoes or carrots cut and sprinkled with bran were given in addition. Nothing else was done, no medicine was given, no long hay was fed, and all dust in the feed was carefully guarded against. The result was an immediate change for the better, and no trouble from the disorder at all after a few weeks. The horse was then able to drive rapidly, and might be considered cured. On the other hand, horses have been known to become diseased immediately after feeding upon dusty clover hay, the inhalation of the dry seed-chaff or other dust doubtless causing the trouble.—Amer. Agriculturist.

Influence of Food on Poultry.

The influence of the food of poultry upon the quality and flavor of their flesh and eggs has not been taken into consideration; but it is now well ascertained that great care should be exercised in regard to this matter. In some instances it has been attempted to feed poultry on a large scale in France, on horse flesh, and although they devour this substance very greedily, it has been found to give them a very unpleasant flavor. The best fattening material for chickens is said to be Indian corn-meal and milk; certain large poultry establishments in France use this entirely, to the advantage both of the flesh and of the eggs.

Renovating Quince Trees.

I had in my garden several trees which for a number of years had never borne the value of one peck of fruit quinces, and I had about made up my mind to destroy them, when a neighbor called on me and stated that he had been in a similar condition until he took them in hand. First he trimmed out all dead and useless wood. He then hoed and cleaned away all grass, etc., which tended to retard their growth giving them clean cultivation. He then gave them a thorough manuring with fresh horse manure, and from that time his trees had never failed to produce a good crop. I accordingly adopted his course to the letter, and so long as I continued this course had an abundant supply, and of the finest quality.—Small Fruit Recorder.

Incidents.

"How many deaths last night?" inquired a hospital physician of a nurse.
"Nine," was the answer.
"Why, I ordered medicine for ten."
"Yes, but one wouldn't take it."

A witty lawyer once jokingly asked a boarding-house keeper the following question:—
"Mr. Smith, if a man gives you $100 to keep for him, and dies, what do you do?"
"No, sir," replied Mr. Smith, "I pray for another like him."

An old lady on a train not far from Lafayette, hearing the brakeman sing out "Eubank Cut," sailed to the door and asked:
"Is he cut hurt?"

A gentleman at a dance remarked to his partner, a witty young lady, that the "room was so close he must go out and get some air."
After an absence of half an hour he returned, when she asked him "if he had been to the graveyard as his breath smelt of the beer."

"Your stairs are very dark, Mr. Dodson, do you think I can find the bottom?"
"Nothing easier, my dear madam—All you have to do is to let go the banisters and make a stumble."

Gov. Fenner, absenting himself from church on Fast day was told by Dr. Wayland that he did not obey his own proclamation.
"Yes, I do," he replied, "I tell the people to meet in their usual places of worship. Mine is one of them."

J. W. LOMBARD,
WITH LEOPOLD MORSE & CO.
CLOTHING,
OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS,
29 & 30 Dock Square,
BOSTON.

—My services as ACCUTIONER can be had by calling on me at 29 & 30 Dock Square, Boston, and giving me one day's notice.
J. W. LOMBARD.
N. B. All my friends are invited to call and see me.
Oct. 25. tf

OVERCOATS!

JUST RECEIVED A LARGE STOCK OF OVERCOATS
—IN—
BEAVER CHINCHILLA, KERSEY, FUR BEAVER,
MELTON, and
UNION CLOTH,
FASHIONABLE STYLES, AND EQUAL TO CUSTOM MAKE!
At prices from $8.00 to $30.00.
—ALSO—
A FULL LINE OF REEFING AND CARDIGAN JACKETS.
—AT—
GEORGE SAVILLE'S,
90 Hancock Street, Quincy.
Oct. 25. tf

FURNITURE.

THE subscribers having bought the stock and good will and leased the Store of N. B. FURNALD, and prepared to accommodate all who may give them a call.

FURNITURE, FEATHERS,
Mattresses, Window Shades,
LOOKING GLASSES,
Oil CARPETS, Straw MATTINGS,
Paper Hangings,
CHILDREN'S CARRIAGES,
LAMP, &c.
and many other articles connected with the business,
KEPT CONSTANTLY ON HAND.

ALL ORDERS FOR

Upholstering and Repairing,
PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

For Sale, and Made to Order.

EWELL & JOSEPHS,
Cor. of Washington and Coddington Sts.,
QUINCY.

Sept. 27. tf

JOB PRINTING.

EVERY VARIETY OF PRINTING neatly and promptly, and accurately executed, at the very lowest cash prices, at the Quincy Patriot Office.

JUST RECEIVED,

A New and Choice Stock
OF CROCKERY.

THE subscriber having just received a FRESH
WARE, CROCKERY, and GLASS
WARE, which he is

SELLING CHEAP,
would invite his friends and patrons to call and
examine.
J. N. BLAKE.
Quincy, July 26. tf

Mrs. Linus Belcher's

MEDICINE.

CURE FOR FEMALE WEAKNESS.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his back, and in spots on his body, with an itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it equally as remarkable. I wish you would send me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it
equally as remarkable. I wish you would send
me one dozen more bottles of the FEMALE
CURE by express.

RECEIVED an Indian recipe, from which I prepared some for myself, who
resulted in a cure. Its effects are wonderful in
irregularities, Chlorosis, Whites, Dropsical
Weakness of the Heart and Limbs, Dyspepsia,
Palpitation of the Heart, Depression of Spirits,
which is the worst of this kind. My husband
inherited Salt Rheum from his mother and
LIVER COMPLAINT. For years in warm
weather he was unable to get out of bed, and
suffered from the most excruciating pain in his
back, and in spots on his body, with an
itching, burning, etc. At length physicians pronounced it Salt Rheum—it afflicted the skin and
also ate into the flesh till warm weather came
on, and then we strike inward. Often we
feared that he would sink into a consumptive
grave. His blood was thin and watery, and
often had a cough, and had the palpitation
severe. I gave him a spoonful and in five minutes
the pain and nausea were gone, and he was able to take his food. He took a spoonful
twice a day, and from that hour he began to mend.
For some days he was unable to get out of bed,
and took a tablespoonful. It kept his bowels regular, threw out the humor, gave him an appetite,
and he began to mend. He took a spoonful
seven bottles, the humor was killed. He continued to take your MEDICINE, and a heart-
trouble. Another man has been blessed by it

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, MAR. 7, 1874.

"Born to no Master, of no Sect are We."

Short communications and items of news earnestly solicited from friends and patrons. Anonymous communications are not published.

THE ELECTION. The annual town meeting for the election of officers, and the transaction of other important business was held on Monday last. The day was warm and pleasant and "everybody" went to the polls to vote. There were nearly eleven hundred votes cast, and it is said to be the largest number ever thrown at a town election.

The Clerk and Treasurer received nearly every vote; Wm. A. Hodges for Selectman and Benj. F. Curtis for Manager of the Mount Wollaston Cemetery, each received over one thousand votes. The polls were opened at 8 A. M. and kept open till 3 P. M. There were some twenty or more tickets in the field, and many of those badly marked up. The Moderator, Clerk and two assistants found it a hard job to sort and count the ballot and it was after seven o'clock before the vote was declared. Only a little business was done after that hour before the meeting adjourned for one fortnight.

A report of the doings will be found in to-day's paper, for which we are indebted to our obliging Town Clerk.

CONCERT. There should be a full house at the Town Hall, Tuesday evening next on the occasion of the grand Vocal and Instrumental Concert, notice of which has already appeared in our columns. The programme has been selected with especial reference to the gratification of the popular taste, and cannot fail to please all. Mr. Szemelenyi the Tenor of the evening has won for himself a deserved reputation for his connection with the Harvard Glee Club. An advertisement of the appearance of so fine an Orchestra must in itself be attractive to all lovers of instrumental music, and its performance, alone, of parts assigned it on the programme, will well repay all who attend. The sale of tickets which has already begun, promises a good house, and we can endorse the affair to our readers, and advise all who would secure an evening's entertainment to purchase tickets at the extremely low figure, at which they have been placed.

LAST LECTURE. The sixteenth and last lecture in the course of temperance addresses took place on Thursday evening, to a full audience.

It is remarkable that such interest should have manifested upon a subject that many considered was worn out years ago. Mr. Faxon announced that he contemplated having another course of fifteen or twenty lectures next winter and that they will be held on Wednesday evenings.

The audience were then favored by the recitation of a piece by the daughter of Mr. Wm. R. Brown, entitled the two glasses.

The first speaker of the evening, Rev. A. J. Church of Providence, set forth the deplorable effects and hardships endured by the families and friends of the drunkard, and the poverty and wretchedness always arising from the use of liquors.

The Hon. Edward Carswell was then introduced and kept the audience in perfect good humor with his bursts of wit and eloquence. Such a fund of stories so well put in to illustrate his points gives Mr. Carswell great power to entertain and delight an audience, and although this was the third time he has spoken in the two courses, the audience appeared by their frequent applause to be delighted.

VERY SUCCESSFUL. The Committee, connected with the levee of the Universalist Society, met on Tuesday evening last, to settle all business relating to the Festival. The proceeds of the entertainment amounted to near four hundred dollars, and after paying all bills, there was a net profit of $253, besides the check of $100, sent by Thomas Crane, Esq., of New York City, to aid the Society in improving the grounds about their Church. A vote of thanks was extended at this meeting to Mr. Crane, also at the annual parish meeting held on Thursday last.

BIRD NOTES. Last Monday morning the sweet joyous notes of the blue bird, could be heard in the woods, singing a roundelay of the early summer days, that are soon to come.

IMPROVEMENTS. The march of improvement is taking rapid strides on the premises now owned by Mr. J. Q. A. Wild, formerly the old tannery. The large building has been moved a short distance and is being converted into a fine barn. The tall chimney was thrown over last Saturday evening, and men are busily engaged in clearing the bricks, and we think from appearances that Mr. Wild means business, and this rather neglected looking place is to be beautified and improved.

A STEWED PARTY. A number of friends called unexpectedly on Mr. and Mrs. T. P. G. Hardwick, on Thursday evening last, and some quiet and pleasant games were enjoyed in the first of the evening. At about eleven o'clock the company were invited to the dining room and in ten minutes the whole party was in a stew. But it was a very fine stew, and having stowed away our share we were just able, with considerable help from Mr. F. W. F. wife, to make room for these comments.

TOWN MEETING.

The assembly was called to order at eight o'clock, by the Clerk, and after reading the warrant, John Quincy Adams Esq., was elected Moderator.

The following is a report of the balloting, omitting all scattering votes.

Town Clerk. 1072 Votes.

Town Treasurer. 1068 "

Selectmen.

William A. Hodges, (Elected) 1013

John Q. A. Field, " 597

Ensign S. Fellows, " 532

Charles Marsh, " 363

Hosea B. Ellis, " 292

Isaiah White, " 163

Assessors.

William A. Hodges, (Elected) 552

Ensign S. Fellows, " 407

William Parker, " 374

George L. Barker, " 369

E. S. Chapin, " 367

Israel Waterhouse, " 366

Jonas Shackley, " 363

John Q. A. Field, " 265

Hosea B. Ellis, " 200

Charles Marsh, " 90

Isaiah White, " 61

School Committee for Three Years.

James H. Slade, (Elected) 557

William B. Duggan, " 396

Henry Lunt, " 326

Helen F. Quincy, " 267

James H. Mundy, " 267

Samuel Kelley, " 163

Managers of Adams Academy for 3 yrs.

Henry Barker, (Elected) 758

Joseph P. Quincy, " 610

Geo. W. B. Taylor, " 445

James H. Mundy, " 241

Trustees of Public Library for 3 years.

Harrison A. Keith, (Elected) 959

Henry Barker, " 569

Thomas Curtis, " 410

George W. Prescott, " 103

Managers of Mt. Wollaston Cemetery, for two years.

Benjamin F. Curtis, (Elected) 1022

George L. Barker, " 524

A. B. Packard, " 487

William B. Worster, " 80

For One Year.

Asa Wellington, (Elected) 744

Henry F. Barker, " 596

Ensign S. Fellows, " 495

John Chamberlin, " 175

George L. Barker, " 82

Constables.

William Parker, (Elected) 1019

Washington M. French, " 978

William C. Seelye, " 944

Amos M. Litchfield, " 830

M. W. Gerry, " 677

Fred. H. French, " 666

Edward A. Spear, " 591

George B. Pratt, " 561

Jefferson Morrill, " 541

James H. Elcock, " 514

P. F. Lacy, " 508

Alonso Glines, " 503

Charles N. Ditson, " 501

Joseph T. French, " 498

Joseph A. Lapham, " 489

Charles H. Curtis, " 457

Samuel Ames, " 416

Michael Welsh, " 408

John Rowe, " 400

Alfred Lowe, " 382

James E. Maxim, " 295

Benjamin Watson, " 227

George H. Hobart, " 223

Charles N. Hunt, " 188

Abel Nutting, " 110

William Williams, " 92

The Town Officers elected by nomination were as follows:

Overseers of the Poor.

William A. Hodges, John Q. A. Field, Ensign S. Fellows.

Finance Viewers.

Charles S. French, George Veazie, 2d, Ebenezer Adams.

Pound Keeper.

William A. Hodges.

Field Drivers.

John Q. McDonald, Geo. W. Thayer, Joseph A. Bass, Richard Stanton, George W. Griffin, Thomas H. Hayes, Herbert Doble, John Q. Bent, Paul W. Newcomb, William Brown, Joshua H. Nutting, George Cahill, Edward Trask, Wm. Faxon.

Auditors.

Charles Marsh, Seth Dewing, Jr., Edmund B. Taylor, Benjamin F. Curtis, William B. Worster.

The election of Surveyors of Highways was postponed until the adjourned meeting, and the Trust Officers—one from each School District—to be appointed by the School Committee.

Voted. To accept the Reports of the Auditors and School Committee.

Voted. That the thanks of the Town be tendered to H. Farnam Smith, Esq., for the faithful and valuable services rendered by him as a member of the School Committee during the past three years, and that the citizens of Quincy take this occasion to express their deep sympathy on account of the grievous illness with which he was stricken, while in the performance of his public duties.

Voted. That the Town Clerk transmit to Mr. Smith a copy of the foregoing vote.

Voted. That the Town Land be improved under the direction of the Selectmen.

Voted. To accept the list of Jurors as made and posted in accordance with the law, by the Selectmen.

[A list of the names will be found in another column.]

By vote, the Selectmen were made agents for the Town in all cases of legal suits, &c.

Voted. To pay the Members and Engineers of the Fire Department Ten Dollars each, and the Stewards of the Companies Fifty Dollars each, for their services the past year.

Voted. To accept the Report of the Selectmen on Guide Boards.

By vote, the School Committee were authorized to purchase a lot of land adjoining the Coddington School House lot.

Voted. That a Committee of Eight be chosen, to whom shall be referred Articles 4, 11, 12, 13, 15, 16, 17, 18, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26 and 28 of the Warrant, with instructions to revise the estimates for the coming year; to ascertain and report upon the amount and nature of the town debt, and what means can be devised for the prompt reduction of the same; to consider what measures, if any, are practicable to confine the expenditures within the appropriations; and to recommend such other measures respecting the financial condition of the town, and the management of its affairs, as may seem to them expedient; and to report their conclusions in the form of drafts of votes for the consideration of the town at an adjournment of this town meeting.

Voted. That from nominations made at large by the meeting, of two persons from each District; the Moderator select seven names, which, when approved by vote of the meeting, shall constitute the Committee.

Voted. That when this meeting adjourns, it shall be to meet on Monday, the 16th day of March, at 3 o'clock, P. M., in the Town Hall.

Chose, Charles F. Adams, Jr., Chas. Marsh, Thomas Curtis, Seth Dewing, Jr., Lemuel Baxter, Chas. Parker, George F. Pinkham, and Benj. F. Curtis, said Committee.

On motion of Mr. Edwin W. Marsh, the following vote was passed:

Voted. To instruct the same Committee to enquire relative to a proposed road to be laid out by the County Commissioners from Spantum Causeway to Noneset River, and report at the adjourned meeting, what action, if any, it is advisable for the town to take thereon.

PARISH MEETING. At the annual parish meeting of the Universalist Society in this town, held on Thursday evening last, the following named gentlemen were chosen officers for the year ensuing:

Clerk.—Henry Chubbuck.

Treasurer.—Wyman E. Abercrombie.

Parish Committee.—Ebenezer Bent, Chas. H. S. Newcomb, and William Parker.

Collector.—Wm. Parker, 2d.

The Committee made quite a lengthy report of money received and paid the past year, which was accepted by the meeting.

Voted. To increase the salary of their Pastor one hundred dollars for the ensuing year.

Voted. To raise eighteen hundred dollars to meet the expenses of the Society, for the coming year,—eight hundred by taxes on the pews, and the balance by subscription.

Voted. That the thanks of the Society, be published in the Quincy Patriot, and also sent to Thomas Crane, Esq., for his generous gift.

Voted. That the Parish Committee have the thanks of the Society, for their services the past year.

Voted. To adjourn to Fast Day, (April 2d), at 2 o'clock, at which time, the pews in the Church belonging to the Society, will be let at auction.

District Court of East Norfolk.

MONDAY.

George A. Allen, alias George Briscoe of Boston, was arrested at New Bedford, by constable F. H. French, for the larceny of clothing and money from the Adams Academy boarding house, in this town, where he was employed. Although dressed in one of the student's suits he denied the theft at first but finally confessed. He was found guilty and sent to the House of Correction for six months.

WEDNESDAY.

Jane Dugan, was arraigned for committing an assault on Eliza Donahue of Quincy. Found guilty and fined $3 and costs.

THURSDAY.

Swan Miller and Charles Anderson of Quincy, charged with the larceny of a quantity of chains, powder and fuzes, the property of Charles and Francis Wilson. They pleaded not guilty, but from the evidence given it was thought best to hold them for trial in the sum of $700 for their appearance at the next term of Court, to be held in April, and in default they were committed.

FRIDAY.

William Burrill of Weymouth, was before the court charged with being drunk. Found not guilty and discharged.

Clarence M. Estes and Robert Rowland of South Weymouth, complained of breaking and disturbing the peace. They were found not guilty and discharged.

Clarence M. Estes and Robert Rowland of Weymouth, pleaded guilty to breaking a street lamp in South Weymouth the property of Leonard B. Tirrell. For this offence they were sentenced to the De House jail for thirty days.

FUN! FUN! FUN! If you want to enjoy two or three hours of fun in all its branches, you would be well repaid by visiting the exhibition, to be given at the Quincy Novelty Theatre, (Lombard's Hall) this afternoon and evening by a talented company of artists in white and black faces. Commencing at 2 30 and 7 30.

CHRIST CHURCH. Service to-morrow at 10 30 A. M. Sunday School at 3 P. M. Service at 4 P. M. Seats free.

Braintree.

TOWN MEETING. The result of the Town Meeting is as follows:

Town Clerk.—George D. Willis.

Selectmen, Assessors and Overseers of the Poor.—Joseph R. Frasier, S. W. Hollis and Abijah Allen.

Constables.—Horace Faxon, Thomas Penniman, Samuel L. Dyer, Edwin L. Curtis, J. F. Bates, John Cavanagh, William F. Locke, P. B. Anglin, J. M. Cutting, Benj. Bowditch, B. J. Loring, Jr. and Albert Hobart.

Surveyors of Highways.—Samuel S. French, Thomas Hill, and E. R. Waterman.

School Committee.—Alverdo Mason and F. B. Sleeper.

School Fund Committee.—Horace Abercrombie, Joseph Dyer, Jr., John B. Arnold, George W. White, R. Porter, C. F. Crane and George H. Arnold.

APPROPRIATIONS.

Schooling $7,500. Repair of Highways, $5,000. Interest or debt $2,500. Payment of debt $2,500. Town officers $1,500. Miscellaneous, $1,000. Completion of streets $600. Town Lands $500. Fire department $8,000. Poor $2,700. Support of Library $350. Janitor of Public Buildings, $500. G. A. R. $150. Bridges $600. Soldiers' Monument $2,500. Amounting in all to $35,900.

For the Patriot.

East Milton.

A social gathering was held at Washington Hall, on Wednesday evening, March 4th, in connection with the society of the Congregational Church, under the pastoral care of the Rev. Hilary Bygrave. The ladies were the prime movers in the affair, and great praise is due to them for their labor and generosity, their efforts eminently successful in giving pleasure to such a large gathering, comprised of "old folks," youths, and maidens and little children. A bountiful supper was provided, to which all present did justice, after which the company enjoyed various amusements, finishing up with a dance. The entertainment was quite a success financially, as well as socially, and we earnestly hope that this pretty suburban village will long retain its present genial life and spirit. We shall watch their efforts to make the Church independent and unsectarian. Their pastor is a man of broad sympathies openly exchanges pulpits with ministers of all denominations.

ACCIDENT. Mrs. Margaret Daly who resides on Walnut street, while coming down the hill on Union street last Saturday afternoon accidentally fell and broke one of her legs quite badly.

JURORS. The following list of names were submitted by the Selectmen and accepted by the town, at the annual meeting on Monday last, to serve as jurors for the ensuing year:—

H. A. C. Adams, C. C. Johnson, Hiram P. Abbott, John Jacobs, Abram M. Alpaugh, David Joy, Daniel H. Bills, Frederick L. Jones, James Bigelow, Wm. H. Kimball, Jas. M. Beckford, Chas. H. Kimball, Chas. O. Brackett, P. P. Kirtledge, Jos. G. Brackett, Thomas Lincoln, Henry F. Barker, Henry Littlefield, Geo. W. Billings, John S. L. Lucas, John S. Cleverly, Francis A. Massey, John Crane, Geo. L. Miller, William A. Hodges, J. Q. McDonnell, Michael Cole, Noah Cummings, Isaac H. Meserey, Geo. W. Morton, Alfred Nye, Chas. W. Carter, Benj. Newcomb, Charles N. Ditson, J. Nightingale, James Nightingale, Thos. H. Plummer, Eliaz A. Perkins, John S. Perkins, Jonathan S. Payne, William Parker 2d, William L. Pierce, Edmund Pope, Eliab Ramsdell, Joseph W. Russell, Alvin H. Ryce, Ezra C. Scott, Levi Stearns, John L. Souther, Edmund A. Spear, Joseph B. Stetson, William Toman, Henry Toman, James G. Graham, Edmund B. Taylor, Peter B. Turner, Albert Thayer, Geo. Veazie 2d, John P. Veazie, Warren J. Vinal, T. P. G. Hardwick, Chas. E. Whiton, Henry Hardwick, Chas. A. Whitney, Fred. Hardwick, Francis Wilson, Horace Johnson, Hiram G. Whiting.

New Books in the Library.

The following is a list of the books which have been added to this institution, since our last issue.

Chamberlain, C. Jr. Pat to the Test, 301.19

Estlin, J. Life of C. Dickens, 3d vol., 964.11

Hussey, E. G. National Catalogue Archæology, 447.25

Jenkins, Mrs. C. Jupiter's Daughter, 400.27

Loring, G. E. Lascoux, 450.21

Morley, R. M. School days at Mt. Pleasant, 451.46

Muller, T. M. On a Mission, 451.46

Puck Novels. The Bell, tr. fr. French, 300.28

" The Coming Race, 300.29

" Powder and Gold, 300.30

Record of Mr. Alcott's School, 450.30

Ship Aboy, 287.81

Theological Germana, 450.22

Travels in Central Asia, 194.10

Troiloire, A. Phœnix Redux, 287.82

Warren, Susan. Willow Brook, 283.18

The American Builder may be found in the leading Novels.

JURORS. Messrs. Hosea B. Ellis and Abraham Alpaugh have been drawn to serve as Grand Jurors, and George W. Billings, Charles S. French, and James M. Glover, as Petit Jurors, for the U. S. District Court at Boston.

For the Patriot.

Human Nature.

DEAR EDITORS:—

I wish through the Patriot, to make an explanation in regard to an attack made on me at the Citizens' Caucus. My name being before the meeting at the time, and feeling rather sensitive about appearing before the public as an office-seeker I, preferred to take no notice of the charge until after the officers were disposed of. At the time I had the honor of being one of the Assessors, I was assessed for one hundred acres of poor pasture and swamp land; now, if the amount of tax be divided by the number of acres that I was assessed, no allowance be made for the difference in the value of the land, it would appear as though the land near my house was taxed low; when, in fact, it was taxed as high if not higher than my neighbors.

The gentleman who made the attack on me in the course of his remarks, said that his ideas of Human Nature were pretty low. Now, I think a man who will strive to create a false impression to gratify a personal enemy, not only his ideas but the whole man is very low.

With this explanation I will drop the subject.

EDMUND B. TAYLOR.

The Webster Vote.

SO. ABINGTON, FEB. 28, 1874.

Editor Quincy Patriot.

I noticed in issue of the 14th inst., a notice of the death of Mr. Lewis Pierce of Dorchester in which you stated that Mr. Pierce voted the Webster electoral ticket after the death of Mr. Webster.

Now I am not aware that Mr. Webster was a candidate for the Presidency after his death. I am inclined to think that your statement was slightly erroneous, will you please to explain and oblige.

Yours, H. E. BROWN.

For information of our Abington correspondent we would say that Daniel Webster died Oct. 24th, 1852, a few days before the Presidential election. A large number of his friends who did not wish to vote for the regular nominees or candidates, voted what they called a Webster ticket. Our informant feels confident that Mr. Pierce informed him that he voted that ticket.—[Ed.]

Green peas are in the Boston markets.

The line of march for the St. Patrick's day procession at St. Louis is seven miles long.

The funeral expenses of men killed in the House Tunnel, and paid by the contractor, have amounted to $10,000 in five years.

The fortune left by the late Baron Meyer de Rothschild is only fifteen million dollars.

Forty thousand bushels of oysters arrived in Boston one day last week.

GREAT

INDUCEMENTS

.... AT ....

D. B. STETSON'S.

Poetry.

Gems of the Beautiful.

Scatter the germs of the beautiful,
By the wayside let them fall,
That the rose may spring by the cottage gate,
And the vine on the garden wall;
Cover the rough and the rude of earth
With a web of leaves and flowers,
And mark with the opening bud and cup
The march of summer hours.

Scatter the germs of the beautiful
In the holy shrine of home,
Let the pure and the fair, and the graceful
There
In their loveliest lustre come;
Leave not a trace of deformity
In the temple of the heart,
But gather about each hearth the germs
Of Nature and of Art.

Scatter the germs of the beautiful
Wherever thy footsteps stray,
To bless and cheer the weary ones,
Who toil life's rugged way;
Plant seeds of love and kindness,
The harvest sure will come,
And peace and joy and blessings
Shall light thy evening home.

Scatter the germs of the beautiful
In the depths of the human soul;
They shall bud and bloom and blossom
While the endless ages roll;
Plant with the flowers of charity,
The portals to the tomb,
And the fair and pure about thy path
In Paradise shall bloom.

Home, Farm and Garden.

Depth of Covering Seed.

As a general rule, the smaller the seed the lighter should be the covering. We are very apt to cover too deeply. Nature here is safe to follow. She covers lightly. The seed falls from the ripened stalk upon the surface of the ground, to be covered only with leaves or to be washed into the soil by the rains. Onions, parsnips, squashes and Lima beans, such plants especially, as push up the shells of the seed itself, find it difficult to force their way up through much depth of earth, after it is packed down by rains. A quarter, or half an inch at most, is sufficient for these seeds. Care should be taken that no lumps of earth be left over them. We like long rows of beets, carrots, parsnips, etc., and don't believe in wasting half the land in useless paths and walks with short rows running crosswise. Long rows are more easily worked and keep clean than short ones, and the labor for the same number of plants in long rows is less than in short ones. We should study economy both on the farm and in the garden. On the field the too frequent turnings consume much time in ploughing, and to some extent this is so in the garden.—Mass. Ploughman.

Farm Accounts.

Farmers need to do more head work. Every farmer should keep accurate accounts of all his business. Without this how can he form an intelligent opinion of the profit of this or that crop or of one mode or another of farming? Men in every other occupation keep exact accounts and frequently scan every branch of their business, in order to know just when to contract or extend. How can the farmer know whether he makes any profit on any particular kind of stock, if he does not know the product and the cost of keeping, which he might easily do with a little care; yet so few do it that it is almost impossible to get an approximate answer to any questions as to the cost of producing any crop or produce of the farm.

Starting Balking Horses.

A correspondent of the Country Gentleman writes: I have a plan that seldom fails to start the unruly animal in a few minutes, and it persevered in, generally effects a permanent cure, but it is too difficult of application to become generally useful. Have with you a small quantity of whole corn, and when a remedy is needed go gently to the horse's head with a handful, and coax him with caresses while he eats from the hand. Attempt to lead him, holding the corn a little way before him, and when he goes quietly and shows that his temper has subsided, leave him with his mouth full of corn, get in the vehicle and speak to him to go on, using quiet manners just as if nothing was wrong; and if he refuses, apply the same treatment again, and again if necessary, until success attends. Perhaps it may not be clear to the reader what the difficulty is in applying this remedy. It is in the worse than balking disposition of the driver, who would rather succeed once in twenty times by passionately whipping, than nineteen times in twenty by gentleness. Only a gentle man can manage a balking horse, and while there are plenty of gentlemen in society, there are not so many gentlemen in the treatment of animals.

Inednotes.

Conceded Party.—"Aw, I say, must I, take a ticket for a puppy?" "No! You can travel as an ordinary passenger."

"Do you like codfish balls, Mr. Wiggins?" "Mr. Wiggins, hesitatingly, "I really don't know, Miss; I don't recollect ever having attended one."

A young married man was remarking to some ladies that it was always the women who ran after the men, when his wife indignantly said to him:

"You know, my dear, I never ran after you."

"That may be," he replied; "but you took mighty good care not to get out of the way."

DIARIES! DIARIES!

For 1874 and 1875.

A FULL LINE OF DIARIES, at very LOW prices—ranging from 16 cents to $2.50, at

SOUTHERN'S,

88 Hancock Street.

Boston Almanac and Old Farmer Thomas' Almanac, 1874.

SOUTHERN'S, 88 Hancock Street.

Another lot of those beautiful Russia Cal and Turkey Morocco, Ladies' and Gents' POKET BOOKS,

At SOUTHERN'S, 88 Hancock Street.

Just received, direct from New York, a large assortment of first-class

STEREOSCOPES,

and

BLANK BOOKS!

which those who want to do well to look before purchasing elsewhere. Also,

INITIAL PAPER,

AT REDUCED PRICES!

SOUTHERN'S

No. 88 Hancock Street,

Quincy, Jan. 10.

if

KID GLOVES,

Warranted!

NEW PAIRS given for any that fail with little wear. An invoice of

LADIES' KID GLOVES,

just received and for sale VERY LOW—by

E. CLAPP,

Quincy, Sept. 27

Groceries & Provisions.

THE STORE formerly occupied by Thomas H. Hayes, on the corner of Water and Phillips Streets, has been leased by

DANIEL S. SULLIVAN,

who will carry on the GROCERY AND PROVISION BUSINESS.

Quincy, Aug. 30.

if

J. W. LOMBARD,

—WITH—

LEOPOLD MORSE & CO.

CLOTHING,

OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS,

29 & 30 Dock Square,

BOSTON.

—My services as a DRESSMAKER can be had by calling on me at 29 & 30 Dock Square, Boston, and giving me one day's notice.

J. W. LOMBARD.

N. B. All my friends are invited to call and see me.

October 25.

if

OVERCOATS!

JUST RECEIVED

A LARGE STOCK OF

OVERCOATS

—IN—

BEAVER CHINCHILLA, KERSEY,

FUR BEAVER, MELTON, and

UNION CLOTH,

FASHIONABLE STYLES, and EQUAL TO

CUSTOM MAKE!

At prices from $8.00 to $30.00.

—ALSO—

A FULL LINE OF KEEFING AND

CARDIGAN JACKETS.

—AT—

GEORGE SAVILLE'S,

90 Hancock Street, Quincy.

Oct. 25.

if

FURNITURE.

THE subscribers having bought the stock and good will of the late store of N. B. FERNALD, are prepared to accommodate all who may give them a call.

FURNITURE, FEATHERS,

Mattresses, Window Shades,

LOOKING-GLASSES,

OIL CARPETS, Straw MATTINGS,

Paper Hangings,

CHILDREN'S CARRIAGES,

LAMPS, &c.

and many other articles connected with the business,

KEPT CONSTANTLY ON HAND.

ALL ORDERS FOR

Upholstering and Repairing,

PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

PICTURE FRAMES,

For Sale, and Made to Order.

EWELL & JOSEPHS,

Cor. of Washington and Coddington Sts.,

QUINCY.

Sept. 27.

if

MESSINGER BROTHERS'

GENTLEMEN'S

DINING ROOMS,

OPEN NEW,

55 Bromfield St. & 15 Montgomery Place

BOSTON.

Rooms by the Day or Week.

F. W. MESSINGER, E. M. MESSINGER.

Feb. 1—1f

JUST RECEIVED.

A New and Choice Stock

—OF—

CROCKERY.

THE subscriber having just received a FRESH STOCK OF CROCKERY and GLASS

WARE, which he is

SELLING CHEAP,

would invite his friends and patrons to call and examine.

J. N. BLAKE,

Quincy, July 26.

if

PRACTICAL TRAINING FOR BUSINESS.

For 1874 and 1875.

A FULL LINE OF DIARIES, at very LOW prices—ranging from 16 cents to $2.50, at

SOUTHERN'S,

88 Hancock Street.

Boston Almanac and Old Farmer Thomas' Almanac, 1874.

SOUTHERN'S, 88 Hancock Street.

Another lot of those beautiful Russia Cal and Turkey Morocco, Ladies' and Gents' POKET BOOKS,

At SOUTHERN'S, 88 Hancock Street.

Just received, direct from New York, a large assortment of first-class

STEREOSCOPES,

and

BLANK BOOKS!

which those who want to do well to look before purchasing elsewhere. Also,

INITIAL PAPER,

AT REDUCED PRICES!

SOUTHERN'S

No. 88 Hancock Street,

Quincy, Jan. 10.

if

KID GLOVES,

Warranted!

NEW PAIRS given for any that fail with little wear. An invoice of

LADIES' KID GLOVES,

just received and for sale VERY LOW—by

E. CLAPP,

Quincy, Sept. 27

Groceries & Provisions.

THE STORE formerly occupied by Thomas H. Hayes, on the corner of Water and Phillips Streets, has been leased by

DANIEL S. SULLIVAN,

who will carry on the GROCERY AND PROVISION BUSINESS.

Quincy, Aug. 30.

if

J. W. LOMBARD,

—WITH—

LEOPOLD MORSE & CO.

CLOTHING,

OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS,

29 & 30 Dock Square,

BOSTON.

—My services as a DRESSMAKER can be had by calling on me at 29 & 30 Dock Square, Boston, and giving me one day's notice.

J. W. LOMBARD.

N. B. All my friends are invited to call and see me.

October 25.

if

OVERCOATS!

JUST RECEIVED

A LARGE STOCK OF

OVERCOATS

—IN—

BEAVER CHINCHILLA, KERSEY,

FUR BEAVER, MELTON, and

UNION CLOTH,

FASHIONABLE STYLES, and EQUAL TO

CUSTOM MAKE!

At prices from $8.00 to $30.00.

—ALSO—

A FULL LINE OF KEEFING AND

CARDIGAN JACKETS.

—AT—

GEORGE SAVILLE'S,

90 Hancock Street, Quincy.

Oct. 25.

if

FURNITURE.

THE subscribers having bought the stock and good will of the late store of N. B. FERNALD, are prepared to accommodate all who may give them a call.

FURNITURE, FEATHERS,

Mattresses, Window Shades,

CLOTHING

MADE TO ORDER.

NEW STYLES

Fall and Winter Goods!

CLOTHING!

READY-MADE.

HATS and CAPS.

COLLARS and TIES.

Undershirts & Drawers.

GLOVES and STOCKINGS.

Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, &c.

For Sale Cheap,

—AT—

C. A. SPEAR'S,

56 Hancock Street, Quincy.

(Next door to Savings Bank.)

Quincy, Sept. 14.

if

TREANOR & McREA,

(SUCCESSORS TO R. HALL.)

MERCHANT TAILORS,

Corner Granite and Hancock Streets,

QUINCY.

HAVE ON HAND and always receiving from

the best houses,

THE BEST QUALITY and STYLE

OF

CLOTHS and TRIMMINGS,

ADAPTED TO THE TRADE.

All who wish FIRST-CLASS GARMENTS,

will find it to their advantage to call at the above Establishment and examine.

Quincy, Sept. 6.

if

JOHN A. HOLDEN,

Merchant Tailor & Dealer

CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DRESSINGS

and VESTINGS.

Hancock, cor. of School St., Quincy.

HAS on hand and is constantly receiving from the best sources, New and Desirable Goods adapted to the trade. All who wish first class Custom Made Garments, for a fair price, are respectfully invited to call.

N. B. It would be well to remember, that Cheapness and Dearthness are relative attributes; and that the quality of the article we buy, and that, which does not answer well the purpose for which it was intended, is DEAR at any price.

Quincy, March 30

if

READY-MADE

CLOTHING,

NEW FALL STYLES,

Selling at Low Prices,

—BY—

C. F. & J. W. PIERCE,

WOULD respectfully inform the citizens of Quincy and vicinity that they will keep constantly on hand the

MOST APPROVED PATTERNS

—OF—

Cook, Parlor and Office

STOVES.

They are also agents for the

HOME FRIEND;

A FIRST CLASS COOK STOVE, which is excellent in style and finish by any stove manufactured.

It is

QUICK and PERFECT,

in its operation, and is well adapted for use, and is in all respects suited to the requirements of the kitchen.

Any pattern of Stove in the Market,

DELIVERED and SET

As Cheap as they can be Bought

IN BOSTON OR QUINCY.

—Repair Pieces Guaranteed.

Furnaces and Ranges

SET and REPAIRED.

A Large Assortment of Custom Made

TIN WARE,

—AND—

Fire Proof Britannia Tea Pots,

and JAPANESE WARE.

Wire and Hair Sieves; Stove Scrubbing, Shoe and Hand Brushes; Porcelain Kettles, and Sauce Pans; French Sifters; French Boil Pans; Vegetable Boilers; Wire Broilers, &c.

A GOOD ASSORTMENT OF KEROSENE LAMPS, LANTERNS, BURNERS, Chimneys, Shades, Wicks, and Chimney Cleaners.

COPPER PUMPS, Set with Tin-lined Lead Pipe and Fittings.

Also—Cast Iron Sinks, Lead Pipe, Sheet Lead, Zinc

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, MARCH 14, 1874.

"Born to no Master, of no Sect are We."

Short communications and items of news earnestly solicited from friends and patrons. Anonymous communications are not published.

QUINCY LAUNDRY. We are pleased to announce to our readers that this most desirable institution will soon be in operation in this town, and it is expected that there will be great joy in the household, as the many perplexities of washing-day will now vanish. We hope that it will meet with great success, and that our citizens will not let it languish for the want of support.

PARISH MEETING. The annual parish meeting of the First Congregational (Unitarian) Society was held at the Lyceum Room, on Monday evening last, John Quincy Adams, Esq., was chosen Moderator, and the following officers were elected for the year ensuing:—

Clerk.—William F. Whitney.

Treasurer.—Isaac W. Munroe.

Parish Assessors.—Edward H. Dewson, George B. Wendell and Isaac W. Munroe.

Collector.—George H. Locke.

Voted, To raise the sum of $4,700 for parochial purposes for the ensuing year, to be appropriated as follows:—Pastor $3,000; Sexton $250; Organist, $300; and the remainder for incidental expenses.

Voted, To raise $3,000 by tax on pews, and $1,700 by subscription.

MEMORIAL WINDOW. The large window in the front of Christ Church in this town has just been placed in its casing. The designs are very chaste and beautiful and represent the dove with the olive branch, the bible and cross, an angel, flowers, and several more quite handsome pictures. It is a memorial window, and is dedicated to the memory of Eliza Parkman and Mary Shinnick by their granddaughters, and it is said to cost over one thousand dollars.

REAL ESTATE SALES. Shop and land in the rear of Chas. P. Tirrell and Sons' Carriage Manufactory, by Henry H. Faxon to John Hall, for $2,500.

Cottage house and land at Quincy Neck owned by Reuben O. Colson, to Henry H. Faxon for about $1,500.

Double cottage house with one and one-half acres land on way leading from Centre Street, owned by Henry H. Faxon to Joshua H. Nutting and John Pierce, Jr., for $2,000.

Cottage house and one-fourth of an acre of land on Brackett Place owned by Henry H. Faxon, to Wm. Y. Cameron for $1,500.

TOWN MEETING. The adjourned town meeting, will be held on Monday afternoon next, at three o'clock. We learn that two of the assessors, chosen at the recent meeting, have declined, and several of our prominent citizens think that it would be best to reconsider the vote and have but three assessors instead of five.

GRANITE PAVING. We would call the attention of Stone Dealers to an advertisement in our columns, for proposals to furnish Boston with paving.

A LARGE PARTY. On Thursday evening of last week friends and neighbors to the number of over one hundred visited the hospitable mansion of Richard Newcomb, Esq., on Washington street, and had a grand good time. Mr. Newcomb always delights in seeing his friends, and nothing that he or his family can do, is left undone for the comfort and pleasure of his guests. Most of the party were disguised with sheets and pillowcases; but one gentleman, over three score years and ten, dressed in an old dilapidated suit, called a few minutes before the rest, and asked for a lodging, but, without a mask, he was so mystified by his apparel as to completely disguise himself, and Mr. N. took his hat and kindly went and showed him where Sheriff French lived, telling him that Mr. F. would give him a lodging, which friend Richard thought to be a pretty good joke.

FOR SALE. It will be seen by an advertisement in to-day's paper, that the little Church on the corner of Canal and Sea streets, is offered for sale. This Church was built about twenty-five years ago, by the Methodist society, but as they did not meet with a very liberal support, it was sold at auction about fifteen years ago, and was purchased by Mr. Cliff Rodgers, who gave the use of it to the Spiritualists. Since then it has borne the name of Rodgers' Chapel.

TREES. Mr. H. R. Pulsifer, agent for O. K. Gerrish of Portland, Maine, is stopping in this place for a few weeks for the purpose of taking orders for trees, shrubs, vines, &c. Having been agent for many years, and sold thousands of dollars worth of trees and shrubs, giving the most perfect satisfaction, he believes he can give the citizens of Quincy better articles for the same price than agents generally. His plants are all warranted to start and grow, to be true to name, and of the choicest kinds. During the past fall and winter, he has visited many towns in this county, with great success. His sales in some places have amounted to $10,000. Every kind of a tree, plant, or flower, worthy a place in your yard, garden, or flower-bed will be furnished by Mr. Pulsifer, at the most reasonable terms. Orders left at the Patriot Office will receive prompt attention.

For the Patriot.

Musical.

To say that the concert given on Tuesday evening was a financial success, the facts in the case would not warrant; still, notwithstanding numerous other attractions for that evening, the programme which was one of more than ordinary interest, was listened to by an audience which though lacking in numbers, did not fail in its appreciation of the talent displayed.

Judging from the many encores bestowed on Miss Blake, the contralto, that lady has made a favorable impression on the musical people of Quincy. In this connection we should speak of Mr. Szmeczy, whose power as a tenor was well brought out in the duet from "Il Trovatore" which they were called upon to repeat. Mrs. Bowker, the soprano, sang with her usual spirit and in excellent voice. Mr. Pratt, baritone, gained a deserved encore for his spirited rendering of "A Freshening Breeze" to which he responded to the delight of his audience. Perhaps the quartette sang "There's one that I love dearly," and were honored with a hearty encore.

The orchestra was no small addition to the evening's entertainment, and showed they had attained no slight degree of perfection by their execution of selections from Auber, Faust and Strauss.

Much regret has been expressed by many who were unable to attend, and we hope the company will appear again under more favorable circumstances.

Critic.

For the Patriot.

Our Sidewalks.

Few things are more necessary to a town than good sidewalks. They conduce directly to the convenience, health and comfort of the people. No exercise is so good and so promotive of health as walking, and smooth, clean, pleasant sidewalks, are a direct inducement to walking. In this town there are no squares, no parks, or commons. No public place of meeting out-doors of any kind, except upon the streets, and it is especially desirable therefore that the paths should be good. The concrete walks are the best; they seem to give the greatest satisfaction wherever they have been adopted. They have them now at Washington, New York, Brooklyn, Boston, in all the public squares, parks, pleasure grounds, &c., and they are a source of the greatest satisfaction to the people. "Tis a luxury to walk on some of the public squares in New York, recently finished in this way. The people crowd on to them in the evening and show that they enjoy them thoroughly. In the few instances in which the concrete walks have been adopted in this town the people appreciate them, and come from distances to walk there, and meet, and enjoy themselves. How much better it would be if they were extended through the whole town. The first expense might indeed be considerable, but the work is of so permanent a character, that there would be a saving in the end, and especially if the property owners bear half the expense on those portions immediately opposite their premises. This would lighten the town burden very much.

It would then seem to be a wise and good thing, to have our sidewalks done in the very best way, once for all. "Tis something that all can share in,—the rich and the poor, the old and the young; and the benefits are so obvious that none can fail to see them. A CITIZEN.

For the Patriot.

Sidewalks and Highways.

Was the concrete sidewalk Article in the late Warrant inserted by some dealer in that material? It is impossible to guess how the public is to be benefited by little patches of concrete put about in different parts of the town as the caprices of individuals may suggest. If money is to be spent upon sidewalks and highways, there should be some comprehensive plan that looks a little beyond next week.

Hancock street, from the Episcopal Church to the city line at Neponset bridge, is, and always must be, the great thoroughfare of this town. Over this street our business and pleasure travel is passing day and night. It connects the important settlements of Wollaston and Atlantic with our central district, and the entire town with the metropolis. Now it may be safely asserted that there is no thoroughfare leading out of Boston through the centre of a prosperous suburb that is so wretchedly equipped. For the greater part of it there is no gas and no sidewalk; nothing but insufferable dust in summer, and intolerable mud in winter. There should be some sort of sidewalk the entire length of this important street, which is used by everybody who comes into the town or goes out of it; and the roadway should be treated in some more scientific manner than by dumping dirt upon it. If we are to spend money, let us put it where it will benefit our citizens and attract strangers to come among us. It pays to look a little way into the future.

DEATH OF CHARLES SUMNER. This eminent statesman died at Washington on Wednesday last, after a few hours of severe suffering. He was at his seat in the Senate Chamber on Tuesday and entertained a few guests at a dinner party during the evening. His death was very sudden, and the daily papers all speak in the highest terms of his pure and beautiful character. His remains will be brought to Boston for interment and Massachusetts will cherish and honor the remains of her noble senator.

For the Patriot.

The Adams Academy.

More than fifty years ago John Adams made a gift to the town of Quincy, of certain lands, the income of which was to be applied to found a classical school. With complimentary votes the town accepted the land and as a matter of course, the property being its own, it has never received any taxes from it. From the income a school house has been built and a school has been in operation for two or more years. During the past year a "preparatory" school has also been established, for tuition in which $100 per annum is charged to all boys, and which has probably had the use of the building free, while the tuition has gone into somebody's pocket. In contrast to this, the town library has been compelled to pay per annum some $600 for the heating and care of the whole building, for the privilege of occupying one room only. When the town or three years ago passed certain votes in relation to the Academy, one of them provided that boys from Quincy should never be required to pay any tuition. The managers, in their recent report, recommend that this vote be repealed, and have an article in the warrant for the town meeting, intended to be acted on next Monday.

It would seem that the voters of the town should seriously consider a change which will affect the management of the school for many years to come. A fair statement of the matter appears to be this. Mr. Adams evidently intended that the school should be a benefit to the town. The town also thought so, or it certainly would not have accepted the gift so gratefully. Now if the boys of Quincy are to pay tuition, what good does the school do the town? Not the slightest. It might as well have been given to San Francisco. In fact, it would prove a decided injury, because the town, by means of it, will have been deprived of the taxes of fifty years, which it has not collected from the property because it thought that its own boys could be prepared for college at the expense of the fund.

The managers think that unless the Quincy boys pay, the school must be discontinued. The sensible way to look at that matter seems to be this. The money coming in was not enough to pay the expenses. If a business man should undertake an operation which he found he could not carry out for lack of funds, it would be the part of prudence for him to stop and wait till he had more money. Let the town do the same. If the school cannot support itself, shut it up. Wait till the income is enough and then reopen it. The whole property belongs to Quincy, and if we cannot get any good out of it now, let us wait until we can. We have waited fifty years and there is no special hurry now.

Moreover, there is a suggestion which the managers seem to have entirely overlooked. At the commencement of the school they stated that the income from the lands was about $1,000. It is now about $1,200. Before long it will probably be considerably more, at all events enough to pay for the education of such boys of Quincy as wish to attend. There are now eleven boys from Quincy who pay no tuition but somebody gets this sum of $1,200 for teaching them, while boys from other places pay only $100 apiece. In other words, the town, which owns this property, gives the income of it for the benefit of eleven boys, making an average of more per scholar than the others are required to pay. And yet the managers, in their report, indulge in the gratuitous remark that "the parents of the fifty boys from abroad pay not only for their own education, but likewise for the town boys." The town is also accused of "appearing to wish to educate their own boys at the expense of those strangers." And besides, although the town appointed a committee of thirteen of its most intelligent citizens to consider all matters relating to the Academy, and although that committee after long deliberation recommended the passage of the vote referred to, we are coolly said to have passed it "without adequate information of the true state of the facts."

In this condition of affairs it seems, and this suggestion is made in all seriousness, that it would be better for the town to change its vote so that boys from Quincy should receive the exclusive benefit of the fund. That is to say, as the school does not pay enough profit when it receives boys from other places, do as John Adams intended when he made the gift, and the town meant when it accepted it, let the Quincy boys have their education free, and let the boys from abroad be attended to at some future time when the income shall be sufficiently large. Perhaps it might be well to give the property back to the Adams family and let them manage the whole matter. At any rate, let us not have the face of a school owned by the town, in which the town's children are obliged to pay for their tuition.

COMMON SENSE.

PIANO TUNER. We are pleased to inform our readers, that Mr. J. A. Littlefield, piano tuner and repairer, intends visiting this town about the twentieth of the month, and any person desiring his services about that time, will be waited upon by leaving orders at this office. We believe Mr. Littlefield to be a gentleman who thoroughly understands his business, and endeavors to give satisfaction. Bring in your orders.

MARCH MEETING CAKE. The editor of the Hingham Gazette has been feasting on Election cake, and he was favored with such a bountiful supply that he contemplated issuing invitations for a picnic party, but he had such a greedy set in his office that they devoured the cake before his invitations were issued. "Tis sweet to be remembered Brother Eatstreak.

Fraternal.

"Here's my hand, my trusty friend, Come give a hand o' thine."

EDITORS OF THE PATRIOT:

Having carefully watched the temperance movement recently inaugurated at the West, and, friendly as I have been, for more than half a century, to the cause of temperance, may be you will allow me to state my views of all movements which come under this term—sensational.

"Men go mad in crowds," and, in this madness, without due process of law, they compel an unconditional compliance with their individual wishes, right or wrong; the mob carries its measures by assault, as it does in war. The same thing does only by one person, is a crime in law, and punishable with fine, and imprisonment, or both.

The idea and intent of the temperance cause is to convince the highest judgment of the run-seller, that his traffic is wrong. But, to sandy men, without any legal process, by vociferating and psalm singing, until you compel them to shut their saloons, is, indeed, sensational, but it is not the best way to enlighten the moral sense and convince the judgment of wrong doing. The praying, which must excite combative, is not the way to convince the run-seller of sin. Virtue affords no authority for mobs of violence. It did not authorize that Orthodox minister to beat his infant son, in order to force the child to the repetition of the father's notions in respect to his intractability. And for that attempt the unnatural father was, by due process of law, punished as he was deserved. And we have read of the Crusade, a sensational movement carried on a few centuries ago, for compelling the Mohammedans to surrender Jerusalem to the possession of Christians. Do you approve of that? What is the difference in principle? "Convincing man against his own will," and what do you gain by it?

As to Dr. Dio Lewis, I have recognized, in him, a personal friend, ever since he began his professional career in Boston; and I only repeat what his whole life has demonstrated of himself, which I say, that he is a sensationalist. His Gymnastics and Hygienic measures from first to last, have been inflated and pushed by sensational measures. And it was, it seems, the furtherance of these measures that drew him to Ohio; and while there, he was asked what could be done for effectually drying up the run shops, and, true to his instincts, the good doctor showed his "ruling passion," when he replied:—

"Why, my friends! Go at them with fire and sword. Let us have a crusade against the women, mothers, wives and sisters go, vociferating prayers, hymns, and groans in front of those dens of hell! Take your tents and camp in the streets; build fires, and take your food with you, and stick by the shops! Men always knock under, when thus approached."

Thus in its inception, in its elements, and in all its measures, this raid upon the run shops is sensational, and all sensational movements, sooner or later, become reactionary. No sober judgment is convinced, but all measures are carried by assault. And it argues but a poor acquaintance with human nature to imagine, that a man forced, without due process of law, to change his business, will not again resort to it when the power is taken off, and a good opportunity offers.

So, the waters, once let out, the stream from an inexhaustible fountain once under full head-way, and who can tell where it will stop? Dr. Lewis had no sooner set this stream in motion than he found himself a hero, and the green-backs found his pocket to the tune of fifty dollars per day! And, while I have no evidence that he, himself, has a particle of faith in the Christian theory of prayer, it is curious to perceive the effect that this influx of greenbacks has unquestionably had upon his own mind. Hear him:—

"The world has seen nothing like the woman's temperance movement. Religious revivals are often characterized by wild extravagancies. These saloon meetings are marked by all the quiet dignity and deep solemnity of the best family devotions. Everywhere weeping beholders are amazed. Thousands unaccustomed to religious thought, exclaim, 'This is of God.' It is sweeping the country like a magnificent prairie fire. The wholesale liquor dealers of Cincinnati have already suffered immensely. More have been accomplished within ten days than during the previous fifty. The hour has struck. The grand American people will shake off the yoke of intemperance. My heart beats fast. Fifty times a day I thank God I have lived to see the grand uprising of my countrywomen. The women of Ohio send greeting to their New England sisters, and challenge them to the race yet before them. How I long to be with you. In four days I turn my face eastward. May God help us to be wise, patient and determined while we inaugurate the work in New England. Now I am satisfied that Boston can cast off this horrid incubus in less than two months and Worcester in thirty days."

This language has in it the key-note of all sensational advertisements; such as are put forth in the sale of quack nostrums and the old fashioned Methodist revivals; not one of which was ever more "mild" than this one now gloried in by Dr. Lewis. And, as a matter of curiosity, I ask the reader to compare Dr. Lewis' language, above quoted, with the following extract from a medical sensational in the Banner of Light:—

"Behold the Panorama! I am overwhelmed! There is nothing ancient or modern to compare with it—nothing. I am overwhelmed with its vast power, its extensive range, and the countless wonders, which it panoramas before me. For four years the uninterrupted stream has continued to pour in upon me, daily increasing in volume and power. The stream flows onward, a living, moving demonstration of the power of spirits and their mission of mercy to humanity."

But, then, it hardly seems of much use to attempt to reason with the mob. And yet it is this condition of things, in which the mind never listens to sound reason, that we should deprecate all sensational movements, got up in the name of religion or virtue. Do not the run-sellers, as assumed, by the act of God, there is no reason for keeping up these vociferations, these prayers in the street, which God himself has positively forbidden?

Yes, indeed, any one, upon reflection, can see this, and more, he can also perceive the reason in the nature of the human mind, why the highest good of humanity is never permanently preserved by the mob, nor by one or more persons under the supreme control of fanatical ideas.

LAROT SUNDERLAND.

Rustic Lodge, Feb. 27.

For the Patriot.

Charles Sumner.

Charles Sumner is no more. Our last Statesman has passed away. Massachusetts is no longer represented in the National Congress by a scholar, a statesman, a man. She takes her place with sister states in being represented by mediocre men of weak moral natures.

It seems a matter of lasting regret that at this time when the country so sadly needs men of probity and honor that we should lose our senator. There is a great power in the influence that his noble life has given but still much is lost in losing the commanding presence and the ready word for the exigencies of the hour that he always furnished.

May the grandeur of the life—its strength, earnestness, consecration to duty animate and invigorate the youth of the present generation to a course of purity and high ambition that will eventually lift the country from its present degraded moral condition.

C.

The making of maple sugar has been commenced in some of the New Hampshire towns. A sweet time is expected.

Some thieves broke into a church in Boston last week and stole the Bible from the pulpit.

The barbers of Fitchburg have been notified by the State Constables to close their shops on Sundays.

It costs Boston eighty thousand dollars per year to warm her schoolhouses.

Public schools are to be established in Italy, where there is henceforth to be compulsory education, the same as in Germany.

The new ten cent currency is in circulation. It is somewhat larger than the old style, and is liable to be mistaken for fifty cent scrip. Be careful and not keep much on hand!

One young Japanese is learning to make paper in Holyoke, and another to build locomotives in Taunton, with a view to starting business in their own country one of these days.

MOUNT WOLLASTON CEMETERY.

NOTICE.

The Board of Managers of the Mount Wollaston Cemetery, desire to call the attention of the Citizens of Quincy, and all others owning lots in said Cemetery, to the fact that the provisions of the provisions of the Repair Fund, as provided by Act 11, of the Rules and Regulations for the Government of said Cemetery, which they are ready to receive application for the same through their Secretary.

They also wish all owners of lots who desire to have the same either graded, arched, or kept in repair to make application as early as convenient, to the Secretary.

Particular attention is also called to article 9th, which forbids the transfer of any lot to any non-resident or any person, without permission of the Board of Managers being first obtained.

Art. 9. No lots shall be sold except to actual residents of the town. Before making the purchase of lots shall immediately on selecting the same, and before using, improve, or alter, the same, obtain from the Superintendent a certificate certifying the number of the lot selected by him, present the same to the Secretary and pay to him the customary or stipulated price therefor, for which payment he shall receive a receipt; the same to be returned to the Secretary when the deed is delivered. All persons violating this rule shall be regarded as trespassers, and shall be treated as such.

No deed of any lot shall be issued to more than one grantee, nor to any person as trustee, executor, or administrator, except by a vote of the Board of Managers.

No transfer of any lots shall be allowed except by a deed, and no deed shall be issued without such transfer shall have been made, and acquire any title, or right under the same till such vote shall have been obtained.

In the future sales of the lots, the proprietors thereof shall conform to the plan of the same.

A list of the numbers of all lots remaining unsold, may be found, together with the plan of the Cemetery, at the Town Clerk's Office. And all persons wishing to purchase lots, can make application to the Secretary.

A copy of article 11th, relating to the Repair Fund may be seen at the Town Clerk's Office.

By order of Board of Managers.

WILLIAM A. HODGES, Chairman.

GEO. L. GILL, Secretary.

Quincy, March 14. 4 mos.

Notice To Contractors.

Proposals for furnishing the City of Boston with Granite Paving Blocks.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at the Office of the Superintendent of Streets, City Hall, Boston, until THURSDAY, March 20th, 1874, TWELVE o'clock M., for supplying the City of Boston with Granite Paving Blocks during the year 1874. The blocks to be of the following dimensions, viz: Width 3-1/2 to 4-1/2 inches; Length 6 to 8 inches; Depth 7 to 9 inches.

All the edges to be sharp and straight, forming right angles, at the intersections both horizontally and vertically. The faces to be straight split and free from blemishes or depressions.

Proposals to state the price per thousand blocks delivered on such wharves in the city of Boston as may be designated from time to time by the Superintendent of Streets. Also the number of blocks which the proposer will deliver per month, from the first day of May to the first day of November. A separate proposal will be received for blocks delivered when required on streets in Roxbury, Dorchester and West Roxbury.

The blocks to be in every respect satisfactory to the Committee on Paving and the Superintendent of Streets.

A sample of the blocks must accompany the proposal.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish bonds with sureties satisfactory to the Committee on Paving for the faithful performance of the contract.

The right is reserved to reject any or all proposals. Proposals to be indorsed. "Proposals for Paving Blocks" and addressed to the Committee on Paving.

CHAIRMAN COMMITTEE ON PAVING.

Quincy, March 14. 2w

CASH BUYERS

WILL be sure to get your money's worth, by calling on

GEORGE SAVILLE,

90 Hancock Street,

When looking for

Boots, Shoes, or Rubbers,

READY-MADE CLOTHING!

Gents' Furnishing Goods,

HATS AND CAPS,

Trunks, Valises, Umbrellas, and Carpet Bags.

Where you will find a large stock and LOW PRICES.

GEORGE SAVILLE,

90 Hancock Street.

Quincy, March 14.

Furniture Moved.

THE subscribers are prepared to attend all orders for Furniture and Piano Moving.

EWELL & JOSEPHS,

FURNITURE DEALERS,

Corn of Washington and Coddington Sts.

Quincy, March 14.

READY-MADE CLOTHING,

FOR MEN AND BOYS,

SELLING CHEAP.

By GEORGE SAVILLE,

90 Hancock Street.

Quincy, March 14.

LOST,

ON Thursday afternoon, March 12th, in going from the Apothecary Store of Mr. Bradley to the Store of T. E. Farnall, of Hancock street, a Pocket Book containing Seventy-three Dollars in bills. Any one by leaving information of the above with Mr. Gill, at the Savings Bank, or with Mr. John Caples, will be suitably rewarded.

Quincy, March 14.

HAY! HAY!!

JUST received, 45 Tons prime EASTERN HAY, which will be sold in lots to suit.

D. HOWARD BILLS.

Quincy, March 14.

WANTED,

A GIRL to do General Housework. Apply at CLAYTON'S Bank Building.

Quincy, March 14.

WANTED,

By an American Lady, a situation to do the work of a small family; would not object to nursing. Enquire of

Mr. THOMAS P. OWENS,

Granite Street.

Quincy, March 14.

WANTED,

A SITUATION to do Chamber or Parlor Work. Best of reference given. Apply at the Patriot Office.

Quincy, March 7.

FOUND.

A SMALL SUM OF MONEY, which the owner can be proved by proving property and applying at this Office.

Quincy, March 7.

LOST.

A ROLL OF BILLS, containing $33.00, near the corner of Mill and Washington streets. The finder will be suitably rewarded by returning the money to

H. O. SOUTHER.

Quincy, March 7.

NOTICE.

ANY person desiring an EXPERIENCED NURSE, can hear of one by applying at this Office.

Quincy, March 7.

WANTED,

A SUPERINTENDENT of the Almshouse in Quincy. Proposals received to March 21.

WILLIAM A. HODGES, Chairman.

ENGLISH S. FELLOWS, Overseers.

JOHN Q. A. FIELD, Secretary.

Quincy, March 7.

State Aid.

THE Selectmen will meet at their Office in the Town House on the last MONDAY in each Month, from 9 to 12 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of paying State Aid to those Volunteers or their families, who are entitled to it under the provisions of the law of 1867.

WILLIAM A. HODGES, Chairman.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, MARCH 21, 1874.

"Born to no Master, of no Sect are We."

Short communications and items of news earnestly solicited from friends and patrons. Anonymous communications are not published.

RESIGNED. It will be seen with regret, by letters published on our next page, that Mr. Hodges, who was so unanimously elected at the annual meeting as Selectman and Assessor, has declined; also, Mr. Dewson, as one of the Managers of the Adams Academy. We are sorry to read the resignations of such good men; but these things cannot be avoided therefore a warrant will be issued, and another meeting called in a few days, we learn, to fill the vacancies.

FULL REPORT OF THE DOINGS AT THE TOWN MEETING ON MONDAY LAST, will be found in our columns to-day. Most of the business was done quietly and harmoniously, and gave as a whole, general satisfaction. The articles relating to the Public Library; and charging the sons of Quincy who wish to attend the Adams Academy created the most discussion.

We have a new Tax Collector for the coming year. Mr. Locke, who has attended to the duties of this office faithfully and promptly for a number of years, declined to accept of it, for five miles on a dollar, and it was put up at auction, and Mr. Charles N. Baxter was the lowest bidder, and he was accordingly elected.

PARISH MEETING. The annual meeting of the Evangelical Congregational Society was held on Monday evening last, and the following officers were chosen: Clerk, James S. Baxter.

Parish Committee, C. W. Carter, J. O. Jones, R. D. Chase.

Treasurer, Franklin Hardwick.

Collector, Elbridge Clapp.

Messrs. John Hardwick and J. S. Baxter were chosen a Committee to let the pews for the ensuing year.

Any persons desiring to secure seats can do so by applying to either member of the committee.

"ONLY A LITTLE FLOWER." Now that the snow has left us, the little snow drop has made its appearance, a sweet reminder of the pleasant spring weather. We were made the recipient of a bunch of these nice flowers this week, which grew in the open air, in the garden of Mr. James M. Beckford. We think that these must be the first of the season.

WEST QUINCY. The recent social festival that was held at Dobb's Hall, netted the Methodist society the handsome little sum of $321.26 which shows that a very great interest is taken in all matters tending to promote the good of this religious society at this place. Great credit is due the ladies of the committee, as it was owing to their efficient management, that such a large sum was realized.

EAST MILTON. There are three halls now in this place, and a stock company is being formed to build another close to the depot. It is to be two-story and Man-of-war road; stores on first floor, large hall adjoining, on the second floor, and a hall for Masonic lodge on the third floor. Enough stock has been taken to secure the success of the enterprise. Several lots have been sold this month, on which buildings are to be erected the coming season.

Miss Richmond respectfully gives notice that her juvenile class in Gymnastics and Dancing will commence next Saturday March 28th, at 2 1/2 o'clock at Lombard's Hall. Particular attention will be given to the deportment, while the art itself will be carried to the highest state of perfection which the capacity of her pupils will admit. For particulars please enquire of Miss Richmond at the Hall.

It is proposed and urged by many to substitute oil in place of gas, in the centre and South Districts. One advantage is that they can burn all night, and at less cost than gas.

BUYERS, ATTENTION. Don't fail to read the advertisement of real estate sold on Quincy Avenue, for such an excellent chance to secure a fine property in a central locality may not occur very soon again.

NEW CLOCK. A fine clock has recently been placed in the tower of the Baptist Church, Randolph. It is from the manufactory of E. Howard & Co., of Boston, and cost, with its connections over $600, and is one of the best they have ever made. The length of its bed is 5 feet, and the width 2 feet. The whole height of the clock work is 5 feet. Length of pendulum 8 feet. Weight of pendulum ball, 80 lbs. Weight of the clock movement, 1000 lbs., and of the main wheel 75 lbs. Diameter of main wheel, 16 inches. Weight of hammer, 40 lbs. Number of dials four, each of which is six feet in diameter.

In the arrangement for winding there is a pinion attached to the key whereby a much greater purchase is obtained, the key turning around three times to the barrel once. In the place of a rope on a barrel, a wrought iron chain is used, as made expressly for the purpose, the strength of which is tested to a strain of 2000 lbs. The chain which is attached to the striking weight of 1203 lbs., extends down through the tower to the bottom, a distance of nearly fifty feet. It requires twenty minutes to wind up this weight.

Annual March Meeting.

[Adjourned from March 24 to March 16.]

John Quincy Adams, Esq., Moderator.

Before proceeding with the business of the meeting, according to the Warrant, Mr. Charles A. Foster presented the following Resolves prepared by Hon. Charles Francis Adams, on the written invitation of quite a number of citizens, and which Mr. Adams was prevented from presenting in person, in consequence of his attendance at the funeral of Mr. Sumner, as one of the pall-bearers.

The Resolves were adopted by unanimous vote.

Resolved, That in the decease of CHARLES SUMNER, the people of this town feel that they lose one of the firmest and most consistent upholders of the great principles of liberty which secure to us all the power to establish and maintain government for ourselves.

Resolved, That his services for more than twenty years as a Senator representing Massachusetts, have been chiefly marked by his persistent devotion to an oppressed race whose liberty he contributed greatly to establish, and whose elevation it has ever since been his labor to promote.

Resolved, That his life furnishes a fitting example of consistent devotion to the attainment of high objects and of unflinching courage in the prosecution of them, which it is our desire to hold in perpetual remembrance on our record, for the benefit of all coming generations.

Communications were read by the Moderator, from Messrs. E. S. Chapin and William Parker, resigning as Assessors, and giving their reasons therefor.

Article 4th of the Warrant was then taken up, and the following votes were passed:

Voted, That the Board of Selectmen be the Surveyors of Highways, and that they be directed to choose one of their number, who shall have exclusive charge of repairs on the Highways during the ensuing year.

Voted, That the member of the Board of Selectmen, charged with the exclusive care of the Highways is instructed to have all repairs of the Highways, whenever practicable, done under contract, and not by day labor.

Voted, That in the future, the accounts for repairs of Highways, in each of the several Districts of the Town be kept distinct.

Voted, That the money appropriated for the repairs of Highways, should be applied specifically to the purpose of repairs; and that no extensive work of grading, alteration, or improvement of Highways, should be undertaken in any case except when duly authorized by vote of the Town.

Articles 5 to 11, inclusive, were acted on at the first meeting, March 2.

Article 12. Voted, That the Selectmen be authorized to sell the town property specified in Art. 12th of the Warrant (School House and land at North Quincy), and to give a deed of the same, provided, that in their judgment it shall seem expedient to dispose of the same at the present time, and that a suitable price can be obtained therefor.

Article 13, relative to Concrete Sidewalks, was indefinitely postponed.

Article 14. Voted, That the free use of the Town Hall be granted to any citizen for free lectures, where there is no collection of money taken up.

Articles 15, 16 and 17, all relating to Reservoirs, were indefinitely postponed.

Article 18. Voted, That Article 18th of the Warrant be referred to the Selectmen, with authority to purchase not exceeding one thousand (1000) feet of hose, if, upon consultation with the Engineers of the Fire Department, they shall decide that such purchase is expedient.

Articles 19 and 20. Voted, That the Trustees of the Public Library be authorized to lease for five years or more, in a central and convenient locality, upon the best attainable terms, some suitable building or hall, for the accommodation of the Town Library, in case its removal from its present room should become necessary; and that all charges and expenses incurred in such removal, and in fitting up any new premises for its reception, be paid out of the appropriation for the Town Library of the present year.

Voted, That the Trustees of the Public Library understand, that in the opinion of the Town, the Church Building on the corner of Hancock and Canal streets, is a convenient location for the Public Library.

Article 21. Voted, That the report of the Selectmen be not accepted, except in so far as it relates to laying out a town-way from the termination of the present town-way at the foot of Mt. Pleasant, to the line of Thomas Dees' land; being a distance of about 180 feet; provided, that no town-way shall be laid out until all land damages are adjusted to the satisfaction of the Surveyors of Highways, and that no expense shall be incurred in excess of $300.

Article 22, relating to a town-way from Sea Street to Rock Island, was indefinitely postponed.

Article 23. Voted, To accept the Report of the Selectmen laying out a town-way from Sea Street to Washington street.

Article 24. Voted, That the Report of the Selectmen be accepted, laying out of town-ways River street, Charles street, and Silver street; provided, that no expense be incurred in carrying out the same in excess of the sum of $300.

Article 25. Relating to a town-way from Pitts street to Squantum street, Voted, That the Report of the Selectmen be referred to the Surveyor of Highways, to examine into the proposed town-way, and to report at the next annual meeting, and the contract cost of constructing the same.

Article 26. Voted, That the sum of one thousand (1000) dollars be appropriated for the purposes specified in Article 26th, viz: To widen and repair Franklin street at Penn's Hill.

Article 27. Voted, To indefinitely postpone said Article, relative to the

Students from Quincy, proposed in the Report of the Managers of the Adams Academy.

Art. 28. Voted, That all town officers are hereby expressly directed not to incur any liability, or authorize an expenditure of money whatever, in excess of specific appropriation in any case ordered by the town.

Voted, Whenever the specific appropriation in any case ordered by the town, prove inadequate, or if any unforeseen or unusual emergency, makes necessary an expenditure for purposes not provided, for or not fully provided for by the town at its annual meeting, it shall be the duty of the Selectmen before incurring any additional liabilities, to call a special meeting of the town, to consider and make provision for the same.

Voted, That all money appropriated for the cemetery, be expended under the direction of the board of managers, and that the board of managers be directed to consider and report at the next annual town meeting, whether a plan cannot be devised by which the cemetery shall be made self-sustaining.

Voted, That the Selectmen be instructed to insert an article in the warrant for the next annual town meeting, to see whether the town will discontinue all further payments to the members of the School Committee for their services as such, and will authorize that committee to employ a salaried Superintendent of Schools.

Voted, That the Town Treasurer be authorized to borrow money of the Commonwealth to the amount and for the period specified in Article 11 of the Warrant.

Voted, That all outstanding accounts between the town and the Commonwealth, be referred to a committee to consist of the members of the board of Selectmen, and the Hon. Charles Marsh, with authority to adjust and finally settle the same.

Voted, To raise and assess on the polls and estates of the town the sum of $80,460, of which sum, $23,600 shall be appropriated for support of schools, and $56,860 for all other expenses of the town during the year for the following purposes:

Support of Poor,.....	$5,000
Repairs on Town Buildings,.....	1,000
Pay of Town Officers,.....	4,000
Discount and abatement of taxes, 4,000
Increase on Town Debt,.....	3,000
Miscellaneous Expenses,.....	2,000
Bridges,.....	800
Mt. Wollaston Cemetery,.....	1,000
Old Cemetery,.....	200
Repairs of Highways,.....	8,900
Street Lights,.....	2,500
Fire Department,.....	5,000
Improvement at Penn's Hill,.....	1,000
Laying out new Town-ways,.....	750
Additional House,.....	1,600
Land for School purposes, on Coddington Street,.....	1,500
Incidental expenses of Schools,.....	6,000
Public Library, including all expenses of removal,.....	3,500
Support of Schools,.....	$56,860
Incidental expenses of Schools,.....	23,600
Support of Schools,.....	$80,460

Voted, That in addition to the sum of $80,460, levied to defray the current expenses for the ensuing year, an additional sum equal to two mills on each dollar of the assessed valuation of the town, be raised as a special tax, and so appear on each bill issued;—and all sums collected under this special levy, shall be paid by the collector of taxes directly to town treasurer, to be by him forthwith applied to the reduction of the town-debt, and to no other purpose whatsoever.

Voted, That the Town Treasurer be directed to pay no debt incurred during the year for which the above named special tax is levied, with the proceeds of said tax.

Voted, That all Poll Taxes be due and payable in fourteen days after demand.

Voted, That the tax on Estates be due and payable on the first day of November next.

Voted, That a discount of four per cent be allowed on all taxes collected and paid on or before the fifteenth day of September next.

Voted, That the Collector be required to pay interest on all taxes not paid or abated by the first of December next.

Voted, That the names of all persons whose taxes are unpaid on the first of February, 1874, be printed with the Auditors' Report.

Voted, That the Collector of taxes be required to pay to the Treasurer on the Fourth day of every month, the amount of taxes by him collected, and that the Treasurer furnish the Collector money to pay the County Tax when due.

Voted, That the Collector of taxes have all the powers conferred by law on Town Treasurers when acting as Collectors.

Voted, That the Town Treasurer be instructed to borrow under the direction of the Selectmen such sums of money, in anticipation of taxes, as may be needed.

The collection of taxes was bid off by Charles N. Baxter, at five (5) mills on the dollar, and he was chosen Collector of Taxes.

Voted, That so much of the vote of the town, passed March 2, 1874, as authorized the Selectmen to borrow a sum of money to pay for the authorized purchase of land on Coddington street, be reconsidered.

REPORT ON TOWN DEBT.

The Special Committee of eight, appointed to ascertain and report, among other matters, upon the amount and nature of the Town Debt, and what means can be devised for the prompt reduction of the same, have attended to that duty, and submit the following statement as to the amount of the debt, as nearly as it can be ascertained, with drafts of votes providing for its prompt reduction:

STATEMENT OF DEBT.

Dr. Notes to Commonwealth, $45,000.00
" Wollaston Nat. Bank, 15,000.00
" Quincy M. F. L. Co., 10,000.00
" Quincy M. F. Fund, 23,779.27
" Sundry persons, 32,697.75
Accrued interest and outstanding accounts, 3,593.17
Total gross debt, $131,070.19

Cr. Cash in Treasury, $9,197.65
Outstanding accounts, $6,872.54
Total, $16,070.19

Amount of Debt, $115,000.00
Showing a net debt, for which the Town is now liable, of one hundred and fifteen thousand dollars.

All of which is respectfully submitted. By order of the Committee.

C. F. ADAMS, JR.

Voted, That the Selectmen be instructed to oppose the laying out of a town way, from a point on the Squantum road, to the Squantum House, or the proposed bridge across the Nponset River near the house, and that they appear by counsel before the Board of County Commissioners, in case any hearing be had, in relation to the same, and use all proper means to prevent any action being taken in the premises.

Voted, That a committee of three be appointed by the moderator, to report to the next annual town meeting, some comprehensive plan for the proper repair of the highways of the town, and William Lyman Faxon, J. Q. A. Field and Benj. F. Curtis, were appointed as said Committee.

Report, At the Annual Town Meeting in March, 1873, the matter of the enlargement of the Mount Wollaston Cemetery, by the purchase of a part of the Woodward Fund Land, was referred to the Selectmen, who reported that the Board of Managers of said Fund, decided that it would be inexpedient to sell the land specified for the purpose of a Cemetery.

Voted, That the Managers of the Cemetery, with the Selectmen, be a Committee, to consider and report at the next annual March meeting, some plan for the enlargement of Mt. Wollaston Cemetery.

Voted, That the Selectmen be instructed to put Suther's Hill in a safe condition, out of the money appropriated for repairs of highways.

Voted, That the thanks of the Town be tendered to the Moderator for his efficient services. Also to the "Committee of Eight," for their earnest and faithful labors for the interests of the Town.

Voted, That this meeting be dissolved.

For the Patriot.

SURPRISE PARTY. A party of old acquaintances and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Litchfield, visited them at their residence on Thursday evening of last week completely surprising the worthy couple on seeing such a host of unexpected happy faces presented to their view. The visitors brought with them some of the popular amusements of the day to enable them to pass the hours in gaiety and pleasure. The celebrated comic singer Mr. D. made his appearance about twelve o'clock, dressed in his usual costume, and added much to the delight of the company by singing some songs which were very appropriate.

Captain James, as usual was in his element and although about to weigh anchor and "dare the dangerous wave," appeared to be as happy as a clam at high water, and contributed mightily to the jollity of the occasion. Mr. F., who is one of our popular friends was made toast master of the evening, and done his work in a very satisfactory manner.

About one o'clock we were escorted to the hall, where we found a large table spread with patables of all kinds, which had been prepared by the ladies, under the direction of the Mason friends. The china cup which had been so carefully set aside for many years, was at this time drunk from by your humble servant E. O. J. All eat and were merry, and as the inper man was satisfied exclaimed with one voice: "May the name of Litchfield be legendary!" E. O. J.

RESPECT TO SUMNER. The flags in this town were hung at half-mast, and the bells tolled a solemn dirge for one hour during the funeral solemnities of Charles Sumner on Monday last.

FIRST CHURCH. Sunday School at 9 30. Bible class. Morning service at 10 50. Vespers at 7 30.

For the Patriot.

THE Thayer Public Library is now finished and is all ready to receive the Books which will be placed upon the shelves in a few days. The Library will be dedicated some time in May with appropriate services. The building has cost $22,000, and is a very substantial affair.

The dedication of the Soldiers' Monument will take place on the 17th of June, and it will be a grand affair, all the Grand Army Posts in the vicinity are to be invited. The Oration is to be delivered by Gen. Banks, the Necrology by Rev. G. A. Thayer of Boston, the music by the Braintree Brass Band.

Quite a number of new buildings will be erected this season. Some are already commenced by the Penumans, Brewster, Flint, Hobart, Berry and others, for master builders, Braintree is bound to grow. Mr. Brewster is remodeling a building on Washington street, and will make a very desirable dwelling of what was once used as a work shop. He knows how to do it.

CHRIST CHURCH. Service to-morrow at 10 30 A. M. Sunday School at 3 P. M. Service at 4 P. M. Lenten Services on Wednesdays at 4 P. M. and on Fridays at 7 P. M. Seats free.

For the Patriot. BRAINTREE.

The little town of Braintree has not been asleep by any means this winter. At the north part of the town, at least, there has been no lack of excitement. Each of the two religious societies have given a course of six lectures. The Elm Street Baptist Church gave the first course, which was fully attended, and gave unbounded satisfaction to all. The funds are to be spent in carpeting the floor of the chapel, and though the society feel grateful to all friends who so readily came to their aid in the matter, yet they feel that all who attended the lectures, could not fail to glean some harvest from their benevolence. The first Congregational Society kept the ball rolling, and have also enjoyed a fine course of lectures. Besides the centennial "Tea Party" and numerous bow-parties, there has been and is still, a first rate singing-school which is fully attended, and we understand is to be closed with a concert. Mr. Edward Hayward has this in charge.

I suppose, I need not tell you of the "Braintree Citizens Club" for no doubt its fame is wide spread. It has held full and excited meetings every Monday evening this past winter. The amount of labor accomplished by this debating club and literary society in weighing and discussing the popular topics of the day, and furnishing literary entertainment for the eager public, that have thronged their hall, would be incredible if reported to you in full, and you might hesitate to risk the reputation of your paper by printing so large a story, so I refrain. This "August body" are expected to retire from their labors soon for a long summer's rest and refreshment. It is to be hoped they will recuperate their forces and continue to be a blessing to the community during another winter.

The fifth in the course of lectures given by the 1st Parish, was a lecture and reading the former by W. D. Spellman, Esq. of Quincy, a "Pickwickian," and the latter by Edward Southworth Esq. of Quincy, a "Pickwickian" and also teacher in the Rice School, Boston.

The subject of the lecture was The Hohenzollerns and the Bonapartes. It was very finely written and delivered in an easy, graceful and animated style that gave very general gratification. It closed with a recitation which was so perfect that it was received with a storm of applause. The reading that followed fully sustained the standard of merit with which the entertainment opened. Mr. Southworth read "Count Candaspina's Standard," "Miss Maloney on the Chinese Question," "The Wounded" by Rev. Wm. Miller, "The Bells" by Edgar F. Poe, and Tennyson's "Charge of the Light Brigade." The selections were all rendered with admirable taste and skill but "The Bells" deserve particular mention as it was very finely read.

Speaking of lectures, I must not forget to tell you that Mr. E. L. Humphrey, a former citizen of Braintree, gave us an excellent lecture on "The Best Way" a few weeks ago. So you see, we have been wide-awake all winter, but we gladly hail the return of Spring.

While I write, the bells are tolling the funeral knell of the beloved and honored statesman, Charles Sumner. The bustle and turmoil of a great nation are hushed for the hour, that they may honor the departed and mourn over his remains. Well, we cannot all be great statesmen, but it is denied to none to so fully take part in their own sphere, as to sincerely mourn, and sorely missed from their accustomed niche in our busy world when the summons comes, that we all shall hear sooner or later. PAULINE.

LIFE-LIKE. A large and excellent photograph picture of Charles A. Howard, Esq., has been on exhibition at the Post Office the present week. When we say that it is a very handsome one, we do not intend to flatter our worthy Secretary, but rather compliment the artist, who has produced such a fine picture from a card photograph. E. S. Chamberlain of Weymouth, was the artist.

Extract from a letter from Mrs. J. C. Aldrich, Wauson, Fulton Co., O. "R. P. Hall & Co., Gentlemen,—Please send me one dozen bottles of your Sicilian Hair Renewer. Our hair and scalp do not want to be cut. My mother is a living recommendation of the results from the use of the Renewer. Being almost seventy years old, and having worn a wig over thirty years, it seems a miracle to those who have known her so long so bald, and what little hair she had being perfectly white; now her wig thrown aside, her hair growing out, and a smooth glossy brown as in girlhood. Hoping you may long continue to pour blessings on the heads of the afflicted, I remain yours truly."

Such evidence, with the indorsement of the great chemists of New England, Dr. A. A. Hayes and S. Dana Hayes, should satisfy any one, which of the preparations produce the best results.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE.

BY virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain Mortgage deed given by Frank W. Baker to William B. Whitaker, and by said Whitaker assigned through mesne conveyances to John M. Wiley, which said Mortgage is dated March 15th, 1872, and is recorded with Norfolk Deeds, Book 421, page 195, and by said Public Auction, to wit: Commencing at a point on River street, one hundred and thirty-seven feet eastward from Back street, thence running westerly by land of George Pierce, one hundred and thirty feet, thence running westerly by other land of George Pierce, sixty-four feet; thence running and running southerly by other land of George Pierce, one hundred and twenty-one feet, one-half feet to said River street, sixty-four feet to the point of beginning, containing one acre, more or less, being the same premises conveyed to said John M. Wiley, by Charles B. Redington, on the 15th day of April, A. D. 1874, at three of the clock in the afternoon.

All and singular the premises conveyed by said Mortgage deed, that is to say—All that lot of land with the dwelling thereon standing, situated in Hyde Park, County of Norfolk, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, bounded and described as follows, to wit:—Commencing at a point on River street, one hundred and thirty-seven feet eastward from Back street, thence running westerly by land of George Pierce, one hundred and thirty feet, thence running westerly by other land of George Pierce, sixty-four feet; thence running and running southerly by other land of George Pierce, one hundred and twenty-one feet, one-half feet to said River street, sixty-four feet to the point of beginning, containing one acre, more or less, being the same premises conveyed to said John M. Wiley, by Charles B. Redington, on the 15th day of April, A. D. 1874, at three of the clock in the afternoon.

The premises will be sold subject to a prior mortgage of $2,000.

Terms Cash.

NELLIE M. WILLIE, Assignee of said Mortgage.

March 21.

SPRING SONGSTERS.

The cheerful and happy notes of robin red breast can now be heard every morning caroling "Spring is coming! Spring is here!" and it matters not if the cold winds blow from the north, bringing the flying snow flakes, as soon as the sun peeps from behind the clouds, the little birds commence their songs of praise and thanksgiving.

REQUEST. The Sailors' Snug Harbor of this town has been bequeathed to it by Miss Sophia J. Snow, the sum of $20,000, as a trust fund, the income of which is to be applied to the use of the institution annually.

A FINE MAP. We have received from A. Williams & Co., a handsome colored map of Boston, and vicinity, giving the new boundary of the city since the annexation of West Roxbury, Brighton and Charlestown. It gives all the towns adjoining Boston and should be found in every counting room and library for future reference. For sale by the publishers, at 135 Washington street, Boston, for one dollar each.

REAL ESTATE SALE. Store, house and other buildings with about one-half acre of land on the corner of Washington and Wharf streets, Quincy, owned by Messrs. Isaiah G. Winson and Geo. H. Thomas has been sold to Mr. Charles Hall of Marshfield for $6000.

JOSEPH W. LOWMEAD, Auctioneer, Office 29 and 30 Dock Square, Boston.

PUBLIC AUCTION.

Will be sold at Public Auction, on MONDAY, April 6th, at 4 o'clock, P. M., on Common Street, near Cross Street.

A COTTAGE HOUSE! AND STABLE.

WITH about one-quarter acre of land, belonging to WILLIAM DUGGAN, A. M. or falling well of water is on the place. The House is finished in good style, and is in excellent repair. Now is the chance for the right man to secure a pleasant and convenient home for a small sum of money.

Terms made known day of sale. $100 down. Sale positive. Quincy, March 21.

WANTED.

A BOY in an APOTHECARY STORE. One desirous of learning the business preferred. Apply at the Patriot Office. Quincy, March 21.

QUINCY SAVINGS BANK.

The next Regular Semi-annual Dividend of this Bank, will be payable, according to the By-Laws, on, or after the day following the first TUESDAY of April next, which will be the eighth day of April.

All money deposited on or before the above named day will commence drawing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum.

GEO. L. GILL, Treasurer. Quincy, March 21, 1874.

The National Granite Bank, OF QUINCY, MASS.

At a Meeting of the Board of Directors, held this day, a Dividend of Five per cent, was declared, payable to Stockholders on and after April 1st.

R. F. CLAFLIN, Cashier. Quincy, March 19, 1874.

Quincy Mutual Fire Insurance Co.

NOTICE. THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Quincy Mutual Fire Insurance Company will be held at the Office of the Company, in Quincy, on WEDNESDAY, April 1st, at 10 o'clock, P. M.

CHARLES A. HOWLAND, Sec'y. Quincy, March 21.

TO LET.

HALF HOUSE, six Rooms—within one minute's walk of Depot, Schools, and Churches. $21 per month. By HENRY H. FAXON. Quincy, March 21.

PAINT, VARNISH, & C.

WHITE LEAD, OIL, JAPAN, VARNISH, Spirit Turpentine, Shellac, Putty, Window Glass, and Colors, on hand for sale in large or small quantities.

ALSO—PAINT MIXED OF ANY COLOR. AT SHORT NOTICE—AT

KEATING & SPEAR'S Furniture Store, Washington Street. Quincy, March 31.

Salem Lead Company.

Warranted PURE WHITE LEAD—Well known throughout the New England States, FINEST and BEST. LEAD PIPE, 5-8 inch wide, 8 inches long, on order for Builders.

LEAD PIPE, of any size or thickness. At lowest market prices for goods of equal quality. Address SALEM LEAD CO., Salem, Mass. Quincy, March 21.

Fews in the Stone Temple

"Born to no Master, of no Sect are We."

Short communications and items of news earnestly solicited from friends and patrons. Anonymous communications are not published.

The Adams Academy.

There is, at the present time some difference of opinion between the majority of the inhabitants of the Town, on the one hand, and the Board of Managers of the Adams Academy on the other, with regard to the best methods of conducting and supporting that Institution. It is a great pity that such difference should exist. But it does exist, and there is no use in shutting our eyes to the fact. Instead of a Classical School for the Town, which was generally supposed to be intended by the bequest of President Adams, the Managers have set up an Academy for the World. Now it may be that a World's Academy does ensue, as the Managers think it does, the best possible Classical School for the Town. But the generality of the people of the Town are not yet persuaded of this. So here is one point of difference. Again, the Managers, having given much time and thought to the examination of the matter, and having come to the conclusion that the town pupils ought to pay full tuition, are dissatisfied because the Town has recently voted down this suggestion. On the other hand, many of our fellow-citizens are hurt by the allegation of the Managers that outsiders are paying for Quincy boys, and they reply, that on the contrary, Quincy boys are really paying much more than those who come from abroad.

We do not take it upon ourselves to pronounce judgment upon these matters; but we gladly offer the use of our columns for any temperate discussion of the whole subject. The Academy, through the generosity of its founder, is the Town's property, and its Managers are the Town's servants, and claim to be nothing more. And surely, with regard to its management we can all have but one purpose at heart, namely, the Town's highest welfare. And it may be that a little quiet discussion may more readily tend to heal all points of difference than the somewhat heated and hurried talk of a public meeting.

ADAMS ACADEMY. By vote of the Town passed May 24, 1871, provision is made for filling vacancies in the Board of Managers:—
"Voted, That the Managers may themselves elect any person, not a member of the School Committee to fill any vacancy which may occur in their number, who shall serve until the next annual meeting of the Town, when the inhabitants shall elect a person to serve the unexpired period of the vacant term."
Therefore, Article 3 in the warrant for Town Meeting to be held March 30th, can be indefinitely postponed.

TOWN MEETING. The attention of voters is invited to the warrant in another column, calling a meeting of the citizens on Monday afternoon next, to fill vacancies caused by the resignation of several gentlemen chosen at the late annual meeting, and to transact other important business.

We are pleased to learn that the children of this town as well as the older portion of the community, are to be provided with an entertainment. Fast afternoon and evening—which will afford them an excellent opportunity of passing a portion of the day and evening both beneficially and agreeably.

VALUABLE HOUSE-LOTS. Mr. Jos. W. Lombard will sell at auction, on Monday afternoon April 6, at five o'clock, two valuable house-lots on "Presidents Hill." The lots are situated in one of the pleasantest, most beautiful, and slightly parts of the town, from which a splendid view of the surrounding villages and cities, as well as the bay and ocean may be obtained. The neighborhood is one of the most unexceptionable in town, and for a pleasant home no place offers such rare inducements. See advertisement.

SEEK AND FIND. State Constable Farnham has made the following seizures during the week. From Harrison Moulton of North Weymouth, on the 22d inst., a lot of whiskey and rum. From Thos. H. Hayes on the 24th inst., a lot of whiskey. On the 25th, a quantity of whiskey from Patrick Hayes, and on the same day a lot of whiskey and ale from Robert Roberts and William Jones. The four last mentioned seizures were made in Quincy.

SOLD. We learn that Mr. Thomas J. Curtis has purchased the house and land on the corner of Goffe and Grand Sts., of Henry H. Faxon for about $4,000.

LAUNDRY. Many of our readers will be pleased to learn that the new Laundry in this town will commence operations on Monday, April 6th. The disagreeable Washing Day will now be among the things that were. Let all our ladies encourage this new and excellent institution. The young men having charge of it intend that it shall give the best of satisfaction.

All persons desirous of purchasing real estate, should read our advertising columns. There is an excellent farm for sale in Braintree; also, a good house, or Shaw street, very cheap. Also, eight acres of valuable land in North Braintree, besides much good property in Quincy.

Three Questions.

To the Editors of the Patriot:—
There is now deposited in one of the rooms of the Adams Academy a Library of Books—the gift of John Adams to the Town of Quincy. Permit me to inquire through your columns, of some one who is competent to answer:—
First.—The names of the Trustees or Supervisors of the Library?
Second.—At what hours, and under what restrictions the inhabitants of the Town can visit, examine and consult this Library of books?
Third.—Whether said Library has any connection whatsoever with the Public Library of Quincy? CITIZEN.

Town Officers.

At a meeting of citizens of Quincy, irrespective of party, the following nominations were made, to be supported on Monday next:
For Selectman and Assessor, Overseer of Poor, and Surveyor of Highways—Edmund B. Taylor.
For Assistant Assessors—John Q. A. Field and Ebenezer Adams.
A VOTER.

New Books in the Library.

The following is a list of the books which have been added to this institution, since our last issue.

Armstrong, Mrs. M. F. Hampton and its students.	148.6
Brackett, Anna C. and others. Education of American girls.	141.81
Bucklin, Mose, or life from the lakes to the Pacific.	181.2
Dacey, E. E. The morning land.	194.11
Hawes, H. R. Pet, or pastimes and penance.	283.19
Helps, A. Ivan de Biron.	303.11
Hook, I. Cousin William.	291.1
"Guravie Skinner.	291.2
"Man of many friends.	291.4
"Merton.	291.5
"Passion and principle.	291.5
Ossoli, Margaret Fuller, memories of, 2 vols.	148.7-8
"Art, literature, and the drama.	148.9
"At home and abroad.	148.10
"Life and life without.	148.11
"Women of the nineteenth century.	148.12
Richardson, S. Sir Charles Grandison.	303.8
"Clarissa Harlowe.	303.9
"Pamela.	303.10
Wells, G. Lincoln and Seward.	141.30

The Library will be closed on Fast Day.

For the Patriot.

FIRE AT WEST QUINCY. The dwelling house of Mr. Wm. Gragg was discovered to be on fire on Monday afternoon. There was no one but Mrs. Gragg and her two small children in the house, at the time, and she was at work in the L. The fire originated in a clothes closet, connected with the bedroom, and had assumed a most threatening aspect. Then it was that Mrs. Gragg showed great presence of mind, by running out to the well, seizing a large tub of water, and carried it into the house alone and with a dipper succeeded in putting out the fire; although she got burnt upon the head and face. In the closet was the clothing of the family which was all consumed. Owing to the high wind that was prevailing at the time, it was a miracle, that the house was saved. The damage to the house, will not exceed $25, which is covered by insurance. But $75 would not cover the loss of clothing and repairs. There is no insurance upon the clothing, which will be a total loss. I wish that we had more such women in our town, who in time of peril would show the spirit of Mrs. Gragg, who did not call assistance until she had the flames subdued at the risk of her life. It is not known from what source the fire originated as there was no one in that part of the house at the time.

F. C. ELLIS, JR.

AUCTION. On Monday afternoon next, Joseph W. Lombard will sell the pleasant and very desirable estate of Mr. Alexander Felton, on Quincy Avenue, comprising about 15,250 feet of land with buildings. This property will certainly command a good price, as it is quite centrally located, on one of the principal thoroughfares of the town and for any kind of business purposes will be very desirable.

SUDDEN DEATH. Miss Mary O'Connell a domestic living in the family of Mr. A. M. Swallow of this town, was found in a dying condition on the morning of the 26th, and before medical assistance could be procured, she expired. Cause apoplexy.

Pews are to be let at auction, on Fast day, in the Universalist Church.—See notice in another column.

It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that the furniture in the house now occupied by David Greene, Esq., is to be sold at auction on Fast day.

DISTRICT COURT. There has been but little business before the Court this week. Philip McGee of Quincy, was fined $3 and costs for being drunk. John Coliphay, of Weymouth, arrested by State Constable Porter, for being a common seller of intoxicating liquors. Found guilty and fined $50 and costs. Garrett Supple, of Scituate, whose case was continued last week, was discharged.

Thomas Ask of Weymouth, for an assault. Discharged on payment of cost. Peter Sullivan of Weymouth for keeping a nuisance. Case continued to Monday next.

F. Bresnahan and B. Bresnahan of Weymouth for keeping a nuisance. Case continued to Monday next.

In the civil case of Isaac B. Loud of Quincy, against Quincy Pool of Weymouth. Judgment for Plaintiff of $26.50.

The small boys from Weymouth, for catching a few smelts with their hands, were placed on probation.

For the Patriot.

The Adams Academy.

I have been asked by several citizens of this town to make some informal remarks in reference to the Report of the Managers of the Adams Academy, which they claim was not clearly understood at the late town meeting. It is with great reluctance that I comply with their request. As a board the Managers promptly accept the situation, and have nothing more to say. I can write only as a citizen interested in the welfare of the town, and upon my individual responsibility.

More than fifty years ago, John Adams gave the town of Quincy certain lands of which the profits were to be applied to the support of a school for the teaching of the Greek and Latin languages. If Mr. Adams had intended that these profits should accumulate until they could furnish the entire support of such a school, it seems probable that so important a condition would have been most clearly specified. It is well known that his "honorable friend" Josiah Quincy, whom he placed upon his board of Supervisors, and his distinguished son John Quincy Adams, never for a moment supposed that his intention was to be interpreted. They looked to fees from pupils to supply the deficiencies of the fund, precisely as such deficiencies are supplied in other endowed schools,—which are nevertheless held to be of great advantage to the communities where they exist. It may be safely asserted that there is no endowed school of first-class reputation in the United States which is conducted without charge to the pupil. Our colleges are constantly increasing their requirements; and even a school as richly endowed as the Phillips Academy at Exeter finds itself unable to dispense with a tuition fee. After giving patient study and consideration to the whole matter, the Managers of the Adams Academy stated that the vote of the town requiring all its pupils to be admitted free of charge was "injurious to the school" and "appeared to have been passed without adequate information of the true state of the facts." Among the Managers who made this statement were two gentlemen who had served on the Committee upon whose report that vote was passed. They thus declared that further study of the subject had induced them to change their view of the effect of their own vote, and to admit the deficiency of information upon which it was based. And let it be remarked that Mr. Foster, the proposer of the vote in question, cheerfully accepted the revised judgment of his colleagues upon the original committee, feeling that they now spoke after a special investigation of the subject, and with a single view to the interests of the town. His speech at the late meeting was conceived in a liberal spirit which did him great credit. No comments are here offered upon the tone of any other speech because all personal feeling would be out of place in the reasonable statement which it is my aim to present. It may be remarked, however, that all expedients and objections that were suggested at the town meeting had received the full consideration of the Managers. And I submit that there were at least two gentlemen upon that board whose judgment in the matter all intelligent men would receive with great deference. Mr. Adams from his relation to the donor, would be jealous in carrying out the full intention of his grandfather, and as a servant of the town would be likely to study its interest in the wise and comprehensive spirit for which he is somewhat remarkable. Mr. Anderson is a teacher of acknowledged reputation, and an expert in all that relates to the management of schools. He has a son at the Academy, and the conclusion, which as a faithful servant of the town he was compelled to adopt, was directly contrary to his private pecuniary interest. Does not the judgment of men of such peculiar competency deserve to be respectfully considered by the community in whose service they are employed? As they are men who mean just what they say, their explicit statement in relation to the Academy will bear quotation.

"There are as yet no means to maintain the school on a proper footing without more or less of charge to the scholar. The alternative is to reduce the system to so low a grade that it will no longer be an object of attraction to persons from abroad, and when that happens it will equally cease to be desirable to the parents of those at home to send their children free."

Have the citizens of Quincy deliberately accepted this alternative? I now propose to make brief answers to objections to the Managers proposition. I shall assume these objections to have been made conscientiously and in good faith. "If the boys of Quincy pay a tuition fee, of what advantage is the school to the town?" A few more questions of the same sort will suggest the answer. Of what advantage is Harvard College to the State of Massachusetts or Cornell College to the State of New York since the citizens of these States must pay tuition fees at the said institutions. Of what advantage to a religious society would be the gift of a church, with a fund to heat it and pay the choir, provided those who wished to attend must contribute to the salary of the minister? Of what advantage to any community is an institution of high character which advertises it largely as a place of residence, and brings no small amount of business into it? "If a fee be charged, why is the Academy of more advantage to citizens of Quincy, whom the donor wished to benefit, than to inhabitants of South America who may send their sons there?" Persons who are forced to send their sons away from home for education are offered a school whose general reputation is no better than that at Exeter; but at which a much higher fee is charged. Citizens of Quincy, on the contrary, who wish to give their sons a first-rate classical education are saved the expense and risk of boarding them away from home at Exeter, or the less expense of sending them to Boston to a collegiate school. The fee charged to out of town pupils at the Boston Latin School is $220 per annum; but I am informed that the Latin School is no longer considered a first class classical school. At the private school of Mr. Noble (which in special excellence competes with the Academy) a fee of $300 is charged. If we allow fifty dollars a year for railroad ticket and incidental expenses, the citizen of Quincy may pay even the present tuition fee and get four years of classical training for his son, one thousand dollars less than he can get the same quality of special education elsewhere. This is something, but it is not all. If a citizen of Quincy has a bright boy for whom he is unable to pay any tuition fee, he may privately come to Managers who are his neighbors and friends, and who will quietly make things easy for him. I submit that these are pretty solid advantages which gentlemen in South America and elsewhere do not possess.

"Why not count the interest on the cost of the Academy building as representing the fees of Quincy boys?" Because it is impracticable. A school building, however costly, does not attract pupils from a distance. In hundreds of cities and towns spacious rooms for school purposes can be procured. The sort of school that is put into such rooms is the sole attraction that strangers recognize. Some of these strangers are even now disposed to say: "If you want our boys, charge us the fee for which we can get the same advantages at Exeter, and assess all remaining expenses upon your town boys for whose benefit you have built the school. It is worth everything to them to have a school at their own door; but it is nothing to us whether we send to one town or another. Let them pay double fees if your funds are insufficient." Such an arrangement would of course be impracticable: to remit all fees to our own boys is equally so. The citizens of Quincy had better hear the precise truth about this whole matter. I hold it to be neither our policy to alienate conclusions, nor is it a question of filling the Academy over or under. It is no question of eleven boys this year, twenty-two next year, or thirty-three the year after. The question is, upon what basis can a permanent organization of the Academy be effected? Under what conditions will superior men give us their life work? The accomplished Master, whose reputation has brought these boys to our town, has recently been solicited to take the head of a first class institution with the highest salary paid for educational services. What competing offer can we make him? Read it and see how it compares with the offer from the town. "We shall be glad to have you, and we shall be glad to have your sons heated and kept in repair, and perhaps four hundred dollars of salary to be divided among yourself and your assistants. If you receive any other compensation, it must be from the fees of pupils whom your reputation, and the excellence of the school, may attract. But the harder you work, and the more reputation you give our Academy, the more free pupils we shall compel you to instruct. To be sure there were only eleven of them at the end of the first year; but then Quincy is a growing place and families are moving into it expressly to educate their boys at the school. Calculate the probable increase, and according to your generous proposition! Every intelligent person in the town must see that no first class instruction can be had on such terms as these.

Citizens of Quincy, your judgment is supreme in this matter. Be sure that it is your mature judgment, given after due consideration as wise men give important questions. Owing to a combination of fortunate circumstances, an institution far surpassing anything that could have been anticipated from the slender funds of the town, has been established in your midst. The Managers you elected were most reluctant to report that a vote of the town must prove fatal to this institution. They did not do so until they had brought it to the test of actual experiment, and until there was no escape from the conclusion. But they have at length been forced to tell you that if this Academy "on the scale contemplated by its founder" must be conducted without tuition-fees "it will take fifty years more to accumulate before the necessary means can be obtained." If you persist in requiring from the Adams Academy what is required from no other endowed classical school of note, they have pointed out the consequences. If you have no wish to take measures to reverse your recent decision, it will be reversed.

J. P. QUINCY.

National Mount Wollaston Bank.

A DIVIDEND of seven per cent. will be payable on the first day of April next. HORACE B. SPEAR, Cashier. Quincy, March 28. 1w

GRASS SEED, Seed Barley and Potatoes.

JUST RECEIVED and now offered for sale a choice lot of Northern Herd Grass, Red Top, and Clover Seed. ALSO A LOT OF SEED BARLEY. A Prime Lot of Early, Davis Seedlings, and Jackson White Potatoes. ALSO—All kinds of GARDEN SEEDS, AT—GEO. L. BAXTER & CO.'S, FRANKLIN STREET. Quincy, March 28. 1f

HAY! HAY!!

JUST received, 45 tons prime EASTERN HAY, which will be sold in lots to suit. D. HOWARD BILLS. Quincy, March 14. 1f

Furniture Moved.

The subscribers are prepared to attend to all orders for Furniture and Piano Moving. EWELL & JOSEPHS, FURNITURE DEALERS, Corner of Washington and Codding Streets Quincy, March 14. 1f

Town Meeting.

NORFOLK, SS. To either of the Constables of the Town of Quincy, in said County, Greeting: In the name of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, you are hereby required to notify and warn the inhabitants of the Town of Quincy, qualified to vote in town affairs, to meet at the Town Hall, in said Quincy, on MONDAY, the thirtieth day of March instant, at two o'clock in the afternoon, to act on the following articles:

ARTICLE 1. To choose a Moderator.
ART. 2.—To choose a Selectman, Assessor, Overseer of the Poor, Surveyor of Highways and Pound Keeper, to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of William A. Hodges.
ART. 3.—To choose a Manager of the Adams Academy, in place of Edward H. Dawson, resigned.

ART. 4.—To see if the Town will choose two Assessors to fill the vacancies caused by the non-acceptance of William Parker and E. S. Chapin.
ART. 5.—To fill any other and all vacancies that may exist in Town offices.

ART. 6.—To see if the Town will instruct their Selectmen to cause the Street Lamps to be lighted with Oil or other inflammable fluid, and that said Selectmen expend the amount raised at the last annual town meeting for lighting street lights, to the purchase of Kerosene, or other inflammable fluid, for that purpose.

ART. 7.—To see if the Town will instruct and authorize their Selectmen to apply a sum not exceeding twenty-five hundred dollars out of the amount of Eight Thousand to be raised for the repairs of Highways, at their last meeting, to the repairs of Sidewalks and Gutters in said Town, wherever the abutor, on said Highway shall pay one-half of the expenses, and it shall be the duty of said Selectmen, whether the material used in said repairs shall be Gravel, Concrete, or other material.

ART. 8.—To see if the Town will locate the Public Library in the old Church at the corner of Hancock and Canal Streets, and instruct the Trustees of the Public Library so to do, and reconsider all votes to the contrary, and take any action on the matter, and amend any vote passed by the Town, as the meeting may deem expedient.

ART. 9.—To see if the Town will authorize the Selectmen to give the sum of two hundred dollars for the Care and Decoration of Soldiers' Graves, in this Town; the same to be expended under Post Eighty-eight, Grand Army of the Republic.

ART. 10.—To see if the Town will authorize the Selectmen and Engineers to make such necessary repairs and alterations in the Hose House as may render it serviceable, and to buy a piece of land thereof if necessary.

ART. 11.—To see if the Town will build a Room at the corner of Willard School House at the Junction of Copeland and Cemetery streets, and appropriate money therefor.

ART. 12.—To see if the Town will authorize the Engineers to purchase one thousand feet of Hose for the use of the Fire Department, and appropriate a sum of money for the same.

ART. 13.—To see if the Town will authorize the Selectmen to alter the Committee on the Town, and on or before the day and time appointed for said meeting.

Hereof fail not, but make due return of this Warrant, with your doings thereon, unto the Town Clerk, on or before the day and time appointed for said meeting.

Given under our hands at Quincy, this Twentieth day of March, A. D., One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-four.
WILLIAM A. HODGES, Selectman
S. F. FELLOWS, }
JOHN Q. A. FIELD, } Quincy.

A True Copy—Attest.
WASHINGTON M. FRENCH, Constable of Quincy.

NORFOLK, SS. Quincy, March 20, 1874. Pursuant to the foregoing Warrant, I hereby notify and warn the inhabitants of the Town of Quincy, qualified as therein expressed, to meet at the time and place, and for the purposes there in named.

WASHINGTON M. FRENCH, Constable of Quincy.

Mrs. H. A. CASE, TEACHER OF MUSIC, HANCOCK STREET, Near the National Granite Bank.

Quincy, Nov. 22. 1f

OPENING OF THE Quincy Laundry.

THE QUINCY LAUNDRY will be open to receive orders, THE FIRST MONDAY IN APRIL. All orders and small parcels left at the POST OFFICE, will receive prompt attention. Family work called for at all hours. Prices List furnished on application at the Laundry Baskets, all sizes, furnished to order.

BAXTER & MEARS, PROPRIETORS. Quincy, March 28. 1f

Bryant & Stratton SCHOOL, BOSTON, MASS.

Commercial
COURSE OF STUDY PREPARATORY TO BUSINESS. The studies embraced in the plan of the School, are such as to give the pupils who have acquired a good knowledge of the elementary English branches, a

Book-keeping. (BY SINGLE AND DOUBLE ENTRY.)
Commercial Arithmetic. (Designed for practical application in business.)
Commercial Writing. (With special reference to legibility & rapidity.)
Commercial Correspondence. (In a manner answering to the requirements of business letter writing.)
Commercial Law. (Relating to Negotiable Paper, Contracts, Partnerships, etc.)

all of which are especially necessary for and adapted to commercial purposes. Pupils desiring other studies than above named may select any or all the English Studies and pursue them in connection with or separate from the COMMERCIAL STUDIES. Pupils received at any time if their fees are advanced.

Prospectus and Circular of the school, post paid. The school is now located at 308 Washington Street, location previous to the fire at 100 Hous, 9 to 2. CLOSED SATURDAYS. Vacation During July and August.

Application for admission, Sept. 1st, may be made in person till July 1st; from July 1st till August 1st, by letter only, building closed. August 1st till Sept. 1st, the principal will be in attendance daily from 9 till 2.

H. E. HIBBARD, Principal. Mar. 28. (Aug. 1. 1y)

READY-MADE CLOTHING, FOR MEN AND BOYS, SELLING CHEAP.

By GEORGE SAVILLE, 90 Hancock Street. Quincy, March 14. 1f

AN ENTERTAINMENT

TO

Please see the Public

Thursday, April 2d,

Fast Afternoon and Evening,

At the Town Hall, Quincy.

AFTERNOON, at 2.30. EVENING, at 7.30.

The Entertainment will include the ever popular English Comedies, by Harris, entitled

"The Little Treasure."

SCENE 1st. Howard Villa, Richmond. "The Estrangement—and the Daughter's Stragem." SCENE 2nd. Sir Charles Howard's London apartments—the Holland and Father awakens. SCENE 3rd. Richmond again. —Reconciliation. —"The Little Treasure Triumphant."

Cast of Characters.

CAPTAIN WALTER MAUNDER (The "Bachel-oul Consul"). Mr. Geo. K. Montgomery. SIR CHARLES HOWARD. Mr. W. E. Simmons. HON. LEICESTER FLUTTERMORE, (a fashionable friend of Sir Charles). J. A. Montgomery. MR. ALLENBURY, (a "Bird of the same feather"). Mr. E. Irving Morse. JAMES YELLOWPUSH, (Sir Charles' "own man"). Mr. Frank O. Garvin. LADY FLORENCE HOWARD, Wife of Sir Charles. Miss Dora Carter. GERTRUDE, (the "Little Treasure," daughter of Sir Charles and Lady Florence). Mrs. J. H. Hersey. MISS MEDLEYTON, (Gertrude's grandmother). Miss S. Lucilla Dudson. JANE. Miss S. H. W. Tirrell.

MUSIC BY A SELECT QUARTETTE.

After which will be presented the Laughable Farce of

"NAN, the Good for Nothing."

Tom Dibbles, (a Gardener). Mr. A. Montgomery. Harry Olliver, (a Railway Fireman). Mr. Geo. K. Montgomery. CHARLEY, (a Carpenter). Mr. W. E. Simmons. MR. SIMPSON. Mr. Frank O. Garvin. NAX, (The Good for Nothing). Mrs. J. H. Hersey.

MUSIC BY A SELECT QUARTETTE.

The whole to conclude with the Bollicking Farce,

THIRTY MINUTES FOR REFRESHMENTS!

Or, the Haps and Mis-haps of an Eccentric Train.

The scene is laid entirely in New England, and takes place in room D, Highland Junction Station. Time—during Quincy's International Jubilee, June, 1872.

Cast of Characters.

John Downley, (very much of a Bachelor and very much sought after). Mr. W. E. Simmons. Clarence Fitts, (his African attendant). Mr. E. Irving Morse. Mr. John Foxton. Mr. Geo. K. Montgomery. Mrs. John Foxton. Mrs. H. W. Tirrell. (A young couple in their honeymoon moon, with whom all does not go. "Merry as a Marriage Bell.") Major Pepper, (of the U. S. Army, a perfect Cicerone of a Bachelor). Mr. J. A. Montgomery. Miss Arabella Pepper, (his Sister, the "Forbidden Fruit"). Miss S. Lucilla Dudson. Polly (the susceptible but blighted Hebe of Highland Junction). Mrs. J. H. Hersey.

These Entertainments are given under the patronage of the Board of Managers of the Town of Quincy, for the benefit of the Town Library, and for the purpose of raising money for the same. Friends are urged to be present.

TICKETS, 25 CENTS. Reserved Seats, now ready, 15 CENTS. For the afternoon performance only, seats open at 2 and 7 o'clock. Certain seats at 2.30 and 7.30. P. 3. No reserved seats for afternoon performance. Quincy, March 28.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE NATIONAL GRANITE BANK at Quincy, in the State of Massachusetts, at the close of business on the 27th day of February, 1874.

RESOURCES.
Loans and Discounts, $238,500.96
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation, 150,000.00
Due from Banking and Reserve Agents, 34,000.33
Banking House, 5,500.00
Current Expenses, 1,325.87
Checks and other Cash Items, 2,844.58
Bills of other National Banks, 1,000.00
Bills of State Bank, 150.00
Legal Tender Notes, 15,000.00
$445,614.44

LIABILITIES.
Capital Stock paid in, 150,000.00
Surplus Fund, 9,250.80
Exchange, 27.88
Interest, 5,515.27
Profit and Loss, 2,950.01
National Bank circulation outstanding, 131,890.00
Dividends unpaid, 10,574.55
Individual Deposits, subject to Check, 107,732.32
$445,614.44

State of Massachusetts, County of Norfolk, ss. I, R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier of the National Granite Bank of Quincy, do solemnly swear, that the above statement is true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 25th day of March, 1874.
CHAS. MARSH, Justice of the Peace.
Correct,—Attest,
DANIEL BAXTER,
CHARLES MARSH, } Directors.
JOHN D. WHICHER, }
March 28.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE NATIONAL MOUNT WOLLASTON BANK of Quincy, in the State of Massachusetts, at the close of business, February 27, 1874.

RESOURCES.
Loans and Discounts, $78,244.41
U. S. Bonds to secure Circulation, 150,000.00
Due from Banking and Reserve Agents, 34,000.33
Current Expenses, 1,325.87
Checks and other Cash Items, 2,844.58
Bills of other National Banks, 1,000.00
Bills of State Bank, 150.00
Legal Tender Notes, 15,000.00
$471,967.39

LIABILITIES.
Capital Stock paid in, 150,000.00
Surplus Fund, 9,250.80
Exchange, 27.88
Interest, 5,515.27
Profit and Loss, 2,950.01
National Bank circulation outstanding, 131,890.00
Dividends unpaid, 10,574.55
Individual Deposits, subject to Check, 107,732.32
Demand Certificates of Deposit, 471,967.39

Poetry.
WANTED.
God give us men! A time like this demands,
Strong minds, great hearts, true faith, and ready hands;
Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor—men who will not lie;
Men who can stand before a demagogue;
And deem his treacherous flatteries without winking.
Tall men sun-crowned, who live above the fog,
In public duty, and in private thinking;
For while the rabble with their thumb-worn creeds,
Their large professions and their little deeds,
Mingle in selfish strife, for freedom weeps,
Wrong rules the land, and waiting justice sleeps.

Home, Farm and Garden.

The Practical Use of Coal Ashes.
At the New York farmers' club, E. S. Todd recently remarked:

Agricultural chemists have long been teaching the people that coal ashes are worthless except for making walks and drives, the editors have published and republished every year the analysis of coal ashes, by which it has been made to appear that they are of no value as a fertilizer. But one well-attested fact is of far more value than a score of analyses by analytical chemists. On account of the promulgation of such an error for fact, untold numbers of tons of ashes are wasted, when they should be applied to the soil. Growing plants have the power to analyze mineral substances, and to appropriate such atoms as they require which are often so minute that the chemist cannot perceive their existence. I have known a light dressing of coal ashes to increase a crop of grass at the rate of more than two tons of hay per acre, over and above the previous light yield of half a ton of hay per acre.

I purchase all the coal ashes that can be obtained within convenient distance of my farm, and spread them around fruit trees, berry vines and bushes. Last spring a watermelon plant came up in the coal ashes that were spread around a fruit tree. It received no attention except that the weeds were kept down. To-day, (the 16th of September), that one covers an area of more than sixteen feet in diameter, and there are on it eighteen melons, several of which would weigh fifteen pounds each, and the smallest one is not less than five inches in diameter. This vine had no other fertilizing material applied, except the ashes. For several weeks it grew in nothing but ashes. The stem near the root is nearly as large as a man's wrist. This is a fact in favor of coal ashes as a fertilizer, which all the analysis in the world cannot controvert with any sort of success. I say, let every one save his coal ashes, and apply them to fruit trees, to grape vines, to strawberry vines, to blackberry vines, to pasture fields, to meadow land, and to the soil where any sort of grain is cultivated.

Condiments in Poultry Diet.

Cayenne pepper, mustard, or ginger, can, with great benefit, be added to the food of fowls, to increase their vigor and to stimulate egg production. This apparently artificial diet will be seen to be natural if we remember that wild birds of the gallinaceous species get access to very many highly-spiced berries and buds; articles that give the "game flavor" to their flesh. The ordinary food of the domestic fowl is not, indeed, entirely without some such addition since there is more or less of an aromatic principle in wheat, Indian corn, and all other grains. Nevertheless, it is not sufficient in quantity to supply the place of the stronger spices, a taste for which is part of the fowl's inherited constitution. A moderate quantity of cayenne, &c., added to the ground grain is always productive of health and thrift in poultry. The Poultry World.

Anecdotes.

A gentleman who had just returned from Arkansas had the following conversation at a tavern:
"Hollo, boy!"
"Hollo, yourself!"
"Can I get breakfast here?"
"I don't reckon you can."
"Why not?"
"Massa's away, mistress is drunk, the baby got the measles, and I don't care a darn for nobody."
Where were your children born?" asked a census-taker of a Corkonian mother.
"Tim was born down stairs, sir, and Bridget in the attic," was the lucid answer.
"John," said a clergyman to his man, "you should become a teetotaler; you have been drinking again to-day."
"Do you ever take a drop yourself," inquired?
"Yes, John; but you must look at your circumstances and mine."
"Very true, sir," says John, "but can you tell me how the streets of Jerusalem were kept so clean?"
"No, John, I cannot tell you that."
"Well, sir, it was just because every one kept his ain door clean."

A servant once entering in fright the study of his master, who was in deep thought and contemplation, told him that the house was on fire.
"Well," said he, "inform my wife. I do not interfere in the household matter."

FOR SALE IN EAST MILTON.

ON ADAMS STREET, 8 minutes from Railroad Station,
THREE HOUSE LOTS, one contains 14,870 square feet, and two 10,500 square feet each. Two are corner lots.
ON WARREN STREET,
8 HOUSE LOTS, 10,000 square feet each. 1,500 ft.
ON BURTON TERRACE (opp. Warren Street), 6 HOUSE LOTS, 12,000 square feet each.
ON CHURCH STREET (opp. Mechanic St.), 1 HOUSE LOT, containing 22,516 square feet, and 6 House Lots, from 8 to 10 thousand feet in each. These lots are all less than five minutes' walk from Depot.
ON GRANITE PLACE,
2 HOUSE LOTS, 8,000 square feet each. 1 LOT, 13,000

From these lots a particularly fine view of Boston Harbor and Islands is obtained. All of the above-named lots have been improved, and on some are fruit trees. Warren Street, Burton Terrace and Church Street are 40 feet wide. These lots of land are offered at moderate prices, and a small payment down and balance to suit purchasers, on mortgage, at 7 per cent. will secure some of the most delightful Building Lots to be found in Boston.

A Very Desirable Estate of Twelve Acres, situated at the junction of Adams, Pleasant and Centre Streets, from 4 to 5 minutes' walk from East Milton Depot. The land is in fine condition, commands a splendid prospect. It is a superior location for a gentleman's residence. Price low to good party.

Apply to, or write to, HENRY W. LITTLEFIELD, Jan. 10. EAST MILTON

WEST QUINCY

DRUG STORE.

THE subscriber, (formerly at Appleton's Quincy Pharmacy) having bought the stock, &c., of the store lately occupied by Billings & Oley, Druggists, and refitted it as a FIRST CLASS Drug, Medicine & Prescription Store, would most respectfully solicit a share of the public patronage. He keeps constantly on hand

THE BEST

Drugs and Chemicals,

Popular Patent Medicines

OF THE DAY.

THE FINEST

SOAPS, HAIR OILS, HAIR BRUSHES,

TOOTH PASTES, COMBS, PERFUMERY,

POMADES, TOILET POWDER,

HAIR DYES,

Cigars and Fancy Articles.

Any article in the line, not on hand, will be procured at short notice and at lowest prices.

WINES AND LIQUORS

FOR MEDICINAL USE, And sold only under a Physician's Prescription.

I would call particular attention to my manner of dispensing Physicians' Prescriptions, only pure drugs and Chemicals being used, and compounded by the subscriber himself. I would invite all to call at my store and examine my stock of carefully selected, pure and fresh Medicines, of Foreign and American manufacture.

My FLUID EXTRACT, TINCTURE and SYRUP, &c., are all manufactured at my store, and warranted to be of full strength.

Thanking the public for their past generous support, and trusting that in the future, by careful attention to business and the wants of my patrons, to merit their full approbation.

JOHN A. DAVIES. West Quincy, Dec. 6, 1873.

TO THE

Ladies of Quincy.

LADIES! By leaving your FEATHERS AT

VEAZIE'S

NEW FAMILY STORE,

You can have them Cleaned, Dyed and Curled

IN A SUPERIOR MANNER.

Kid Gloves and Slippers

CLEANSED!

And returned in a few days.

STAMPING,

For Braiding and Embroidery!!

Done as well and as cheap as in Boston.

We have a Large Variety of Patterns!

And will get a PATTERN of any Design TO ORDER.

We also have a GOOD LINE OF

LADIES' AND GENTS'

FURNISHING GOODS!

And will sell them as LOW as they can be bought elsewhere. Such as

RUFFLES,

RIBBONS of all Colors and Widths.

Hoop Skirts, Corsets,

Silk and Worsted BRAIDS, of all colors,

NEEDLES, PINS, &c., &c.

Also, a beautiful line of WORSTEDS, a Large Variety of YARNS.

Linens and Cotton HANDKERCHIEFS, CAMBRIC and SILK.

Hose for Ladies and Misses.

Men and Boys.

CARDIGAN and Zephyr-Worsted JACKETS,

SKIRT-PROTECTORS, BELTS,

Knitting Cotton, Woollen, Wallies, Suspenders, Combs, &c.

COLLARS and CUFFS, in Linen and Paper.

JARVER'S CANVAS.

A Fine Assortment of Neck-Ties.

Underwear for Ladies and Gents,

IN LARGE VARIETY.

We intend to keep every thing that will be called for in our line of goods, and to do our best to please our customers, both in QUALITY and PRICE.

Try us before purchasing elsewhere.

THIS STORE is conducted by MISS LIZZIE P. RIPLEY, and is the next door to my Apothecary Store

JOHN H. VEAZIE. Quincy, Dec. 6.

DIARIES! DIARIES!

For 1874 and 1875.

A FULL LINE of DIARIES, at very LOW prices—ranging from 10 cents to $5.50, at

SOUTHER'S,

88 Hancock Street.

Boston Almanac and Old Farmer Thomas' Almanac, for 1874—at SOUTHER'S, 88 Hancock Street.

Another lot of those beautiful Russia Cal and Turkey Morocco, Ladies' and Gents' POCKET BOOKS,

At SOUTHER'S, 88 Hancock Street.

Just received, direct from New York, a large assortment of first-class

STEREOSCOPES,

—AND—

Stereoscopic Views!

from the celebrated Fritz Luchhardt, of Vienna, embracing Views of the Exposition, and many other celebrities of the Old World.

AT VERY LOW PRICES.

Also, a Full Line of

BLANK BOOKS!

—ALSO—

which those in want would do well to look before purchasing elsewhere. Also,

INITIAL PAPER,

AT REDUCED PRICES!

SOUTHER'S

No. 88 Hancock Street,

Quincy, Jan. 10.

PICTURE FRAMES

FOR SALE AND MADE TO ORDER.

Furniture Upholstered,

AND REPAIRED,

NEATLY AND PROMPTLY.

At EWELL & JOSEPH'S,

Corner of Washington and Coddington Streets,

Quincy, Jan. 10.

SAWED WOOD

AND FUEL.

THE subscriber having bought the Wood and Fuel Business of Mr. K. L. Lee, now offers for sale

HARD AND SOFT WOOD,

Sawed in lengths to suit the purchaser

SLABS, TRASH WOOD,

Kindling and Fuel.

Orders left at the Store of Messrs. Whitney & Nash and H. W. Gray, or at my House, will be promptly attended to.

Quincy, Feb. 5. GRENVILLE BROOKS

J. W. LOMBARD,

—WITH—

LEOPOLD MORSE & CO.

CLOTHING,

OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS,

29 & 30 Dock Square,

BOSTON.

My services as AUCTIONEER can be had by calling on me at 29 & 30 Dock Square, Boston, and giving me one day's notice.

J. W. LOMBARD. N. B. All my friends are invited to call and see me. October 25.

THE FLORENCE

Favorite Sewing Machine.

It is excelled by none.

People should not fail to examine these SIMPLE, DURABLE and elegant Machines before purchasing any other.

C. S. FRENCH,

Agent for Quincy.

Quincy, May 29.

Wheeler & Wilson's

SEWING MACHINES

SUPERIOR to any in the world for family use, for sale on favorable terms by

E. CLAPP. Quincy, Jan. 21.

QUINCY BAKERY.

THE subscriber would inform the citizens of Quincy and adjoining towns that he will continue to manufacture at his establishment

Bread, Cake and Pastry,

and all other articles usually found in any Bakery. Keeps constantly on hand all kinds of

PLAIN AND FANCY CRACKERS

GINGER SNAPS, &c.

Hot Rolls every evening.

Wedding Cake furnished to order at Boston prices. Choice Family Flour for sale at lowest cash prices.

Quincy, Jan. 21. WM. A. HODGES.

MILLINERY.

S. H. HUSSEY,

Now offers a good and fresh assortment of

MILLINERY,

FOR SPRING AND SUMMER.

—ALSO—

DRESS MAKING,

In the latest New York and Boston Styles, in satisfactory manner, by

A. E. HUSSEY. Quincy, May 3.

HARTFORD

STEAM BOILER

INSPECTION AND INSURANCE

COMPANY.

CAPITAL - - $500,000.

ISSUES POLICIES OF INSURANCE, after a careful inspection of the Boilers, covering all loss or damage to

Boilers, Buildings and Machinery,

—ARISING FROM—

Steam Boiler Explosions.

The business of the Company includes all kinds of

STEAM BOILERS,

STATIONARY, MARINE and LOCOMOTIVE.

Full information concerning the plan of the Company's operations can be obtained at the HOME OFFICE, in HARTFORD, CONN., or at any Agency.

J. M. ALLEN, President, CHAS. M. BEACH, Vice-Pres't. J. B. PIERCE, Secretary.

W. S. CHAMBERLIN, GENERAL AGENT, No. 10 Pemberton St., Boston, Oct. 23.

PRACTICAL TRAINING FOR

BUSINESS.

FRENCH & CHAMBERLIN'S

UNION

Business & Nautical College,

460 Washington St.,

Opposite Boylston Street,

BOSTON.

Charles French, A. M., PRINCIPAL.

Charles R. Chamberlin, A. M., PRINCIPAL.

THE MOST COMPLETE BUSINESS COLLEGE IN AMERICA, offering to young men and women every desirable facility for thoroughly and practically qualifying themselves for the practical duties of business.

It affords many advantages not found at any other institution. Its apartments are arranged and furnished in the most commodious manner for

PRACTICAL EDUCATION,

having an entirely separate DEPARTMENT for

ACTUAL BUSINESS.

It is most thorough in DISCIPLINE, training its Students in all that appertains to the

ETIQUETTE OF BUSINESS,

and teaching them to respect themselves that they may be respected by others.

It affords a Course of Lectures on

COMMERCIAL LAW,

by Prof. BROWLOR of the Boston University Law School, and a Course of practical training in

BOOKKEEPING.

Its standard of education is far in advance of any BUSINESS COLLEGE IN AMERICA.

Its Rates of Tuition are very reasonable—

LOWER, even than at several of the other Colleges. Its means of placing its graduates in

GOOD SITUATIONS!

ARE UNEQUALLED.

Students commence any time. Separate instruction. Day Sessions, 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., evening business day. Evening Sessions, from October 1st to April 1st.

Call or send for Circular. Quincy, Sept. 14.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber having bought the STOCK OF GOODS in Store of the late

WYMAN ABERCROMBIE,

would respectfully solicit the patronage of his

OLD CUSTOMERS,

also, that of his friends and the public generally.

EBENEZER BENT. Quincy, Nov. 11.

DR. FLINT'S

QUAKER BITTERS

These celebrated Bitters are composed of choice Roots, Herbs, and Barks, among which are Gentian, Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry, Dandelion, Juniper, and other berries, and are so prepared as to retain all their medicinal qualities. They infallibly cure or greatly relieve the following complaints: Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Biliousness, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Summer Complaints, Piles, Kidney Diseases, Female Difficulties, Lassitude, Low Spirits, General Debility, and, in fact, everything caused by an impure state of the Blood or deranged condition of Stomach, Liver, or Kidneys. The aged find in the Quaker Bitters a gentle, soothing stimulant, so desirable in their declining years. No one can remain long in a weak, enfeebled condition, who use a few bottles of the Quaker Bitters.

Prepared by Dr. H. S. Flint & Co. At their Great Medical Depot, PROVIDENCE, R. I.

FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.

Iron in the Blood

PERUVIAN

SYRUP

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protochloride of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of a tonic, and is easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Purifying Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "Anemia," or "chlorotic" condition of the system. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoea, Bile, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reactions, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass. Pamphlets Free.

J. P. DINSMORE, Proprietor, No. 26 Dry St., New York. Sold by Druggists generally.

CLOTHING

MADE TO ORDER.

NEW STYLES

Fall and Winter Goods!

CLOTHING!

READY-MADE.

HATS and CAPS.

COLLARS and TIES.

Undershirts & Drawers.

GLOVES and STOCKINGS.

Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, &c.